Riffaterre, 1983 Although deconstruction has become a popular catchword as an intellectual movement it has never entirely caught on within the university For some in the academy deconstruction and Jacques Derrida in particular are responsible for the demise of accountability in the study of literature Countering these facile dismissals of Derrida and deconstruction Herman Rapaport explores the incoherence that has plagued critical theory since the 1960s and the resulting legitimacy crisis in the humanities Against the backdrop of a rich informed discussion of Derrida's writings and how they have been misconstrued by critics and admirers alike The Theory Mess investigates the vicissitudes of Anglo-American criticism over the past thirty years and proposes some possibilities for reform Michel Butor Barbara Mason, 1979 Landscapes of Realism Dirk Göttsche, Rosa Mucignat, Robert Weninger, 2021-04-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity Landscapes of Realism is a two-volume collaborative interdisciplinary exploration of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth-century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this first volume tackles in its five core essays and
