Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific Donald S. Garden, 2005-08-19 A fascinating study of the environmental history of Australia New Zealand and the islands of the Pacific from the time of the dinosaurs to the present day Of interest to students and academics alike this book provides a much needed synthesis of the recent literature on the environmental history of Australia and Oceania Part of ABC CLIO's Nature and Human Societies series this book maps out the key trends in the region's environmental history charting the creation of the Australian continent from the ancient land mass of Gondwanaland to the arrival of humans Especially fascinating are the chapters highlighting how successive waves of human migration created environmental havoc throughout the region leading to the collapse of the Easter Island civilization and the spread of nonindigenous flora and fauna From the controversies over the reasons why creatures such as the marsupial lion and the giant kangaroo became extinct to such contemporary problems as deforestation and global warming this book contains sobering lessons for us all Vernacular Architecture: Towards a Sustainable Future C. Mileto, F. Vegas, L.

García Soriano, V. Cristini, 2014-08-28 Sustainability is a concept that has monopolised a large number of the scientific debates in a wide range of spheres connected not only with architecture urban planning and construction but also with the product market tourism culture etc However sustainability is indissolubly linked to vernacular architecture and the lessons this architectu The Environment: Towards a Sustainable Future Dutch Committee for Long-Term Environmental Policy,2012-12-06 A sustainable future a world in which sustainable development is possible and guaranteed In this book the Dutch Committee for Long Term Environmental Policy an expert advisory board to the Dutch Minister of Housing Physical Planning and Environment shows possible ways in which society can move towards a sustainable future The book goes in search of a new social order an order in which sustainability is guaranteed This search holds four main elements signs of hope which positive initiatives and developments exist which will lead to a sustainable future transformations which transformations are needed to reach a sustainable future philosophical and methodological reflections can one predict the future institutions what are the necessary changes in the basic institutions of society to reach a sustainable future The committee has invited well known experts from different disciplinary backgrounds to check the existing social order from a point of sustainability and to give recommendations for a sustainable future The central conclusion is that we are in need of an evolving green strategy aimed at sustainability The contours of this strategy are described and a large set of recommendations to reach a sustainable future are given As the committee states There is no certainty and no statistical probability for a sustainable future but there is at least a chance Australian Books in Print 1997 Bowker,1997-03 excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage AMERICAN REFERENCE BOOKS ANNUAL This comprehensive reference provides current finding ordering information on more than 60 000 in print books published in or about Australia or written by Australian authors organized by title author keyword You ll also find brief profiles of more than 5 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on trade associations local agents of overseas publishers literary awards more Why Women Will Save the Planet Friends of the Earth,C40 Cities,2018-03-01 Big cities don t have to mean a dystopian future They can be turned around to be powerhouses of well being and environmental sustainability if we empower women This book is a unique collaboration between C40 and Friends of the Earth showcasing pioneering city mayors key voices in the environmental and feminist movements and academics The essays collectively demonstrate both the need for women s empowerment for climate action and the powerful change it can bring A rallying call for the planet for women for everyone African futures: towards a sustainable emergence? UNESCO,2016-09-12 Africa's Dawn: Unleashing the Potential of the Continent Pasquale De Marco,2025-05-16 Africa s Dawn Unveiling the Potential of the Continent is a groundbreaking book that offers a fresh perspective on Africa s development journey Moving beyond tired narratives of despair it delves into the heart of the continent to uncover its untapped potential and the transformative power of collaboration innovation and human capital This book is an invitation to explore Africa s vast natural resources its vibrant cultural heritage and the indomitable spirit of its people It sheds light on the challenges that have long held the continent back while also highlighting the progress that is being made and the opportunities that lie ahead Through compelling storytelling and insightful analysis Africa s Dawn examines the role of education skills development and entrepreneurship in unlocking the potential of Africa s young population It celebrates the successes of regional cooperation and explores the transformative potential of technology and innovation The book also confronts the challenges of poverty inequality corruption and environmental degradation head on proposing practical solutions that can pave the way for a more just and sustainable future It emphasizes the importance of good governance transparency and accountability in creating an enabling environment for progress Africa s Dawn is a call to action for African nations to embrace unity cooperation and innovation to unlock their full potential It is a celebration of the continent s rich heritage a testament to the resilience of its people and a roadmap for a brighter future This book is essential reading for anyone interested in Africa s development whether they are policymakers business leaders scholars or simply individuals who want to gain a deeper understanding of this dynamic continent It is a powerful narrative that challenges stereotypes inspires hope and points the way towards a more prosperous and equitable future for Africa If you like this book write a review on google books American Book Publishing Record ,1995 The Victorian Naturalist ,1997 