Sarah The Letters And Diaries Of A Courtiers Wife 1906 1936:

Sarah Lady Sarah Legh,1989 Sarah Lady Sarah Legh,1989 A fascinating record of life at the heart of high society London between the wars Sarah Bradford was born in Tennessee She married the younger son of Lord Shaftesbury and after the war went to London in 1918 as a war widow with three small children Soon she became a prominent figure in London society She married Captain Piers Legh equerry to the Prince of Wales and later Master of the Royal Household The letters and diaries she kept provide a fascinating picture of the Royal Family and London society between the wars The Compact Edition of the Oxford English Dictionary Sir James Augustus Henry Murray,1971 Micrographic reproduction of the 13 volume Oxford English dictionary published in 1933 Diary and Letters of Sarah Pierpont (afterwards the Wife of Jonathan Edwards). Amos Delos Gridley,1867 Letters of Sarah Orne Jewett Sarah Orne Jewett,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1911 edition Excerpt ing a grace which lies beyond all thought of the larger world to Mrs Fields Little Compton R I 8 September 1880 Dear Mrs Fields This is not a land where it is easy to write letters I can t help being idle except in thought and I think I never knew so quiet a country It is all like the places one goes to on the way to sleep There are n t any high hills but you look over the fields which are so like moors and you look and look and there is nothing you have to stop and wonder about the big roundheaded windmills are all still and today is a grey day which can t make up its mind to take the trouble to rain and here we are sitting by the fireplace and I was busy watching the smoke until I thought I would write a letter or two And whether I drive or sail I am the most placid and serene of all your friends and I forget that I ever was a girl who could n t go to sleep at night After this first letter the days passed without any record which has been preserved until bits of diary occur written during her life at South Berwick in the following years The country is beautiful to look at but it is such clear cold weather that you feel as if you were under a great block of clear shining ice instead of air and sky There is a grey cloud bank hanging over the sea all along the eastern horizon and I think it is going to snow again or rain The wood sleds are creeping out of the woods and into the village and the oxen are like rocks from the pastures or the tops of ledges they look so hard and tough and frosted over You are like my monkey and the jack in the box with your meetings Some day you will get up a big one that will scare you to death Tuesday 1882 I hate to keep sending you letters instead of going to The Life and Letters of Lady Sarah Lennox Sarah Lennox,1901
