Bibliography of the Literacy Support Project Betty A. Neely,1987      Young People's Books in Series Judith K. Rosenberg,C. Allen Nichols,1992 This volume describes and lists series published for young people from early elementary grades through high school Fiction series from 1976 through 1990 and new titles in existing series through 1991 are included as well as nonfiction series which are limited to in print titles only      Kicking Center Rachel Allison,2018-08-30 Winner of the 2018 Early Career Gender Scholar Award from the Sociologists for Women in Society South Girls and young women participate in soccer at record levels and the Women s National Team regularly draws media corporate and popular attention Yet despite increased representation and visibility gender disparities in opportunity compensation training resources and media airtime persist in soccer and two professional leagues for women have failed since 2000 In Kicking Center Rachel Allison investigates a women s soccer league seeking to break into the male dominated center of U S professional sport Through an examination of the challenges and opportunities identified by those working for and with this league she demonstrates how gender inequality is both constructed and contested in professional sport Allison details the complex constructions of race class gender and sexuality in the selling and marketing of women s soccer in a half changed sports landscape characterized by both progress and backlash and where professional sports are still understood to be men s territory      Soccer Chick Rules Dawn FitzGerald,2016-01-12 Tess s love in life is soccer When she finds out that all sports at her school will be cut unless the community votes for a tax levy Tess will do anything to rally votes She s even joining forces with a cheerleader to help spread the word and raise funds Throughout the campaign to save soccer Tess is playing her heart out on the soccer field and struggling to make passing grades in her classes But if the levy doesn t pass will it all have been for nothing Find out in Dawn FitzGerald s Soccer Chick Rules      The Credibility of Transnational NGOs Peter A. Gourevitch,David A. Lake,Janice Gross Stein,2012-01-12 We rely on NGOs to monitor the ethical practices of governments and for profit firms and to undertake many humanitarian tasks that public and private actors will not do While we are critical of public and private sector failures we do not reflect enough on the credibility of the NGOs which take their place Can we be sure that products NGOs label as child labor free are in fact so that the coffee labeled as fair trade is farmed in sustainable ways or that the working conditions monitored by NGOs are safe and that the wages are reasonable Can we know that humanitarian organizations are in fact using our donations to alleviate human suffering rather than pursuing other goals This book explores the problems of establishing the credibility of NGO activities as they monitor working conditions human rights and elections and provide finance through microcredit institutions development aid and emergency assistance      Love

Shadows Catherine Lanigan, 2014-04-01 Love twice in a lifetime There are five stages of grief and Luke Bosworth is stuck on anger Unable to move on after his wife's death he's struggling to make ends meet and be a good father to his children a fight he's afraid he's losing But then Sarah Jensen crashes into his life Dealing with the loss of her mother Sarah is a kindred spirit in grief And even though he doesn't always agree with her actions she renews hope for Luke and his kids Suddenly he's making plans for the future again But can he take the risk of falling in love a second time      Patch Town Robert Parlante, 2014-08-08 Widower for three years Frequent periods of unemployment throughout his life Unresolved anger A fragmented family that cannot deal with a father spiraling downward When Martin receives a letter from his old eighth grade teacher asking him to forgive her for a painful childhood accusation he is overwhelmed once again by his hatred for Miss Wingate blaming her for much of what went wrong in his life His son and daughter eventually help him take reluctant steps to forgive the teacher he wished was long dead He also meets recently divorced Linda who brings a flow of freshness into his life She encourages Martin to visit this teacher now dying from dementia in a nursing home Along his journey to the coal mining community of his childhood strangers enter his life compelling him to confront his past and unsure future helping him move from failure to forgiveness and spiritual redemption
