Saunders, 2016-09-06 A sweeping exploration of why and how we look at ourselves through art Subject to Display Jennifer A. Gonzalez, 2011-03-04 An exploration of the visual culture of race through the work of five contemporary artists who came to prominence during the 1990s Over the past two decades artists James Luna Fred Wilson Amalia Mesa Bains Pep n Osorio and Ren e Green have had a profound impact on the meaning and practice of installation art in the United States In Subject to Display Jennifer Gonz lez offers the first sustained analysis of their contribution linking the history and legacy of race discourse to innovations in contemporary art Race writes Gonz lez is a social discourse that has a visual history The collection and display of bodies images and artifacts in museums and elsewhere is a primary means by which a nation tells the story of its past and locates the cultures of its citizens in the present All five of the American installation artists Gonzalez considers have explored the practice of putting human subjects and their cultures on display by staging elaborate dioramas or site specific interventions in galleries and museums in doing so they have created powerful social commentary of the politics of space and the power of display in settings that mimic the very spaces they critique These artists installations have not only contributed to the transformation of contemporary art and museum culture but also linked Latino African American and Native American subjects to the broader spectrum of historical colonialism race dominance and visual culture From Luna s museum installation of his own body and belongings as artifacts and Wilson s provocative juxtapositions of museum objects to Mesa Bains s allegorical home altars Osorio s condensed spaces bedrooms living rooms barbershops prison cells and Green s genealogies of cultural contact the theoretical and critical endeavors of these artists demonstrate how race discourse is grounded in a visual technology of display
