Portraits Of Ordinary Chinese:

Portraits of Ordinary Chinese 平凡人的肖像, 1990 Portraits of 21st Century Chinese Universities: Ruth Hayhoe, Jun Li, Jing Lin, Qiang Zha, 2012-12-03 This book examines the ways in which China's universities have changed in the dramatic move to a mass stage which has unfolded since the late 1990s. Twelve universities in different regions of the country are portrayed through the eyes of their students, faculty and leaders. The book begins with the national level policy process around the move to mass higher education. This is followed by an analysis of the views of 2,300 students on the 12 campuses about how the changes have affected their learning experiences and civil society involvement. The 12 portraits in the next section are of three comprehensive universities, three education related universities, three science and technology universities and three newly emerging private universities. The final chapter sketches the contours of an emerging Chinese model of the university and explores its connections to China's longstanding scholarly traditions. Art History, Narratology, and

Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Lian Duan, 2023-07-28 This study constructs a framework of narratology for art history and rewrites the development of twentieth century Chinese art from a narratological perspective. Theoretically and methodologically oriented, this is a self-reflective meta-art history studying the art historical narratives while narrating the story of modern and contemporary Chinese art. Thus, this book explores the three layers of narrative within the narratological framework: the first-hand fabula, the secondary narration, and the tertiary narrativization. With this tertiary narrativization, the reader/author presents three types of narrative: the grand narrative of the central thesis of this book, the middle-range narrative of the chapter theses and case analyses supporting these theses. The focus of this tertiary narrativization is the interaction between Western influence on Chinese art and the Chinese response to this influence. The central thesis is that this interaction conditioned and shaped the development of Chinese art at every historical turning point in the twentieth century. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, critical theory, Chinese studies, and cultural studies.

Researching Chinese Learners L. Jin, M. Cortazzi, 2011-02-01 This collection focuses on Chinese learners with original data sets using innovative research methods. It investigates Chinese learners' learning and language skills, perceptions, and particularly the processes of reciprocal intercultural adaptations in a wide international context of Australia, Canada, China, Hong Kong, New Zealand, and the UK. How to Read Portraits Kathryn Calley Galitz, 2024-04-29 Portraiture goes far beyond capturing a likeness. This intimate genre sheds light on the subjects and makers, politics, relationships, aspirations, and insecurities. Featuring more than fifty works across time and cultures, from the lifelike Faiyum funerary masks of ancient Roman Egypt to Pablo Picasso's and Marsden Hartley's abstractions to likenesses imagined by contemporary artists, this publication probes the notion of what constitutes a portrait beyond mere verisimilitude. Bestselling author Kathryn Calley Galitz illuminates how artists through the ages have exploited the genre to reveal character and convey power and status, how artists as varied as Rembrandt and Cindy Sherman embraced artifice and roleplaying to explore identity and how the term portraiture encompasses a wider variety of works than typically thought This reexamination of a deceptively familiar genre provides fascinating ideas about what these images can tell us about the sitter the artist the culture in which they lived and ourselves 中国模式面面观 王寅,2004

Negotiating Friendships Shuo Wang,2020-08-10 Social network are nowadays inherent parts of our lives and highly developed communication technique helps us maintain our relationships But how did it work in the early 19th century in a time without cell phones and internet A Chinese Hong Merchant in Canton Trade named Houqua 1769 1843 who lived in isolated Qing China gives us an outstanding answer Despite various barriers in cultures languages political situations and his identity as a Chinese merchant strictly under control of the Qing government Houqua established a commercial network across three continents Asia North America and Europe This book will not only uncover his secrets and actions in his Chinese social network especially patronage relationships in traditional Chinese society but also reconstruct his intercultural network including his unique and even modern friendship with some American traders which lasted almost half a century after Houqua s death

Chinese Propaganda Posters: From Revolution to Modernization Stefan Landsberger,2020-11-25

Brightly coloured prints portraying model behaviour or a better future have been a ubiquitous element of Chinese political culture from Imperial times until present. As economic reform swept the People's Republic in the 1980s, visual propaganda ceased to depict the tanned and muscular labourers in a proletarian utopia so typical of preceding decades. Instead, Western icons of progress and development were employed: high speed bullet trains, spacecraft, high rise buildings, gridlocked free ways and projections of general affluence. Socialist Realism was phased out by design and mixed media techniques that were influenced by Western advertising. This lavishly illustrated study traces the development of the style and content of the Chinese propaganda poster in the decade of reform from its traditional origins to its use as a tool for political and economic purposes.

Reading Chinese Painting Sophia Suk Law, Tony Blishen, 2024-02-15. Applying a comparative approach to Chinese and Western art, this book examines the characteristics of traditional Chinese art and analyses the distinction between figure painting and portraiture. It examines the scenery in Chinese landscape painting and the sense of poetry within the paintings of flowers and birds so that the reader comes to understand the unique essence of Chinese art and is gradually led towards the ethereal world of spiritual abstraction displayed in Chinese painting. The author relates the development of Chinese painting to the pursuit of the conceptual sense yijing found in Chinese philosophy and classical literature. She describes how Confucianism determined the content of the development of painting while Daoism guided the concept of aestheticism within it. Professor Law also examines the way in which differences of method and media profoundly influenced the artistic outcome: producing the western skills in the handling of color and light and shade and in China the imaginative use of ink on paper. All this is reflected in numerous illustrations ranging from Van Gogh to the great Chinese painters of all the different dynasties from the early Jin dynasty to the Ming and Qing dynasties. After reading this book, readers will follow the author's rich experience in Chinese painting to understand the characteristics of the different genres of Chinese painting and be able to deeply appreciate the inner meaning of Chinese painting.

A History of Chinese Art in the 20th and 21st Century Lü Peng, 2025-02-03. This book situates the development of 20th and 21st century Chinese art in such fundamental contexts as Chinese politics and social change and is ideally suited for readers to understand the particularities of Chinese art that are distinct from Western art history. Such an approach is appropriate to the understanding of the development of modern Chinese art which differs from both the Western approach to art history and the approach to traditional Chinese art which is limited to the combining of ink and brush heritage and ideological traditions. Based on the scale and influence of historical works, considering the specificity of the term involving fine art in China and the scope of influence of the phenomenon of fine art in the cultural field, this book's study of the phenomena of painting, sculpture, photography, video and mixed media art follows two linear time lines of historical relevance: 1949-1978 and 1978 to the present. Special attention is paid to the development of modern and contemporary art after 1978. The main readers of this book are undergraduate students in art schools, graduate and doctoral students in art history, students in other humanities disciplines, experts and professors in the study of 20th century Chinese art and cultural history should be important readers of this book
