Art and Architecture Division, 1983      Museums in Arabia Karen Exell, Sarina Wakefield, 2016-05-12 Museum activity has in recent years undergone major and rapid development in the Arabian Peninsula with the regeneration of existing museums as well as the establishment of new ones Alongside such rapid expansion questions are inevitably raised as to the new challenges museums face in this region and whether the museum as a central focus of heritage preservation also runs the risk of overshadowing local forms of heritage performance and preservation With contributions from leading academics from a range of disciplines and heritage practitioners with first hand experience of working in the region this volume addresses the issues and challenges facing museums in Kuwait Saudi Arabia Qatar Yemen and the UAE It focuses on the themes of politics public engagement and the possibility of a new museum paradigm which might appropriately reflect the interests and culture of the region The interdisciplinary approaches analyse museum development from both an inside and outside perspective suggesting that museums do not follow a uniform trajectory across the region but are embedded within each states socio cultural context individual government agendas and political realities Including case study analysis which brings the more marginal nations into the debates as well as new empirical data and critical evaluation of the role of the museum in the Arabian Peninsula societies this book adds fresh perspectives to the study of Gulf heritage and museology It will appeal to regional and international practitioners and academics across the disciplines of museum studies cultural studies and anthropology as well as to anyone with an interest in the Gulf and Middle East

Eyes in Art Brigitte Baumbusch, 2004-12-15 Looks at the many ways eyes are represented in paintings statuettes figurines and other art forms      Handbook of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and Beyond Tombul, Işıl, Sarı, Gülşah, 2021-05-28 Orientalism is about much more than just information gathered about the East within its general postcolonial period In this period orientalism is a Western discourse that dominated and shaped the view of the East There is otherization in the way the West has historically looked at the East and within the information presented about it These original stories of travelers in the past and previous telling about the East are facing a reconstruction through modern types of media Cinema television news newspaper magazine internet social media photography literature and more are transforming the way the East is presented and viewed Under the headings of post orientalism neo orientalism or self orientalism these new orientalist forms of work in combination with both new and traditional media are redefining orientalism in the media and beyond The Handbook of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and

Beyond shows how both new media and traditional media deal with orientalism today through the presentation of gender race religion and culture that make up orientalist theory The chapters focus on how orientalism is presented in the media cinema TV photography and more This book is ideal for communications theorists media analysts practitioners researchers academicians and students working in fields that include mass media communications film studies ethnic studies history sociology and cultural studies Collecting Asian Art Markéta Hánová,Yuka Kadoi,Simone Wille,2024-02-29 Rather than centering on the well known collections in Western European and North American museums Collecting Asian Art turns to museum collections of Asian art in Central Europe which emerged from the late 19th century onwards Highlighting the dimensions of Central European connectedness this volume explores how these collections evolved and changed under changing cultural and political conditions from the pre World War I to the post World War II periods With a primary focus on collections of East Asian South Asian and West Asian art in Vienna Prague Berlin Warsaw Krak w Budapest and Ljubljana it outlines the transregional connections and networks that gradually developed Collecting Asian Art locates Asian art across the twentieth century in Central Europe via discourse and ideology and discusses key collections and the way individual collectors built their networks It thus explores transregional connections that developed through collecting activities and strategies in the prewar interwar and postwar eras Contributors also examine the personal connections between a group of Indologists from postwar Prague and modernist Indian artists from the early 1950s to the 1980s and also discuss the systematic archiving of East Asian art collections in Slovenia A concluding conversation looks at colonisation and decolonisation from a broader perspective by approaching it through recent art historical discussions on the global dimensions of modernism By defining the region through its external relationships and its entanglements with regions across Asia rather than as a self contained unit the contributions in this volume outline how these transregional connections and networks evolved and changed over time thus highlighting their singularity in comparison to developments in Western Europe Based on recent research Collecting Asian Art reveals neglected sources while reinterpreting well known ones

Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair,C. H. Bleaney,Pablo García Suárez,2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Participation Culture in the Gulf Nele Lenze,Charlotte Schriwer,2018-09-03 This book examines the civil social interactions which have shaped and continue to influence the political and social development of modern Gulf societies It analyses the influence of public and private social spaces such as sports arenas and dawawin as well as developments in the legal and cultural spheres Geographically the volume covers Bahrain Iran Kuwait Oman Qatar Saudi Arabia and the UAE

