Sappho And Tulle:

Sappho and Tulle Martial Alpha, Were Romy, 2005-01-01 Sappho Alphonse Daudet, 1899 Imitative Series and Clusters from Classical to Early Modern Literature Colin Burrow, Stephen J. Harrison, Martin McLaughlin, Elisabetta Tarantino, 2020-09-07 This volume shows the pervasiveness over a millennium and a half of the little studied phenomenon of multi tier intertextuality whether as linear window reference where author C simultaneously imitates or alludes to a text by author A and its imitation by author B or as multi directional imitative clusters It begins with essays on classical literature from Homer to the high Roman empire where the feature first becomes prominent then comes late antiquity a lively area of research at present and after a series of essays on European neo Latin literature from Petrarch to 1600 another area where developments are moving rapidly the volume concludes with early modern vernacular literatures Italian French Portuguese and English Most papers concern verse but prose is not ignored The introduction to the volume discusses the relevant methodological issues An Afterword outlines the critical history of window reference and includes a short essay by Professor Richard Thomas of Harvard University who coined the term in the 1980s Sappho's Legacy Marina Karides, 2021-04-01 Winner of the 2023 Gourmand Cookbook Award for Greece in the Women Category Imaginatively interweaving literatures across a variety of subjects Sappho's Legacy identifies the crucial role that islands and Greek economic culture play in teaching about capitalism's failures and alternatives Marina Karides delivers a historical and ethnographic account of food cooperatives and microenterprises on the Greek island of Lesbos following the 2008 financial crisis to reveal the success stories of grassroots traditional and community centered economics organized by people marginalized on the basis of gender sexuality and ethnicity Karides offers hope to others who are working against the tide of neoliberalism and heteropatriarchy to develop alternative or convivial economic practices that serve communities by providing a trail of rhythms from ancient times to the present that showcase Greece's historical resistance The Works of Alphonse Daudet: Sappho, to which is added Between the flies and the footlights; tr. by G. B. Ives Alphonse Daudet, 1899 Sappho Thomas McEvilly, 2008-03 The current volume on Sappho represents many years of work and includes two major unpublished new studies The Garden of the Graces The Survival of Bronze Age Religious Motifs into the Modern Lyric Poem and The Clear Voiced Song Loving Lyre Recent Explorations in Sapphic Studies BOOK JACKET The Novels and Romances of Alphonse Daudet: Sappho. Between the flies and the footlights. Arlatan's treasure Alphonse Daudet, 1898

Consider Sappho Burning Nicholas Delbanco, 1969 The Gendered 'I' in Ancient Literature Lisa Cordes, Therese Fuhrer, 2022-10-24 Considering the ubiquity of rhetorical training in antiquity the volume starts from the premise that every first person statement in ancient literature is in some way rhetorically modelled and aesthetically shaped Focusing on different types of Greek and Latin literature poetry and prose from the Archaic Age to Late Antiquity the contributions analyse the use and modelling of gender specific elements in different types of first person speech be it that the speaker is represented as the author of a work be it that they feature as characters in the work narrating their own story or that of others In doing so they do not only offer new insights into the rhetorical strategies and literary techniques used to construct a gendered I in ancient literature They also address the form and function of first person discourse in classical literature in general touching on fields of research that have increasingly come into focus in recent years such as authorship studies studies concerning the ancient notions of the literary persona as well as a historical narratology that discusses concepts such as the narrator or the literary character in ancient literary theory and practice Pages from the Life of a Pagan Mrs. Walter Tibbits,1921 The New Monthly Belle Assemblée , The Puritan ,1900 Sartain's Union Magazine of Literature and Art John Sartain,Caroline Matilda Kirkland,John Seely Hart,1851 Dictionnaire historique et critique Pierre Bayle,1720 Dictionnaire historique et critique Bayle,1740 A New General Biographical Dictionary: ed. by Thomas Wright Hugh James Rose,1857 Translation and Gender Luise Von Flotow,2016-04-08 The last thirty years of intellectual and artistic creativity in the 20th century have been marked by gender issues Translation practice translation theory and translation criticism have also been powerfully affected by the focus on gender As a result of feminist praxis and criticism and the simultaneous emphasis on culture in translation studies translation has become an important site for the exploration of the cultural impact of gender and the gender specific influence of culture With the dismantling of universal meaning and the struggle for women's visibility in feminist work and with the interest in translation as a visible factor in cultural exchange the linking of gender and translation has created fertile ground for explorations of influence in writing rewriting and reading Translation and Gender places recent work in translation against the background of the women's movement and its critique of patriarchal language It explains translation practices derived from experimental feminist writing the development of openly interventionist translation strategies the initiative to retranslate fundamental texts such as the Bible translating as a way of recuperating writings lost in patriarchy and translation history as a means of focusing on women translators of the past A New General Biographical Dictionary Hugh James Rose (B.D.),1848 The Theatre ,1914 A New General Biographical Dictionary ,1853
