Sati Historical And Phenomenological Ebays:

Sati Arvind Sharma, 1988-01-01 The phenomenon of Sati on account of its dramatic and tragic element has always commanded considerable attention This has not always been complemented by adequate analysis Even when the treatment of the subject has transcended sensationalism it has not always been sufficiently nuanced This book hopes to remedy this situation by bringing to bear on the topic whose relevance the recent recurrences of the phenomena have highlighted a measure of methodological sophistication which was not possible prior to the emergence of the History of Religions as a discipline

Sati, the Blessing and the Curse John Stratton Hawley, 1994-09-08 Several years ago in Rajasthan an eighteen year old woman was burned on her husband s funeral pyre and thus became sati Before ascending the pyre she was expected to deliver both blessings and curses blessings to guard her family and clan for many generations and curses to prevent anyone from thwarting her desire to die Sati also means blessing and curse in a broader sense To those who revere it sati symbolizes ultimate loyalty and self sacrifice It often figures near the core of a Hindu identity that feels embattled in a modern world Yet to those who deplore it sati is a curse a violation of every woman s womanhood It is murder mystified and as such the symbol of precisely what Hinduism should not be In this volume a group of leading scholars consider the many meanings of sati in India and the West in literature art and opera in religion psychology economics and politics With contributors who are both Indian and American this is a genuinely binational postcolonial discussion Contributors include Karen Brown Paul Courtright Vidya Dehejia Ainslie Embree Dorothy Figueira Lindsey Harlan John Hawley Robin Lewis Ashis Nandy and Veena Talwar Oldenburg

Feminism and Empire Clare Midgley, 2007-09-28 Feminism and Empire establishes the foundational impact that Britain s position as leading imperial power had on the origins of modern western feminism Based on extensive new research this study exposes the intimate links between debates on the woman question and the constitution of colonial discourse in order to highlight the centrality of empire to white middle class women s activism in Britain The book begins by exploring the relationship between the construction of new knowledge about colonised others and the framing of debates on the woman question among advocates of women s rights and their evangelical opponents Moving on to examine white middle class women s activism on imperial issues in Britain topics include the anti slavery boycott of Caribbean sugar the campaign against widow burning in colonial India and women s role in the foreign missionary movement prior to direct employment by the major missionary societies Finally Clare Midgley highlights how the organised feminist movement which emerged in the late 1850s linked promotion of female emigration to Britain s white settler colonies to a new ideal of independent English womanhood This original work throws fascinating new light on the roots of later imperial feminism and contemporary debates concerning women s rights in an era of globalisation and neo imperialism

Landscape, Seascape, and the Eco-Spatial Imagination Simon Estok, Jonathan White, I-Chun Wang, 2016-05-12 Written from within the best traditions of ecocritical thought this book provides a wide ranging account of the spatial imagination of landscape and seascape in literary and cultural contexts from many regions of the world It brings together essays by authors writing from within diverse cultural traditions across historical periods from ancient Egypt to the postcolonial and postmodern present and touches on an array of divergent theoretical interventions The volume investigates how our spatial imaginations become wired looking at questions about mediation and exploring how various traditions compete for prominence in our spatial imagination In what ways is personal experience inflected by prevailing cultural traditions of representation and interpretation Can an individual maintain a unique and distinctive spatial imagination in the face of dominant trends in perception and interpretation What are the environmental implications of how we see landscape The book reviews how landscape is at once conceptual and perceptual illuminating several important themes including the temporality of space the mediations of place that form the response of an observer of a landscape and the development of response in any single life from early partial thoughts to more considered ideas in maturity Chapters provide suggestive and culturally nuanced propositions from varying points of view on ancient and modern landscapes and seascapes and on how individuals or societies have arranged conceptualized or imagined circumambient space Opening up issues of landscape seascape and spatiality this volume commences a wide ranging critical discussion that includes various approaches to literature history and cultural studies Bringing together research from diverse areas such as ecocriticism landscape theory colonial and postcolonial theory hybridization theory and East Asian Studies to provide a historicized and global account of our ecospatial imaginations this book will be useful for scholars of landscape ecology ecocriticism physical and social geography postcolonialism and postcolonial ecologies comparative literary studies and East Asian Studies Farewell to the World

Marzio Barbagli, 2015-10-02 What drives a person to take his or her own life Why would an individual be willing to strap a bomb to himself and walk into a crowded marketplace blowing himself up at the same time as he kills and maims the people around him Does suicide or voluntary death have the same meaning today as it had in earlier centuries and does it have the same significance in China India and the Middle East as it has in the West How should we understand this distressing often puzzling phenomenon and how can we explain its patterns and variations over time In this wide ranging comparative study Barbagli examines suicide as a socio cultural religious and political phenomenon exploring the reasons that underlie it and the meanings it has acquired in different cultures throughout the world Drawing on a vast body of research carried out by historians anthropologists sociologists political scientists and psychologists Barbagli shows that a satisfactory theory of suicide cannot limit itself to considering the two causes that were highlighted by the great French sociologist mile Durkheim namely social integration and regulation Barbagli proposes a new account of suicide that links the motives for and significance attributed to individual actions with the people for whom and against whom individuals take their lives This new study of suicide sheds fresh light on the cultural differences between East and West and greatly increases our understanding of an often misunderstood act It will be the definitive history of suicide for many years to come Theology in the Public Square Gavin D'Costa,2013-04-10 This imaginative study rethinks the nature of theology and its role in universities The author sketches out a fascinating project using examples from US and UK institutions whereby theology becomes a transformative force within universities Imagines what a Christian university in which all disciplines have been theologized would look like Feeds into discussions about the religious identity of denominationally linked colleges and universities Forms part of a wider attempt to imagine a vital public role for theology that enables it to serve both the Church and the wider community

Tradition and Liberation Catherine A Robinson,2018-10-24 The text examines the role of the Hindu tradition in the ideology and methodology of the Indian women s movement By showing how leaders of the movement have restated aspects of the tradition it provides insight into the ways in which a women s movement can restate a religious tradition Throughout Indian society religion has been central to debate about the position of women and opposition to the women s movement has often been rationalised in terms of religion Through a review of the speeches and writings of leading figures of the movement from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries it identifies positive as well as negative representations of the tradition and its implications for women It shows when and why the movement has chosen either to offer a traditional justification for its aims and activities or to eschew such a justification in favour of an alternative rationale

The Children of Herodotus Jakub Pigoń,2008-12-18 This book consists of 22 papers originally presented during the conference on ancient historical writing held in May 2007 in Wrocław Poland The authors are classical historians and philologists from academic institutions in Austria Finland France Germany Israel Poland the United Kingdom and the United States The collection responds to a growing interest among classical scholars in historiography and such related genres as ethnography and biography The focus of the volume is on the one hand on the ancient historians methods of approaching the external world especially a non Greek or non Roman world and on the other on the political dimension of historical writing especially of Roman imperial historiography There are also papers devoted to pointing and defining links between historiography and other literary genres such as epic or novel Much attention is given to classical Greek historiography Herodotus Thucydides Xenophon but other authors and periods are also discussed The book is addressed to classical scholars historians of historiography and anyone interested in ancient world With a view to a non specialist reader all Greek and most Latin quotations are translated

Paul,2020-04-01 In 1669 fleeing a London decimated by the plague and the Great Fire a young English child arrived alone at Fort St George the first English fortress in Mughal India The boy survived to become a maverick merchant mariner an independent trading on the fringes of the East India Company Captain Thomas Bowrey gained renown in numerous fields Operating throughout the East Indies and speaking Malay the lingua franca of diplomacy and trade in the region he would write and publish the first ever Malay English dictionary a seminal work that even a century later would be used by the likes of Thomas Stamford Raffles the founder of Singapore It has also been claimed Bowrey wrote the earliest first hand account of the recreational use of cannabis Bowrey s shipping interests however were plagued by pirates privateers and mutiny and included the tragic Worcester which played a pivotal role in the union of England and Scotland Subsequent projects included the east African slave trade and his collaboration with Daniel Defoe in the founding of the South Sea Company Despite everything Bowrey succeeded in amassing sufficient fortune for alms houses to be built in his name following his death but his true legacy is his papers that lay hidden in an attic for two centuries and which now shed light not only on the exploits of this remarkable man but also on life and commerce at the start of globalisation Humanism and the Death of God Ronald

E. Osborn,2017-01-19 Humanism and the Death of God is a critical exploration of secular humanism and its discontents Through close readings of three exemplary nineteenth century philosophical naturalists or materialists who perhaps more than anyone set the stage for our contemporary quandaries when it comes to questions of human nature and moral obligation Ronald E Osborn argues that the death of God ultimately tends toward the death of liberal understandings of the human as well Any fully persuasive defense of humanistic values including the core humanistic concepts of inviolable dignity rights and equality attaching to each individual requires an essentially religious vision of personhood Osborn shows such a vision is found in an especially dramatic and historically consequential way in the scandalous particularity of the Christian narrative of God becoming a human He does not attempt to provide logical proofs for the central claims of Christian humanism along the lines some philosophers might demand Instead this study demonstrates how philosophical naturalism or materialism and secular humanisms and anti humanisms might be persuasively read from the perspective of a classically orthodox Christian faith Beyond Dalit Theology Paulson Pulikottil,2022-05-31 This book is a critique of Dalit theology leading to proposals for the future directions of a theology of social transformation in India Dalit theology has ruled the roost for the last forty years in the Indian theological landscape It has captivated the theological imagination in India in spite of other theological movements like tribal theology green theology and so on which are relatively recent and have had little impact Despite the dominance of Dalit theology in the last decade many writers have questioned its social impact and theological efficacy This book takes advantage of the critique to make some proposals for doing a theology of social transformation in India It explores new ways of doing Christology pneumatology and ecclesiology In addition it argues for the need of a public theology in the changing religious political scenario in India

Religion and Rajput Women Lindsey Harlan,2024-07-19 Images of Women in Maharashtrian Literature and Religion Anne Feldhaus,1996-03-21 The essays investigate the images of women and femininity found in the traditions of the Marathi language region of India Maharashtra and how these images contradict the actualities of women s lives

A History of Celibacy Elizabeth Abbott,2000 What causes people to give up sex Abbott s provocative and entertaining exploration of celibacy through the ages debunks traditional notions about celibacy a practice that reveals much about human sexual desires and drives

Ethnicity, Gender and Social Change Harriet Bradley,Steve Fenton,1999-02-08 Ethnicity Gender and Social Change explores the social space occupied by both gender and ethnicity As recognition of the sociological importance of gender and ethnicity has grown so has the opportunity for exploring the intersections between them This volume brings together both theoretical reflections and new research in this key area For the sociologist this presents a conceptual challenge while for the individual it may present a series of dilemmas These are intriguingly traced out in studies which take us from Punjabi families in the UK to Surinamese migrants in Amsterdam to Hindu and Muslim women and Black nurses in Britain the African and Asian diasporas and gender identity in post Soviet Latvia

Roles and Rituals for Hindu Women Julia Leslie,1992 The considerable interest currently being expressed in women and religion has thrown down an important challenge the need to see women not merely as the passive victims of an oppressive ideology but also perhaps primarily as the active agents of their own positive constructs This book therefore aims to fill a notable gap in the literature Twelve contributors study the role of women in Hindu religion by examining textual studies of the part played by women in a variety of religion rituals both past and present by exploring the socio religious context of their various communities and by using specialist material to draw on cross cultural conclusions

When a Goddess Dies Orianne Aymard,2014-05-01 Ma Anandamayi is generally regarded as the most important Hindu woman saint of the twentieth century Venerated alternately as a guru and as an incarnation of God on earth Ma had hundreds of thousands of devotees Through the creation of a religious movement and a vast network of ashrams unprecedented for a woman Ma presented herself as an authority figure in a society where female gurus were not often recognized Because of her widespread influence Ma is one of the rare Hindu saints whose cult has outlived her Today her tomb is a place of veneration for those who knew her as well as new generations of her followers By performing extensive fieldwork among Ma s current devotees Orianne Aymard examines what happens to a cult after the death of its leader Does it decline stagnate or grow Or is it rather transformed into something else entirely Aymard s work sheds new light not only on Hindu sainthood and particularly female Hindu sainthood but on the nature of charismatic religious leadership and devotion

The Sacred Centre as the Focus of Political Interest ,2023-08-07 The central theme of the symposium was elaborated upon according to various religions periods and areas such as North India historical by H Kulke A Wink J C Heesterman and H T Bakker South India historical by D Shulman B Stein and G Berkemer contemporary India by C J Fuller L P van den Bosch and J P Parry Sri Lanka by G Obeyesekere the Byzantine Empire by A N Palmer the Moroccan Sultanate by H Beck and the European Middle Ages by M Gosman This systematic approach focusing on a well defined theme in a widely differentiated context appears to be fruitful An often little recognized though essential universal aspect of important places of pilgrimage is their embedment in political ramifications Analysis of religious structures and representations which are concentrated and reified in sacred centres shows remarkable agreement and linkage with political institutions and ideology through a common symbolism The contributions to the symposium establish that sacred centres are the places par excellence where political authority is legitimized they help to articulate these systematic aspects by making them the focus of scholarly discourse starting from different disciplines