Each chapter discusses a different aspect of current trends in society offering a multidimensional perspective on recent developments. In so doing the chapters highlight the existence of a growing participation culture as a force for dynamic social change in a global context. Bringing to attention the continuing social change in public and private spaces which have increased public social interactions within the last ten years this book also demonstrates the opening of dialogues between the public and the authorities. The contributors are established scholars living in the Gulf as well as academics with long term field research in the region thus providing unique perspectives on current sociopolitical trends in the Gulf states. Participation Culture in the Gulf will be useful to students and scholars of Middle Eastern politics and society as well as social movements and political participation more generally.

The Arts, Education, and Social Change Mary Clare Powell, Vivien Marcow-Speiser, 2005. Authors show that teaching of art stimulates social changes among the participants of the communities in the Far East and Africa schools and community arts organizations. Attention is also given to how art can support the skills confidence and empowerment of the participants.

The Translation of Experience Ricarda Vidal, Madeleine Campbell, 2025-02-27. Experience is a multilayered cumulative affair with transformation at its core. Its study a necessary first step for its translation requires an exploration of embodiment the senses and cultural and social environments. The second of two volumes this book explores how artefacts as outcomes of experience brought about by the artist/translator perform semiotic work. This semiotic work arises through the intervention of their makers but also through their viewers audience often through the latter's direct participation in the artefacts creation which we see as an open ended process. Drawing on diverse examples from across the world the chapters explore visual materiality the digital world and the multisensory nature of artefacts such as monuments festivals theatre performances artworks rituals the urban environment and human bodies the embodied perception of which may draw holistically or variously on the haptic olfactory auditory kinetic or kinaesthetic senses. Throughout the book experiential translation is framed as a political endeavour that allows experience to be shared across linguistic cultural generational or gendered divides in the form of artefacts that facilitate transformation and the acquisition of knowledge This book and its companion volume The Experience of Translation Materiality and Play in Experiential Translation include an international range of contributions from graduate students and early career researchers ECRs to tenured academics in translation studies comparative literature performance arts fine arts media and cultural studies as well as educators artists and curators It will be of particular interest to translators and arts practitioners scholars and researchers in the transdisciplinary field of humanities

After Savagery Hamid Dabashi, 2025-09-30 Written during a genocide After Savagery reveals the ethical bankruptcy of Western philosophy and how it undergirds the erasure of the colonized The death toll in Gaza continues to rise a cold lifeless number representing entire communities crushed under the weight of settler colonialism What remains of the theories we use to understand our world With lyrical and lucid fury Hamid Dabashi exposes the racist roots of Western philosophy demanding that readers overcome its pernicious phantom of relevance Rather than perceiving the West as giving carte blanche to Israel Dabashi insists that Israel must be understood as its quintessence If Israel is the West and the West is Israel then Palestine is the world and the world is Palestine Holding to glimmers from revolutionary works of literature and film Dabashi argues in grief and love that the wretched of the earth need poetry after barbarism and that Palestine is the site of a liberated imagination

International Women Artists and War, 1560-2023 Deborah A. Deacon, 2024-09-25 Like many of their male peers women artists have used their chosen mediums to explore and express their reactions to the violence of war which they frequently experienced firsthand The 345 named artists discussed in this book come from diverse backgrounds across hundreds of years The book divides the 652 covered works of art into five general categories those that provide support for the war effort those that oppose war and or support peace those that document the impacts of war on the individuals who fight and the civilians who experience it those that commemorate and memorialize the events and participants in war and general representations of those who fight While most of the women who documented the impact of war on those who experienced it were professional artists self taught artists have told equally compelling stories in their works Whether working in a studio or on the battlefield the women s professionalism and dedication allowed them to convey the impact of war powerfully

