Effective Management of Long-Term Care Facilities Douglas A. Singh, 2021-11-10. Effective Management of Long Term Care Facilities Fourth Edition examines the complex operations of the long term care facility and offers critical skills to current and future long term care administrators for delivering quality cost effective services. An excellent resource for both new and seasoned long term care managers, this logically organized text begins with an understanding of what long term care is and why it is an integral part of the health care delivery system. It moves on to explore the legal and regulatory parameters and payment constraints within which long term care facilities must be managed, each of the main functional departments that administrators must understand and oversee, and effective governance and leadership and management of human resources, marketing, and quality, much of which is unique to nursing home administration. The final section of the book offers case studies to simulate situations that the administrator is likely to encounter in practice.

Regulating Long-Term Care Quality Vincent Mor, Tiziana Leone, Anna Maresso, 2014-02-06. The number of elderly people relying on formal long term care services is dramatically increasing year after year, and the challenge of ensuring the quality and financial stability of care provision is one faced by governments in both the developed and developing world. This edited book is the first to provide a comprehensive international survey of long term care provision and regulation, built around a series of case studies from Europe, North America, and Asia. The analytical framework allows the different approaches that countries have adopted to be compared side by side, and readers are encouraged to consider which quality assurance approaches might best meet their own country's needs. Wider issues underpinning the need to regulate the quality of long term care are also discussed. This timely book is a valuable resource for policymakers working in the health care sector, researchers, and students taking graduate courses on health policy and management.
