Islam after Liberalism Faisal Devji, Zaheer Kazmi, 2017-12-01 Forged in the age of empire the relationship between Islam and liberalism has taken on a sense of urgency today when global conflicts are seen as pitting one against the other More than describing a civilizational fault line between the Muslim world and the West however this relationship also offers the potential for consensus and the possibility of moral and political engagement or compatibility The existence or extent of this correspondence tends to preoccupy academic as much as popular accounts of such a relationship This volume looks however to the way in which Muslim politics and society are defined beyond and indeed after it Reappraising the first wave of Islamic liberalism during the nineteenth century the book describes the long and intertwined histories of these categories across a large geographical expanse By drawing upon the contributions of scholars from a variety of disciplines including philosophy theology sociology politics and history it explores how liberalism has been criticised and refashioned by Muslim thinkers and movements to assume a reality beyond the abstractions that define its compatibility with Islam The Publishers' Trade List Annual , 1992 Saudi Arabia in a Multipolar World Zakir Hussain, 2016-04-14 The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has established itself as the twelfth largest economy in the world the largest West Asian economic power world s largest oil producer and a strong and capable force in international politics particularly in the Sunni Islamic world However at present it is at crossroads Should it continue as a kingdom or usher in the process of inclusive political representation This volume answers such questions and explores how the state is coping with domestic regional and global developments to remain relevant in the changing times It provides a holistic overview of a slew of economic political cultural military and security policy measures that have been initiated by the government The work also offers a detailed analysis of Saudi Arabia s relations with three significant powers USA China and India and how they are evolving under new geopolitical and geostrategic dynamics This book will interest strategists policymakers researchers and students of international relations geopolitics political science and political economy as well as the informed reader Saint Germain Elizabeth Clare Prophet, 1990-03 Sos Exercise-Schmexercise Katharina Bachman, 2018-02-27 German globetrotter Katharina Bachman was extremely overweight and suffering from diabetes when she walked into an Indian doctors Kuala Lumpur practice in 2013 desperate for help After Dr K S prescribed a seven day detoxification plan and subsequent transformative tropical power food diet Bachmans excess pounds melted away at record speed her diabetes disappeared and her blood pressure stabilized Even her loathsome cellulite vanished In a candid and witty personal account Bachman shares her own success story as well as valuable insight on how to drop excess pounds and quickly regain a healthy life without craving food or incorporating exercise into a daily routine Through a highly effective detailed detoxification plan that includes eighty mouthwatering recipes and useful tips others will learn how to balance metabolism while feasting on tropical culinary

Ms Priya Singh,Mr Kingshuk Chatterjee,2013-02-15 The Arab Spring widely perceived as a momentous event in West Asia has evoked a persistent flow of interpretation and analysis by academic experts and policy makers since the upheaval first broke out in December 2010 and the pace of events suggests the flow of analysis on this issue will continue Like all great social upheavals the Arab Spring was long drawn out in its realisation and born of many factors that are intertwined It could have occurred any time during the course of the last two or three decades but each passing year brought to the forefront new developments that made it that much more imminent Economic problems social problems political problems juridical problems and diplomatic problems combined to contribute to an uncompromising sense of grievance across the Arab world that ultimately manifested itself in the Arab spring and winter of 2011 This volume comes out of a conference organised by the Maulana Abul Kalam Azad Institute of Asian Studies in collaboration with Institute of Foreign Policy Studies and Centre of Pakistan and West Asian Studies in which an attempt was made to discuss these issues threadbare Values, Political Action, and Change in the Middle East and the Arab Spring

Mansoor Moaddel,Michele J. Gelfand,2017-01-18 Although many have tried the spontaneity of the Arab Spring uprisings and the unpredictability of its diverse geographical outcomes have resisted explanation For social scientists part of the challenge has been how to effectively measure and analyze the empirical data while another obstacle has been a lack of attention to the worldviews value orientations and long term concerns from the people of the Middle East and North Africa In order to meet these challenges head on Mansoor Moaddel and Michele J Gelfand have assembled an international team of experts to explore and employ a new and diverse set of frameworks in order to explain the dynamics of cross national variation values political engagement morality and development in these regions To this end the authors address a wide range of questions such as To what extent do recent events reflect changes in values among the Middle Eastern publics Are youth uniformly more supportive of change than the rest of the population To what extent are changes in values connected to changes in identities How do we explain the process of change in the long term As Moaddel and Gelfand remark in their book s introduction Our hope is that this collective effort will not only contribute to the development of the social sciences in the Middle East and North Africa but also to practical political actions and public policies that serve social tolerance and harmony peace and economic prosperity for the people of the region

The Dilemma of Popular Sovereignty in the Middle East: Power from or to the People? Mr Kingshuk Chatterjee, Ms Priya Singh, 2014-03-15 The ongoing political turmoil in the Middle East as a whole would seem to be essentially a contest between the minimalist and maximalist positions on popular sovereignty should power merely come from and be exercised in the name of the people Or should those in power be fully accountable to the people The dilemma warrants a closer look The present volume comes out of an international conference held in Calcutta India organised by the Institute of Foreign Policy Studies and the Centre for Pakistan and West Asian Studies University of Calcutta in March 2013 This volume aims not at a definitive analysis of why what happened did happen it aims instead at getting a sense of what was actually happening and what is at issue
