Sarah's Psalm A Novel:

Sarah's Psalm Florence Ladd, 1997-08-05 Against the background of the civil rights movement and the beginnings of Afrocentrism in the late 1960s Florence Ladd tells the story of a young African American woman's search for her love and identity a journey that takes her from Massachusetts to Senegal and from a stifling marriage to a life filled with the riches of a new culture marriage and motherhood

Beyond Dichotomies Elisabeth Mudimbe-Boyi, 2012-02-01 Beyond Dichotomies examines literary texts cultural production and concrete local practices within the context of modernity and globalization by focusing on the ways in which some societies confront the complexity of cultures reflected in new forms of knowledge narratives and subjectivities The contributors explore how particular societies negotiate the relations between the global and the local and use a geographical comparative perspective combined with an interdisciplinary approach to offer a diversity of views and illuminate the cultural impact of globalization on different societies around the world Africa Asia Europe and the Americas These societies face complex questions regarding people's histories identities and cultures that embody the ambivalence contradictions and anxieties generated by the process of globalization The contributors provide a compelling conclusion for a rethinking and reconfiguration of cultures and intercultural relations in today's global world in which dichotomized representations coexist with a discourse of globalization

Laughing in the Face of Terrorism Bahadur Tejani, 2009 LAUGHING IN THE FACE OF TERRORISM is a collection of five books under a new title making the works affordable and a bargain for teachers and students of literature culture diversity seekers and the general public The search for harmony is a main theme in Tejani's work and here he speaks of it in words destined to be classic Music has the sweetness of the September sun the tenderness of a bird call in the woods the depth of unknown oceans and the serenity of the earth's swift strong glide across space You will marvel at the incredibly comic mission of the new Indian immigrant in America to teach Americans how to speak English properly Or rejoice in the friendship between Washington America's First President and a Muslim boy on Mount Rushmore Even wonder at Shakespeare committing suicide on the stage For variety Tejani teases the women of the world by comparing their scent to the aroma of rain on earth and exposes the vulnerability of men with satire on their preoccupation with the thermostat between their legs In this collection Ba Tejani has set out with mischief in his heart irreverent wisdom in his hands and a tickling teasing imagination which carries you on with a smile and a large question Just what is he upto What gifts of humanist synthesis does he have in his heart that we emerge refined and delighted and not peeved after reading one of his stories or watching his play 451 Pages Ebony, 1996-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine The African American Writer's Handbook Robert Fleming, 2009-03-04 With African Americans writing and buying books in record numbers the time is ripe for a comprehensive publishing guide tailored expressly to the needs of this vibrant creative community The African American Writers Handbook meets this challenge perfectly Written by veteran journalist and published author Robert Fleming this book gives writers the heart the determination and above all the crucial information to publish successfully in this highly competitive field Knowing the inner workings of the publishing industry provides any writer novice or veteran with a much needed advantage in the quest to get into print Inside you ll find A complete step by step guide to every aspect of the publishing process from the germination of a winning idea to the nuts and bolts of book production Tips on submitting proposals query letters and preparing manuscripts for submission Advice on negotiating contracts that extend careers How to use on line resources for research and profit Interviews with top editors agents publishing executives and bookstore owners Updated information on copyrights subsidiary rights sales and marketing The trials and triumphs of self publishing The art of promoting your work and yourself to a wider audience An insider s look at the economic realities of the book business And much more Here too are scores of inspiring interviews and capsule biographies of leading African American writers both past and present How did Richard Wright become America s first bestselling black writer How did Zora Neale Hurston break through the artistic boundaries of the Harlem Renaissance long after her death What was Toni Cade Bambara doing before she sold her first book Why should Ann Petry William Gardner Smith Nella Larsen and William Melvin Kelley be revered wherever African American literature is read Blending practical information and fascinating anecdotes with a mini literary history of African American writing this upbeat savvy essential guide is a publishing primer with soul Is that Your Child? Marion Kilson, Florence Ladd, 2009-01-01 In their book Is That Your Child Mothers Talk about Rearing Biracial Children Kilson and Ladd explore the challenges that mothers of biracial children encounter Although the literature on biracial Americans has expanded in the last twenty years Kilson and Ladd s book is unique in focusing on the experiences of a heterogeneous set of black and white mothers of different generations and socioeconomic circumstances