Portrait Of The Moray Firth:

Portrait of the Moray Firth Cuthbert Graham, 1977 A Portrait of Roman Britain John Wachter, 2013-12-19 The Romans occupied Britain for almost four hundred years and their influence is still all around us in the shape of individual monuments such as Hadrian's Wall the palace at Fishbourne and the spa complex at Bath as well as in subtler things such as the layout and locations of ancient towns such as London Canterbury and Colchester and the routes of many major roads Yet this evidence can only suggest a small proportion of the effect that the Romans had on the landscape of Britain A Portrait of Roman Britain breaks new ground in enabling us to visualise the changes in town and countryside brought by Roman military and civilian needs Using clear well documented descriptions John Wachter answers questions such as were Roman towns as neat and tidy as they are often represented how much woodland was needed to fuel the bath houses of Roman Britain how much land did a Roman cavalry regiment require for its horses British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections
