Savage Storm:

TimeStorm Steve Harrison, 2014-08-22 In 1795 a convict ship leaves England for New South Wales in Australia Nearing its destination it encounters a savage storm but miraculously their battered ship stays afloat and limps into Sydney Harbour Here the convicts rebel overpower the crew and make their escape destroying the ship in the process Fleeing the sinking vessel with only the clothes on their backs the survivors struggle ashore Among the escaped convicts seething resentments fuel an appetite for brutal revenge against their former captors while for their part the crew attempts to track down and kill or recapture the escapees However it soon becomes apparent that both convicts and crew have more to concern them than shipwreck and a ruthless fight for survival they have arrived in Sydney in 2017 TimeStorm is a thrilling epic adventure story of revenge survival and honour set in a strange new world of unfamiliar technology and equally unfathomable social norms In the literary footsteps of Hornblower comes Lieutenant Christopher Kit Blaney an old fashioned hero a man of honour duty and principle dragged into the 21st century literally A great fan of the grand seafaring adventure fiction of CS Forester Patrick O'Brien and Alexander Kent and modern action thriller writers such as Lee Child Steve Harrison combines several genres in his debut novel The book was inspired by a replica 18th century sailing ship on Sydney Harbour and a question from Steve's brother Tony What if that was a real convict ship TimeStorm explores that question in a fast paced story as a group of desperate men from the 1700s clash in modern day Sydney TimeStorm was Highly Commended in the 2013 Jim Hamilton Award fantasy science fiction category of the Fellowship of Australian Writers FAW National Literary Awards

Before the Roads, Before the Mines Robert Jarvenpa,2024-10 Before the Roads Before the Mines is a narrative based ethnohistory of a Denesu in community also known as the Chipewyan Keseyhot ine or Poplar House People The discovery of high grade uranium deposits in northern Saskatchewan Canada in the mid to late 1970s ushered in an era of mining and roadbuilding that largely replaced the traditional livelihoods of these subarctic hunter fishers with wage labor in mining construction and related industries The advent of new communications technologies and consumer goods and a road to the outside world created ruptures in the social fabric of the community Robert Jarvenpa highlights the historical experiences of middle aged and older individuals who vividly recall a time before the roads and mines existed when young and old alike spoke the Denesu in language and when entire families lived in a seasonally nomadic fashion in the bush They continually invoke the past in the problematic present a ritualized form of communication integral to resisting or adapting to the erosive changes of a rapidly industrializing resource extraction frontier Jarvenpa showcases the spoken words of the Denesu in informants as a means of documenting and interpreting their historical past in the face of contemporary peril as the subarctic permafrost recedes and multinational corporations eye Indigenous lands for their minerals

H. Green,2006-11-23 Latin Epics of the New Testament is about the growth of Christianity and in particular the challenge of engaging with the Roman intellectual elite and its highly sophisticated Graeco Roman tradition In this culture epics like those of Vergil and Lucan were highly valued for their language their heroic themes and their Rome centred ideologies Roger Green examines each of these epics in detail showing how the three authors Juvenecus Sedulius and Arator repackage the New Testament as epic and try to make a bridge between two very different cultures He explores the fascinating questions of how these authors exploit epic themes such as gods heroes war and fate without playing down the very real theological concerns of their times All these poets were popular in the Middle Ages and later and are the pioneers of poetry that leads to Renaissance epic and the famous poems of John Milton