The Societies of the Middle East and North Africa Sean Yom, 2021-07-21 The second edition of this well regarded volume explores the societies of the Middle East and North Africa Presenting original studies written by the world s leading MENA scholars it sheds light upon the organizing structures human vulnerabilities and dynamic forces that propel social change among the peoples of the Arab world as well as Israel Turkey and Iran The volume can be used in conjunction with The Government and Politics of the Middle East and North Africa textbook for a comprehensive overview of the region Carrying over from the previous edition among the rich topics covered are agriculture urbanization development identity citizenship gender religion civil society the environment and youths This second edition adds two new chapters on refugees and public opinion as each constitutes a crucial part of the region's social and cultural context. This edition also updates existing chapters to account for the latest events and trends including the COVID 19 pandemic, popular protests and demographic growth. Written in an accessible way, the chapters are clearly structured and contain insightful analysis, memorable case studies, illustrative photographs and visualized data that illuminate the contours of social life across this diverse region. Each chapter also ends with curated questions for discussion followed by annotated bibliographies to help spark further research to encourage seamless adoption into classrooms.

Photography Books

Index III Martha Kreisel, 2006. While the Internet is an important source for locating photographic images, there still are hundreds of photography books published each year for whose contents there is no external access. This second supplement to Photography Books Index addresses this need by analyzing important photographic anthologies that have been published since 1985. Accessing more than fifty photographic anthologies that are widely held in libraries across the country along with images from two critical annual compilations, Best of Photojournalism and Graphis Annual, this book identifies photographs that record the history of our times. This reference guide provides an important index to contemporary as well as historical photographers including those for whom full monographs have not been published. Photographs of important individuals as well as photographic records of cataclysmic events can be located through this index. Extensive descriptions of the individual photographs from the commonplace to the extraordinary are identified in this volume. Organized into three sections: Photographers, Subjects of Photographs, and Portraits of Named Individuals, these descriptions provide the researcher with important information on each photograph. An essential volume for all public, special, and academic libraries, this index will be an invaluable resource for reporters, historians, academics, students, and anyone wishing to research photographs and photographers.

Street Art in the Middle East Sabrina de Turk, 2019-06-27. Since the 2011 Arab Spring, street art has been a vehicle for political discourse in the Middle East and has generated much discussion in both the popular media and academia. Yet this conversation has generalized street art and identified it as a singular form with identical styles and objectives throughout the region. Street art's purpose is, however, defined by the socio-cultural circumstances of its production. Middle Eastern artists thus adopt distinctive methods in creating their individual work and responding to their individual environments. Here, in this new book, Sabrina De Turk employs rigorous visual analysis to explore the diversity of Middle Eastern street art and uses case studies of countries as varied as Egypt, Tunisia, Lebanon, Palestine, Bahrain, and Oman to illustrate how geographic specifics impact upon its function and aesthetic. Her book will be of significant interest to scholars specializing in art from the Middle East and North Africa and those who bring an interdisciplinary perspective to Middle East studies.

Performance, Masculinity, and Self-Injury Lucy Weir, 2024-08-20. This book is an ambitious and expansive examination of the visual language of self-injury in performance art from the 1960s to the present. Inspired by the gendered nature of discussion around self-harm, the book challenges established readings of risk-taking and self-injury in global performance practice The interdisciplinary methodology draws from art history and sociology to provide a new critical analysis of the relationship between masculinity and self inflicted injury Based upon interviews with a range of artists around the world it offers an innovative understanding of the diverse meanings behind self injury in performance and delves into the gendered coding of self harming bodies Individual chapters examine the work of Ron Athey G nter Brus Wafaa Bilal Franko B Andr Stitt Pyotr Pavlensky and Yang Zhichao offering a new perspective on the forms and functions of self injury in performance art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history performance studies gender studies and cultural studies

Art of the Middle East Saeb Eigner, 2010 Artistic expression in the Middle East is experiencing something of a renaissance Domestic patronage is flourishing and an impressive array of new museums and art fairs across the region is helping to stimulate international interest in an increasingly influential movement Art of the Middle East is an accessible overview of modern and contemporary art of the Middle East and Arab world from 1945 to the present with an emphasis on artists active today The featured works are divided into seven themed sections including literature portraiture and the body and politics conflict and war while extended captions provide an engaging commentary on each artwork and the artist behind its creation Lavishly illustrated throughout this landmark publication is an authoritative guide to a challenging and exciting body of work
