Portraits A Face For Every Mask:

Face and Mask Hans Belting, 2022-06-14 A cultural history of the face in Western art ranging from portraiture in painting and photography to film theater and mass media This fascinating book presents the first cultural history and anthropology of the face across centuries continents and media Ranging from funerary masks and masks in drama to the figural work of contemporary artists including Cindy Sherman and Nam June Paik renowned art historian Hans Belting emphasizes that while the face plays a critical role in human communication it defies attempts at visual representation Belting divides his book into three parts faces as masks of the self portraiture as a constantly evolving mask in Western culture and the fate of the face in the age of mass media Referencing a vast array of sources Belting's insights draw on art history philosophy theories of visual culture and cognitive science He demonstrates that Western efforts to portray the face have repeatedly failed even with the developments of new media such as photography and film which promise ever greater degrees of verisimilitude In spite of sitting at the heart of human expression the face resists possession and creative endeavors to capture it inevitably result in masks hollow signifiers of the humanity they're meant to embody From creations by Van Eyck and August Sander to works by Francis Bacon Ingmar Bergman and Chuck Close Face and Mask takes a remarkable look at how through the centuries the physical visage has inspired and evaded artistic interpretation

Portraiture Richard Brilliant, 2013-05-15 This is the first general and theoretical study devoted entirely to portraiture Drawing on a broad range of images from Antiquity to the twentieth century which includes paintings sculptures prints cartoons postage stamps medals documents and photographs Richard Brilliant investigates the genre as a particular phenomenon in Western art that is especially sensitive to changes in the perceived nature of the individual in society The author's argument on behalf of portraiture and he draws on examples by such artists as Botticelli Rembrandt Matisse Warhol and Hockney does not comprise a mere survey of the genre nor is it a straightforward history of its reception Instead Brilliant presents a thematic and cogent analysis of the connections between the subject matter of portraits and the beholder's response the response he or she makes to the image itself and to the person it represents Portraiture's extraordinary longevity and resilience as a genre is a testament to the power of this imaginative transaction between the subject the artist and the beholder

Photography and Other Media in the Nineteenth Century Nicoletta Leonardi,Simone Natale,2018-02-05 In this volume leading scholars of photography and media examine photography s vital role in the evolution of media and communication in the nineteenth century In the first half of the nineteenth century the introduction of telegraphy the development of a cheaper and more reliable postal service the rise of the mass circulation press and the emergence of the railway dramatically changed the way people communicated and experienced time and space Concurrently photography developed as a medium that changed how images were produced and circulated Yet for the most part photography of the era is studied outside the field of media history The contributors to this volume challenge those established disciplinary boundaries as they programmatically explore the intersections of photography and new media during a period of fast paced change Their essays look at the emergence and early history of photography in the context of broader changes in the history of communications the role of the nascent photographic press in photography s infancy and the development of photographic techniques as part of a broader media culture that included the mass consumed novel sound recording and cinema Featuring essays by noteworthy historians in photography and media history this discipline shifting examination of the communication revolution of the nineteenth century is an essential addition to the field of media studies In addition to the editors contributors to this volume are Geoffrey Batchen Geoffrey Belknap Lynn Berger Jan von Brevern Anthony Enns Andr Gaudreault Lisa Gitelman David Henkin Erkki Huhtamo Philippe Marion Peppino Ortoleva Steffen Siegel Richard Taws and Kim Timby

A Familiar Strangeness Stuart Burrows,2010-03-01 Literary critics have traditionally suggested that the invention of photography led to the rise of the realist novel which is believed to imitate the detail and accuracy of the photographic image Instead says Stuart Burrows photography s influence on American fiction had less to do with any formal similarity between the two media than with the capacity of photography to render American identity and history homogeneous and reproducible The camera according to Burrows provoked a representational crisis one broadly modernist in character Since the photograph is not only a copy of its subject but a physical product of it the camera can be seen as actually challenging mimetic or realistic theories of representation which depend on a recognizable gap between original and reproduction Burrows argues for the centrality of photography to a set of writers commonly thought of as hostile to the camera including Nathaniel Hawthorne Henry James William Faulkner and Zora Neale Hurston The photographic metaphors and allusions to the medium that appear throughout these writers work demonstrate the ways in which one representational form actually influences another by changing how artists conceive of identity history and art itself A Familiar Strangeness thus challenges the notion of an absolute break between nineteenth century realism and twentieth century modernism a break that typically centers precisely on the two movements supposedly differing relation to the camera Just as modernist fiction interrupts and questions the link between visibility and knowledge so American realist fiction can be understood as making the world less knowable precisely by making it more visible The British Journal of Photography William Crookes,T. A. Malone,George Shadbolt,J. Traill Taylor,William Blanchard Bolton,Thomas Bedding,1917