Outlaws, Fakes and Monsters Chris Boge,2009 Cities for a Small Continent Power, Anne,Bruce Katz,2016-05-25 Through varied case studies this original book compares changes between Northern and Southern European countries bigger and smaller cities over 10 years to present a compelling framework showing how Europe s post industrial cities are striving to combat environmental and social unravelling The Eucalyptus Robin W. Doughty,2000 For some eucalypts are the tree of the future easily established quick to grow and intensively cultivated For others eucalypts are a blight upon native landscapes and the livelihoods of indigenous people This book tells the story of how the eucalyptus or gum tree spread from its native ranges in Australia to diverse habitats throughout the world First regarded as an exotic novelty and a popular ornamental in European botanical and residential gardens the eucalyptus became especially after World War II the favoured tree of the global pulpwood industry and international agroforesters Sustainable Development in Africa Walter Leal Filho,Rudi Pretorius,Luiza Olim de Sousa,2021-07-09 This book serves the purpose of documenting and promoting African experiences on sustainable development which encompasses both formal and non formal education Sustainable development is very important to Africa but there is a paucity of publication which documents and promotes experiences from African countries Due to their complexity the interrelations between social economic and political factors related to sustainable development especially at universities need to be better understood There is also a real need to showcase successful examples of how African institutions are handling their sustainability challenges It is against this background that this book has been produced It is a truly interdisciplinary publication useful to scholars social movements practitioners and members of governmental agencies and private companies undertaking research and or executing projects focusing on sustainability from across Africa As African nations strive to pursue the UN Sustainable Development Goals it is imperative to cater for the information needs seen across the continent and foster the dissemination of experiences and case studies which may support both on going and future efforts The scope of the book is deliberately kept wide and we are looking for contributions across the spectrum of sustainable development from business and economics to arts and fashion administration environment languages and media studies Australians and Their Environment Graeme Aplin, 1998 Australians and Their Environment introduces the broad and complex field of environmental studies in an Australian context Emphasizing the need to include a wide range of perspectives the book integrates varied approaches to environmental studies from philosophy and ethics through the social science and economics to the biophysical and physical sciences The book begins with a discussion of concepts central to environmental understanding debate and decision making and then applies these concepts to current environmental topics Chapters cover natural cycles and biogeochemical processes ecological concepts and relationships economics and resource concepts values and attitudes politics and bureaucratic structures planning and management techniques Aboriginal resource use and management biodiversity and reserves forestry fishing mining agriculture energy and transport water and waste management and the urban environment The Seed Underground Janisse Ray, 2012-06-20 Discusses the loss of fruit and vegetable varieties and the genetically modified industrial monocultures being used today shares the author's personal experiences growing saving and swapping seeds and deconstructs the politics and genetics of seeds Open Mapping towards Sustainable Development Goals Patricia Solís, Marcela Zeballos, 2022-11-28 This collection amplifies the experiences of some of the world's young people who are working to address SDGs using geospatial technologies and multi national collaboration Authors from every region of the world who have emerged as leaders in the YouthMappers movement share their perspectives and knowledge in an accessible and peer friendly format YouthMappers are university students who create and use open mapping for development and humanitarian purposes Their work leverages digital innovations both geospatial platforms and communications technologies to answer the call for leadership to address sustainability challenges The book conveys a sense of robust knowledge emerging from formal studies or informal academic experiences in the first person voices of students and recent graduates who are at the forefront of creating a new map of the world YouthMappers use OpenStreetMap as the foundational sharing mechanism for creating data together Authors impart the way they are learning about themselves about each other about the world They are developing technology skills and simultaneously teaching the rest of the world about the potential contributions of a highly connected generation of emerging world leaders for the SDGs The book is timely in that it captures a pivotal moment in the trajectory of the YouthMappers movement's ability to share emerging expertise and one that coincides with a pivotal moment in the geopolitical history of planet earth whose inhabitants need to hear from them Most volumes that cover the topic of sustainability in terms of youth development are written by non youth authors Moreover most are written by non majoritarian entrenched academic scholars This book instead puts forward the diverse voices of students and recent graduates in countries where YouthMappers works all over the world Authors cover topics that range from water agriculture food to waste education gender climate action and disasters from their own eyes in working with data mapping and humanitarian action often working across national boundaries and across continents To inspire readers with their insights the chapters are mapped to the United Nations 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs in ways that connect a youth agenda to a global agenda With a preface written by Carrie Stokes Chief Geographer and GeoCenter Director United States Agency for International Development USAID This is an open access book International Books in Print ,1990
