engagingly depicts young people's experiences growing up in the Middle East. The characters drawn from urban and rural settings and from different classes as well as a mix of countries confront situations involving friends, family, teachers, and society at large. Along with some specifically Middle Eastern issues such as strife in Iraq, the hardships of life in a Palestinian refugee camp, and honor crimes, the young people deal with more familiar concerns such as loyalty to friends, overcoming personal insecurities, dreams of a future career, and coping with divorcing parents. Coming of age in a complicated world, they meet life with courage, determination, and not least of all, humor. With accompanying notes that provide contextual information, Santa Claus in Baghdad brings a fresh perspective to youth literature about the Arab world.

Santa's Secret Helpers series and can easily be read as a standalone. Each of Leeanna's series are linked so you can find out what happens to your favorite characters in other books. If you would like to know when Leeanna's next book is released, please visit leeannamorgan.com. Happy reading! Praise for Leeanna Morgan's books: I am addicted to Leeanna Morgan's books. The only problem with them is that I hate coming to the end of one and can't wait for the next good read. I love how she weaves the characters together and draws you right into their lives. If you haven't discovered her, please do give her books a try. You won't be disappointed except for not having found her sooner. I thoroughly enjoyed this book. I couldn't put it down. I purchased it today and finished it just now. Captivating story from beginning to end. Definitely a five-star book.