Sarah's Promise (Country Road Chronicles Book #3) Leisha Kelly, 2008-09-01 Frank Hammond makes a wintry journey of over two hundred miles to help his brother and look into a job offer he hopes will be the new beginning he is searching for But all Sarah wants is to make a home as close as possible to the farms where they were raised Why would Frank even consider moving so far away As Frank strives to make a new start in a fresh location he comes face to face with his own handicaps and a new found call of God At the same time Sarah struggles for the faith to fulfill her own promise to trust God and Frank no matter what the circumstances With their wedding date approaching Sarah must come to terms with her doubts and misgivings while Frank finds that a gesture of kindness to strangers has opened a surprising door of renewed hope Leisha Kelly fans will thrill to see the unfolding love story of Frank and Sarah a fitting conclusion to the Wortham and Hammond saga African, American David Peterson del Mar, 2017-06-15 Africa has long gripped the American imagination From the Edenic wilderness of Edgar Rice Burroughs's Tarzan novels to the black Zion of Garvey's Back to Africa movement all manner of Americans whether white or black male or female have come to see Africa as an idealized stage on which they can fashion new more authentic selves In this remarkable panoramic work David Peterson del Mar explores the ways in which American fantasies of Africa have evolved over time as well as the role of Africans themselves in subverting American attitudes to their continent Spanning seven decades from the post war period to the present day and encompassing sources ranging from literature film and music to accounts by missionaries aid workers and travel writers African American is a fascinating deconstruction of Africa as it exists in the American mindset Africa and Trans-Atlantic Memories Naana Jane Opoku-Agyemang, Paul E. Lovejoy, David Vincent Trotman, 2008 Sarah's Patchwork Stephanie Grace Whitson, 1998-05-19 Book One in the Keepsake Legacies Series Abandoned by their father Sarah Biddle's life turns around when she and her brother come to Nebraska and meet two amazing women whose love changes their lives A Stranger in the Village Farah J. Griffin, Cheryl J. Fish, 1999-05-01 Dispatches diaries memoirs and letters by African American travelers in search of home justice and adventure from the Wild West to Australia Toni Morrison Carmen Gillespie, 2012-11-30 Toni Morrison the only living American Nobel laureate in literature published her first novel in 1970 In the ensuing forty plus years Morrison's work has become synonymous with the most significant literary art and intellectual engagements of our time The publication of Home May 2012 as well as her 2011 play Desdemona affirm the range and acuity of Morrison's imagination Toni Morrison Forty Years in The Clearing enables audiences readers critics and students to review Morrison's cultural and literary impacts and to consider the import and influence of her legacies in her multiple roles as writer editor publisher reader scholar artist and teacher over the last four decades Some of the highlights of the collection include contributions from many of the major scholars of Morrison's canon as well as art pieces music photographs and commentary from poets Nikki Giovanni and Sonia Sanchez novelist A J Verdelle playwright Lydia Diamond composer Richard Danielpour photographer Timothy Greenfield Sanders the first published interview with Morrison's friends from Howard University Florence Ladd and Mary Wilburn and commentary from President Barack Obama What distinguishes this book from the many other publications that engage Morrison's work is that the collection is not exclusively a work of critical interpretation or reference This is the first publication to contextualize and to consider the interdisciplinary artistic and intellectual impacts of Toni Morrison using the formal fluidity and dynamism that characterize her work This book adopts Morrison's metaphor as articulated in her Pulitzer Prize winning novel Beloved The narrative describes the clearing as a wide open place cut deep in the woods nobody knew for what In the heat of every Saturday afternoon she sat in the clearing while the people waited among the trees Morrison's Clearing is a complicated and dynamic space Like the intricacies of Morrison s intellectual and artistic voyages the Clearing is both verdant and deadly a sanctuary and a prison Morrison s vision invites consideration of these complexities and confronts these most basic human conundrums with courage resolve and grace This collection attempts to reproduce the character and spirit of this metaphorical terrain

On Spiritual Strivings Cynthia B. Dillard, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2008 Critics Choice Awards presented by the American Educational Studies Association This engaging book offers a personal look at how centering spirituality in an academic life transforms its very foundations its epistemology paradigm and methods and becomes the site for spiritual healing and service to the world Focusing primarily on her work in Ghana West Africa Cynthia B Dillard presents a unique perspective on Africa as a site for transformative possibilities for African American academics scholars and explores the deeper spiritual meanings of being African Through poetry personal narrative meditations and journal entries Dillard shares her experiences as an African American scholar and in the process provides a concrete example of what W E B Du Bois called spiritual strivings