Graeco-Egyptian Coffins, Masks and Portraits Campbell Cowan Edgar,1905 Picasso in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),Pablo Picasso,Magdalena Dabrowski,Christel Hollevoet,2010 This publication presents a comprehensive catalogue of the works by Pablo Picasso in the Metropolitan Museum Comprising 34 paintings 59 drawings 12 sculptures and ceramics and more than 400 prints the collection reflects the full breadth of the artist s multi sided genius as it asserted itself over the course of his long career The Photographic Uncanny Claire Raymond,2019-11-23 This book argues for a renewed understanding of the fundamentally uncanny quality of the medium of photography It especially makes the case for the capacity of certain photographs precisely through their uncanniness to contest structures of political and social dominance The uncanny as a quality that unsettles the perception of home emerges as a symptom of modern and contemporary society and also as an aesthetic apparatus by which some key photographs critique the hegemony of capitalist and industrialist domains The book s historical scope is large beginning with William Henry Fox Talbot and closing with contemporary indigenous photographer Bear Allison and contemporary African American photographer Devin Allen Through close readings exegesis of individual photographs and careful deployment of contemporary political and aesthetic theory The Photographic Uncanny argues for a re envisioning of the political capacity of photography to expose the haunted homeless condition of modernity Tesla: A Portrait with Masks Vladimir Pistalo,2015-01-06 An electric novel of the extraordinary life of one of the twentieth century s most prodigious and colorful inventors Nikola Tesla was a man forever misunderstood From his boyhood in what is present day Croatia where his father a Serbian Orthodox priest dismissed his talents to his tumultuous years in New York City where his heated rivalry with Thomas Edison yielded triumphs and failures Tesla was both demonized and lionized Tesla captures the whirlwind years of the dawn of the electrical age when his flair for showmanship kept him in the public eye For every successful invention the alternating current electrical system and wireless communication among them there were hundreds of others But what of the man behind the image Vladimir Pistalo reveals the inner life of a man haunted by the loss of his older brother a man who struggled with flashes of madness and brilliance whose mistrust of institutional support led him to financial ruin Tesla A Portrait with Masks is an impassioned account of a visionary whose influence is still felt today A Portrait of Intercession D. Spencer Mark D. Spencer, Mark D. Spencer, Mark D Spencer, 2010-02 A Portrait of Intercession is a collection of articles often prophetic in nature dealing with various aspects of intercession Each chapter will at once challenge the believer to go not only the first mile with Jesus but willingly and joyfully press on in true and vital fashion overcoming faith to go the second mile with Him in prayer and intercession A Portrait of Intercession is a series of challenges calling the believer to stretch out in believing and bold faith It is a call to a more intense and intimate relationship with Jesus to see His vision for the nations and to hear His heart for the peoples of the world Intercession is of necessity a hidden ministry Its labors may be seen only by a few but it is recognized and welcomed at the Throne of Grace It is possibly the most noble of ministries and surely the most noble of the various forms of prayer Intercession willingly joins us with Jesus in His never ending ever watchful prayer for His people It is a selfless praying which readily enters into Christ s sufferings that is our joining with Him in His divine laboring at the expense of our own wants and desires Illustrated World ,1918 The Portraits of Shakespeare Joseph Parker Norris, 1884 Herbert List Herbert List, 2000 In the 30s Herbert list had compiled a portfolio of photographs for a large book on Greece The outbreak of the war prevented the project from being realized In association with the Herbert List estate Schirmer Mosel first produced a reconstruction of the planned book in 1993 The photographs landscapes fragments of sculpture ruined temples people at the sea conjure up a vision of classical Hellas bathed in light and beauty with the traces of the 20th century largely excluded In view of the tempestuous assaults made by civilizing development Herbert List s photographs themselves are today like archeological discoveries that have come down to us from a distant long vanished Golden Age Edited by photographer Max Scheler the book contains an essay by Hugo von Hofmannsthal in which the Austrian poet and dramatist describes his first journey to Greece in 1922 Now available again in a special low price softcover reprint Portrait of the King Louis Marin, 1988-02-12 The Complete Works of Shakespeare.
