Saskatchewan Canada In The 21st Century

Dr. Marvin S. Anderson

Saskatchewan Canada In The 21st Century:

Saskatchewan's Communities in the 21st Century Jack C. Stabler, Margaret Rose Olfert, University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2002 This report traces the evolution of Saskatchewan's trade centre system for the 40 years between 1961-2001 For assessing classifying communities into functional categories 68 variables are used In assessing a community's status future prospects the systematic trade centre relationships the demand thresholds required to support trade service activities and the impact of non systematic events such as the establishment of a manufacturing plant or mine are taken into account The relationship between infrastructure economic development is also discussed The events summarized emphasize a continuous extension of the geographic framework within which people journey to work shop attend school obtain health care and in general live their everyday lives In this process the concept of community as a functional entity has evolved from village or town to a region large enough to satisfy the everyday requirements of rural dwellers

Canada on the Threshold of the 21st Century C.H.W. Remie, J.-M. Lacroix, 1991-08-22 This collection contains a selection of papers presented at the very First All European Canadian Studies Conference that took place in The Hague October 24-27 1990 This unique meeting took place for the first time in the history of Canadian Studies The focus of the papers is on the future rather than the past and it took place at a moment in time when Canada went through major crises that raised serious doubts about the country's future The papers of this volume explore the main issues and problems that Canada faces The volume contains sections on demography environmental problems economic transformations Canadian identity political power structure aboriginal issues and Canada's international relations As a whole the book takes stock where Canada stands and where it is going

Canadian Agriculture in the 21st Century Dr. Marvin S. Anderson, The Canadian Farming Community is facing numerous ongoing challenges including rapidly changing technologies the gradual erosion of the rural lifestyle growing consumer concerns about the healthiness of food and growing environmental concerns including climate change This book begins with an historic overview of agriculture in Canada followed by a statistical profile of the contemporary Canadian farm ranch supporting agri industrial complex and the innumerable farm organizations in Canada The vital role of international trade and government support in the evolution of Canadian agriculture is also highlighted Resource management issues and related hot button issues e.g. climate change GMO's are also addressed in considerable detail In addition Dr Anderson identifies the likely trends in Canadian agriculture in the immediate years ahead Emphasizing the diversity complexity strength and vitality of the agricultural sector Canadian Agriculture in the 21st Century ultimately highlights how it effectively molds and remains integral to the socioeconomic fabric of both rural and urban Canada An underlying theme is the importance of having Canadian agriculture become increasingly ecofriendly in the challenging years ahead particularly the need to gradually adopt more sustainable regenerative organic technologies and the need to more proactively serve as a vital CO2 sink in climate change mitigation Dr Anderson also suggests that the public should financially compensate farmers ranchers for protecting environmental amenities that accrue to everyone A complimentary theme is the need for Canadian agriculture to become increasingly sensitive to consumer concerns particularly with respect to rigorous health standards animal welfare and sustainable resource management Mineral Deposits at the Beginning of the 21st Century A. Piestrzynski, 2022-05-02 The Joint 6th Biennial SGA SEG Meeting was held in Krakow in August 2001 This volume contains 274 extended abstracts grouped thematically under 18 session titles covering topics such as lead zinc deposits metamorphism affecting mineral deposits and the environmental aspects of mining False Expectations Dale Eisler, University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2006 Myth has played an important and ongoing role in the development of Saskatchewan's political economy First during the time of the National Policy Saskatchewan was portrayed to immigrants as a promised land This period served as the psychological and economic foundation for the province When belief in Saskatchewan as a promised land was shattered by the Great Depression and Dirty Thirties the myth was reconstituted through the inspiration of the social gospel It was then politically reinvigorated in the meaning of medicare and has been expressed in recent decades through the competing visions for economic development Through all these eras no matter what the tides of politics there remained one constant the singular collective idea that Saskatchewan was a special place with unrealized potential The challenge for the public dialogue of Saskatchewan as the province enters its second century is to not replay the mistakes of the past Saskatchewan people must recognize the role that myth has played and must continue to play in the life of the province But at the same time they must differentiate it from reality by understanding the power of myth as a force for progress and its potential to create false expectations Saskatchewan Politics Howard A.
