Murujuga José Antonio González Zarandona,2020-01-17 A fascinating case study of the archaeological site at Murujuga Australia Located in the Dampier Archipelago of Western Australia Murujuga is the single largest archaeological site in the world It contains an estimated one million petroglyphs or rock art motifs produced by the Indigenous Australians who have historically inhabited the archipelago To date there has been no comprehensive survey of the site's petroglyphs or those who created them Since the 1960s regional mining interests have caused significant damage to this site destroying an estimated 5 to 25 percent of the petroglyphs in Murujuga Today Murujuga holds the unenviable status of being one of the most endangered archaeological sites in the world Jos Antonio Gonz lez Zarandona provides a full postcolonial analysis of Murujuga as well as a geographic and archaeological overview of the site its ethnohistory and its considerable significance to Indigenous groups before examining the colonial mistreatment of Murujuga from the seventeenth century to the present Drawing on a range of postcolonial perspectives Zarandona reads the assaults on the rock art of Murujuga as instances of what he terms landscape iconoclasm the destruction of art and landscapes central to group identity in pursuit of ideological political and economic dominance Viewed through the lens of landscape iconoclasm the destruction of Murujuga can be understood as not only the result of economic pressures but also as a means of reinforcing through neglect abandonment fragmentation and even certain practices of heritage preservation the colonial legacy in Western Australia Murujuga provides a case study through which to examine and begin to reject archaeology s global entanglement with colonial intervention and the politics of heritage preservation Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1995-10 The Map Collector ,1994 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1998 National Treasures from Australia's Great Libraries National Library of Australia,2005 National treasures from Australia s great libraries brings our national memory to life for the first time showcasing more than 170 treasures that have helped define our nation where we come from who we are and what sets us apart Both a guide and a lasting record of a remarkable exhibition this richly illustrated catalogue reveals the magnificent collections of Australia s National State and Territory libraries Engineers of the Southwest Pacific, 1941-1945: Engineer intelligence Hugh John Casey,United States.
