Nancy Breen, 1984 The Blueline Anthology Rick Henry, Anthony O. Tyler, Stephanie Coyne-DeGhett, Myra Gann, Alan Steinberg, Alice Wolf Gilborn, 2004-03-01 Since 1979 the literary journal Blueline has served as a venue for literature that reflects the distinctive spirit of the Adirondack region. These poems and prose pieces drawn from twenty five years of Blueline's pages represent the abundance and variety of creative responses to the singular geography and history of the Adirondacks. Read together however they do something more: they reveal a distinct way of looking at the world attuned both to nature in all its various detail and to profound questions about nature and humanity. Under the editors' discriminating eyes the contributions coalesce into a natural and elegant extension of the region's landscape and people. From Joseph Bruchac's Writing by Moonlight and Neal Burdick's Waiting for a Train at the Plattsburgh Amtrak Station to Alice Wolf Gilborn's On Adirondack Porches The Blueline Anthology offers rare glimpses into the soul of a region: brief and shifting views that like those glimpsed by a hiker looking out from the trees at the blue mountains capture the eye and the mind. Pindar's Poetry, Patrons, and Festivals Simon Hornblower, Catherine Morgan, 2007-02-22 Ancient sport made a huge if indirect contribution to the literature of ancient Greece: since some sixty poems by Pindar and Bacchylides (epinikian odes) written to commemorate victories survive from the Classical period. This book is a collection of essays about that literature and about the social and physical context for which it was written. The editors assembled an internationally distinguished team of speakers for the original 2002 seminar series held in London and these papers form the backbone of the book. But to ensure coherence and comprehensive coverage they have commissioned three further papers and have themselves written a long thematic Introduction. The result is a stellar team of authors and a book which looks at an important literary phenomenon in light of the latest archaeological and sociological insights as well as evaluating the poetry both as poetry and as a performance genre with distinctive characteristics.
