Dickinson and Audience Martin Orzeck,Robert Weisbuch,1996 An obsessively private writer Emily Dickinson almost never submitted poems for publication which she deemed the Auction Of the Mind Yet over a century of criticism has established what readers of various sensibilities describe as a shockingly intimate relation between text and audience making the question of whom the poems address a crucial element in interpreting them This volume of essays is the first book exclusively focused on Dickinson s relation to audience from the relatively few persons who received many of the poems to that vast unseen yet somehow specific other that any literary work addresses Dickinson s writings were influenced by her ambivalent attitude toward the conventions of the nineteenth century literary marketplace and her desire to shape more intimate relations with chosen contemporaries Still her poems and letters engage modern readers and speak to the social and gendered politics of our own day The essays in Dickinson and Audience treat both the importance of Dickinson's personal friendships and the ways in which contemporary poetics continue to sustain the vitality of her writings With contributions from Willis J Buckingham Karen Dandurand Betsy Erkkila Virginia Jackson Charlotte Nekola Martin Orzeck David Porter Robert Regan Richard B Sewall R McClure Smith Stephanie A Tingley and Robert Weisbuch the collection boasts a wide variety of critical approaches to the poet and her works from traditional biographical and historical analyses to deconstructionist feminist and reader response interpretations It will interest not only scholars in these areas but also anyone who wants to gain insight into Dickinson's creative genius

American Paintings at Harvard Theodore E. Stebbins, Melissa Renn, 2008-01-01 This volume features nearly 500 paintings watercolors pastels and miniatures from Harvard University's storied yet little known collection of American art These works many unpublished are drawn from the Harvard Art Museums the University Portrait Collection the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology and other entities and date from the early colonial years to the mid 19th century Highlights include a rare group of 17th century portraits along with important paintings by Robert Feke John Singleton Copley Charles Willson Peale Gilbert Stuart and Washington Allston in addition to works depicting western and Native American subjects by Alexandre de Batz Henry Inman and Alfred Jacob Miller among others Each work is accompanied by scholarly commentary that draws on extensive new research as well as a complete exhibition and reference history An introduction by Theodore E Stebbins Jr describes the history of the collection Lavishly illustrated in color this compendium is a testament to the nation's oldest collection of American art and an essential resource for scholars and collectors alike

The Design of Agreement Sandra Chung, 1998 Sandra Chung proposes that linguistic theory must recognize not one but two agreement relations a featural relation that lies behind agreement's impact on the form of words and a configurational relation that lies behind agreement's impact on syntactic structure She identifies the two relations and argues that neither can be reduced to the other Chung offers the most comprehensive analysis of the syntax of Chamorro that has appeared to date and relates her proposals to what is known about analogous constructions in English Italian Irish Japanese Maori and other languages

Stories and Portraits of the Self Helena Carvalh o Buescu, Jo o Ferreira Duarte, 2007 In contemporary societies privatization has long ceased to be just an economic concept rather it must increasingly be made to refer to the ongoing shrinking of the public space under the impact of the representation of individual lives and images which cuts across all discourses genres and media to become one of the primary means of production of culture This volume is intended to cover such an historical social and intellectual ground where self representation comes to the fore Targeting mostly an academic readership but certainly also of interest to the general educated public it collects a wide range of essays dealing with diverse modes of life writing and portraying from a variety of perspectives and focusing on different historical periods and media It thus offers itself as a major
