Portable Postmodernist:

The Portable Postmodernist Arthur Asa Berger, 2003 In this volume the author brings together key concepts written by postmodernists leading figures Lyotard Baudrillard Jameson and others Followed by his own commentary written in concise easy to understand language this book should be invaluable to students and professors alike who will find Berger's style refreshing Organised in 50 segments the subjects run the gamut from James Joyce to Disney culture to punk music Berger weaves these seemingly diverse topics together exploring and exposing postmodernism and its appearance in popular culture

Everyday Life in the Postmodern World Arthur Asa Berger, 2022-08-24 This introductory textbook familiarizes students with ideas of key thinkers and perspectives related to postmodern thought and everyday life The book is unique in that it offers selections from key passages of works of important thinkers as well as from some of the author's own publications that serve as examples of how to interpret various aspects of culture The book draws in readers with its engaging and conversational style and use of cases illustrations and photographs including fun discussions on everyday life under pandemic restrictions This is a must read for students taking courses in sociology cultural anthropology culture and media studies linguistics social philosophy and for specific courses on postmodernism

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Ads, Fads, and Consumer Culture Arthur Asa Berger, 2011-04-16 Now in its fourth edition Ads Fads and Consumer Culture deals with the impact of advertising upon American character and culture It offers a definition of advertising explains the way advertising agencies work discusses the functions of advertising and provides a psycho cultural perspective on advertising Among the topics it deals with are the role of brands in selling products and the problem of self alienation and its relation to consumption It also analyzes consumer cultures places advertising in the communication process and considers the use of sexuality in advertising political advertising and marketing theory The marketing discussion deals with the Values and Lifestyle Typology VALS and the Claritas typology The chapters analyzing print advertisements and television commercials are distinctive features of the book For print advertising it provides a list of topics to consider in analyzing print advertising and then provides a detailed analysis of a fascinating Fidji perfume advertisement that shows a Polynesian woman with a snake around her neck It provides a semiotic psychoanalytic sociological Marxist mythic and Feminist analysis of this advertisement For television commercials it analyzes the famous Macintosh 1984 commercials in a number of different ways as well In the last chapter it speculates about the role of advertising in selling drugs to people children and advertising and the problems advertising agencies have in getting people s attention It also offers a glossary to terms used in the book and an annotated bibliography

50 Ways to Understand Communication Arthur Asa Berger,2006-02-20 Is consciousness like an iceberg Does advertising lead to the commodification of humans What is the hidden meaning of fairy tales In 50 Ways to Understand Communication Arthur Asa Berger familiarizes readers with important concepts written by leading communication and cultural theorists such as Saussure LZvi Strauss de Certeau Lasswell McLuhan Postman and many others Organized in fifty short segments this concise guide covers a wide range of important ideas from psychoanalysis and semiology to humor otherness and nonverbal communication Berger s clear explanations and examples surround this assortment of influential writing walking the uninitiated through these sometimes dense theoretical works His selections and commentary will challenge readers to reconsider the role of communication in our culture This engaging accessible book is essential for students of communication and anyone interested in how we communicate in a world of rapidly changing media

Finding Kluskap Jennifer Reid,2013-07-16 The Mi kmaq of eastern Canada were among the first indigenous North Americans to encounter colonial Europeans As early as the mid sixteenth century they were trading with French fishers and by the mid seventeenth century large numbers of Mi kmaq had converted to Catholicism Mi kmaw Catholicism is perhaps best exemplified by the community s regard for the figure of Saint Anne the grandmother of Jesus Every year for a week coinciding with the saint s feast day of July 26 Mi kmaw peoples from communities throughout Quebec and eastern Canada gather on the small island of Potlotek off the coast of Nova Scotia It is however far from a conventional Catholic celebration In fact it expresses a complex relationship between the Mi kmaq Saint Anne a series of eighteenth century treaties and a cultural hero named Kluskap Finding Kluskap brings together years of historical research and learning among Mi kmaw peoples on Cape Breton Island Nova Scotia The author s long term relationship with Mi kmaw friends and colleagues provides a unique vantage point for scholarship one shaped not only by personal relationships but also by the cultural intellectual and historical situations that inform postcolonial peoples The picture that emerges when Saint Anne Kluskap and the mission are considered in concert with one another is one of the sacred life as a site of adjudication for both the meaning and efficacy of religion and the impact of modern history on contemporary indigenous religion

Ads, Fads, and Consumer Culture Arthur Asa Berger,2015-01-22 The fifth edition of this approachable text draws on both academic and applied perspectives to offer a lively critique of contemporary advertising s effects on American character and culture Berger explains how advertising works by employing a psycho cultural approach encouraging readers to think about advertisements and commercials in more analytical and profound ways Among the topics he addresses are the role of brands the problem of self alienation and how both relate to consumption Berger also considers the Values and Lifestyle VALS and Claritas typologies in marketing Distinctive chapters examine specific advertisements and commercials from multiple perspectives including semiotic psychoanalytic sociological Marxist mythic and feminist analysis Ads Fads and Consumer Culture provides an accessible overview of advertising in the United States spanning issues as diverse as sexuality politics market research consumer culture and more helping readers understand the role that advertising has played and continues to play in all our lives

Nietzsche as Postmodernist Clayton Koelb, 1990-01-01 This book addresses the quite timely question of the place of Nietzsche's thought with respect to the Western tradition the question whether Nietzsche defines or denies the very notion of philosophy as a tradition

Subjectivities, Identities, and Education after Neoliberalism Abraham P. DeLeon, 2019-03-21 In this book DeLeon presents a critique of neoliberalism and present times through a metaphor of social collapse and considers what remains once the dust has settled for a different kind of person to emerge Engaging a variety of social political and educational theories along with pop culture and literature DeLeon positions humanity at the edges of collapse and what will emerge after the fall Engaging academic and fictional alternatives he imagines future possibilities through a new kind of person that rises from the rubble Questioning the foundations of empiricism standardization and reproducible results that reject new forms of social and political projects from materializing DeLeon discusses the potentials of the imagination and the ways in which it can produce alternative possibilities for our collective future when unleashed and combined with fictional narratives Moving across multiple intellectual philosophical artistic and historical traditions he constructs a radical interdisciplinary vision that challenges us to think about transforming our collective future's one in which we construct a new kind of person ready to tackle the challenges of a potentially liberatory future and what this might entail

Disability and Social Movements Rachel Carling-Jenkins, 2016-05-23 This book provides the reader with a ground breaking understanding of disability and social movements By describing how disability is philosophically historically and theoretically positioned Carling Jenkins is able to then examine disability relationally through an evaluation of the contributions of groups engaged in similar human rights struggles The book locates disability rights as a new social movement and provides an explanation for why disability has been divided rather than united in Australia Finally it investigates whether the recent campaign to implement a national disability insurance scheme represents a re emergence of the movement It will be of interest to all scholars and students of both disability studies and social movements
