Holocaust Literature: Agosin to Lentin S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004

The Critical Response to Saul Bellow Gerhard Bach, 1995-10-30 Though one of the most significant American writers of the 20th century Saul Bellow has continually elicited conflicting responses from critics Some critics have seen him as America's greatest contemporary writer while others have discounted him as discouragingly redundant Not even his novel Herzog generally considered his worthiest achievement has gone unchallenged The expansion of critical theory in the last decade has added to the controversy over Bellow's works The reviews and essays gathered in this volume illustrate the many disparate critical responses and approaches to Saul Bellow over the last 50 years from the late 1940s into the 1990s Representative samples of criticism from the earliest reviews to the most recent assessments trace the different critical phases and approaches to Bellow's work over time The selections included also reflect larger trends in literary criticism over the last half century and chart the history of the critical community's response to Bellow The selections are arranged chronologically in clusters devoted to particular works

Critical Essays on Saul Bellow Stanley Trachtenberg, 1979 Double Heart Lucy L. Melbourne, 1986 What distinguishes fiction from non fiction in first person narratives What is the difference between a novel and autobiography What makes a first person narrative a literary work of art If fiction is a self contained meaning structure what frame of reference can we use to tell if the narrator is lying Using a phenomenological approach to these questions basic to both literary theory and practical literary criticism Lucy L Melbourne develops a model of the unreliable first person narrative By applying it to three challenging works Saul Bellow's Dangling Man Albert Camus's La Chute and Franz Kafka's Ein Landarzt she shows us how to read between the lines to discover the implicit text structuring first person narratives into literary works of art
