Sartre's Theory of Literature Christina Howells, 1979 Sartre's Theatre B. P. O'Donohoe, Benedict O'Donohoe, 2005
Published on the eve of the philosopher playwright's centenary this study offers a wide ranging re appraisal of Sartre's complete dramatic opus from the inaugural nativity play Bariona 1940 to the swan song chorus of Armageddon Les Troyennes 1965 It draws on a close reading of Sartre's writings in philosophy literature and criticism and provides an extensive survey of journalistic and academic reception Each play is situated in relation both to Sartre's intellectual evolution and to the broader historical context This is the first full length study in English for more than thirty years covering the whole of Sartre's theatre and it will interest students of twentieth century European drama as well as those of modern French literature and ideas

Lesbian Materialism Morgane Cadieu, Annabel L. Kim, 2023-01-01
Yale French Studies 142 explores the contemporary relevance of an alternative strand of feminism as theorized by Monique Wittig This volume of Yale French Studies foregrounds Monique Wittig 1935 2003 a writer who left France to live and teach in the United States in a diverse range of multidisciplinary conversations in literary studies history and gender and sexuality studies to demonstrate how

Wittig's theoretical and literary work remains an indispensable resource for thinking and creating in the twenty first century. Editors Morgane Cadieu and Annabel L Kim flip the materialist lesbianism that Wittig's collection of essays The Straight Mind centers and describes as being the core of Wittig's work to deal instead with lesbian materialism thereby making lesbian the method and materialism the object and allowing Wittig's work to realize its full range. The volume reinterrogates the official historiography of French materialist feminism expands the intellectual framework within which Wittig's work is usually considered insists on the language centric materialism that emerges from Wittig's writing as a way of joining the political with the literary and attends to the way this literary material inspires material responses and creations within the plastic arts. Underlying the entire volume is a keen sense of the materiality of Wittig's archives housed at the Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library at Yale University as a site of lesbian thought in Wittig's radical sense of the term a fugitive positionality. Les Écrivains Devant Dieu, 1966 National Union Catalog, 1970 Includes entries for maps and atlases
