Guidelines for Evaluating and Documenting Rural Historic Landscapes ,1990 Preserving Historic Landscapes ,1990 Challenges for Rural America in the Twenty-First Century David L. Brown, Louis E. Swanson, 2010-11-01 The twentieth century was one of profound transformation in rural America Challenges for Rural America in the Twenty First Century defines these changes and interprets their implications for the future of rural America Essays have been specially commissioned to examine key aspects of public policy relevant to rural America in the new century From book jacket The Countryside Ideal Michael Bunce, 2005-10-26 Draws together diverse images of landscape to explore the historical processes shaping our continuing attachment to the countryside seen in artistic expression attitudes to nature country life and the development of rural and urban land Under The Blade Thomas Lyson, 2018-05-04 Under the Blade The Conversion of Agricultural Landscapes examines the patterns causes and consequences of current land use decisions in the United States particularly the conversion of farmland to housing roads and other development Changes in land use are the result of complex interactions among law economics landscape characteristics social and political forces ethics and aesthetics By examining farmland loss from each of these perspectives and then integrating the results into policy recommendations Under the Blade makes an important contribution to the ongoing debate on the optimal use of a finite resource land In 1998 the last farm in Des Plaines Illinois was subdivided Seven acres along the Niobrara River in north central Nebraska sold for USD5700 per acre twenty times the price for agricultural use Waukesha County Wisconsin although still largely in agriculture has been almost entirely zoned for small lot subdivisions Nationwide the cumulative effect of thousands of individual land use decisions is an orgiastic devouring of the countryside that consumes at least 1 4 million acres of rural land each year and fragments a much larger area The effects on landscape functions include loss of agricultural production water pollution increases in local runoff and flooding loss of habitat and biodiversity and the loss of natural beauty In exchange we get malls retail strips and an ugly sprawl that degrades people and community How have we come to this and more importantly how might we find a better sustainable approach to the use of land Land use decisions are the result of complex interactions among law economics landscape characteristics population growth social and political forces ethics and aesthetics Under the Blade The Conversion of Agricultural Landscapes examines the loss of farmland and other rural lands from each of these perspectives and shows how interactions among different factors greatly complicate sustainable land management Included throughout the seven main chapters of the book are descriptions of some of the tools and strategies that can be used to preserve farmland and guide development The application of these tools is illustrated by 22 case studies of towns and regions throughout the United States each with a somewhat different challenge response and degree of success or failure Dietrich Bonhoeffer a Protestant theologian hanged by the Nazis in 1945 stated that the ultimate test of a moral society is the kind of world that it leaves to its children Our current choices in the use of the land are among the most important factors shaping that future world and Under the Blade demonstrates that the quality of that future is far from certain A Richer Heritage Robert E. Stipe,2003 Surveying the past present and future of historic preservation in America this text features 15 essays by some of the most eminent voices in the field essays which highlight the principle ideas and events that have shaped and continue to shape the movement Bibliographies and Literature of Agriculture ,1977 Historic Preservation Resources ,1994 Sugarloaf Melanie Choukas-Bradley,2003 In this natural history and guidebook Choukas Bradley presents a fascinating blend of local natural and historical detail that transports readers simultaneously onto the slopes of today s mountain and into the region s past 26 illustrations Historic Preservation: An Introduction to Its History, Principles, and Practice (Second Edition) Norman Tyler,Ted J. Ligibel,Ilene R. Tyler,2009-02-04 Historic preservation which started as a grassroots movement now represents the cutting edge in a cultural revolution focused on green architecture and sustainability This is the only book to cover the gamut of preservation issues in layman s language the philosophy and history of the movement the role of government the documentation and designation of historic properties sensitive architectural designs and planning preservation technology and heritage tourism plus a survey of architectural styles It is an ideal introduction to the field for students historians preservationists property owners local officials and community leaders Updated throughout this revised edition addresses new subjects including heritage tourism and partnering with the environmental community Preserving Historic Architecture U.S. Department of the Interior,2013-02-08 The National Park Service a branch of the Department of the Interior knows preservation In its hundred year existence the service has dealt with just about every problem an old structure can have Whether it is removing graffiti in Manhattan or rebuilding a barn in Oregon the National Park Service knows what to do Here are the official U S guidelines a lively and instructive collection of tried and tested knowledge and reliable techniques written by the top experts in the field Over forty fully illustrated chapters addressing topics such as cleaning and waterproof coating of historic masonry roofing for historic buildings the preservation of historic glazed architectural terra cotta exterior paint problems on historic woodwork the preservation of historic barns heating ventilating and cooling historic buildings historic signs applied decoration for historic interiors using substitute materials on historic building exteriors understanding old buildings understanding architectural cast iron Every chapter is written with the utmost detail and clarity so that any reader can perform the safest and most historically accurate repairs The book also offers invaluable advice on what not to do that can save a homeowner thousands of dollars hours and perhaps a priceless piece of architecture For the hobbyist or the professional restorer The Preservation of Historic Architecture is the definitive government text on restoring repairing and preserving old buildings Land Conservation Through Public/Private Partnerships Eve Endicott,1993-05 Today rarely is a significant land acquisition accomplished without at least one private and one public sector participant This book provides a detailed inside look at those public private partnerships Pumpkin Cindy Ott,2012-12-01 Why do so many Americans drive for miles each autumn to buy a vegetable that they are unlikely to eat While most people around the world eat pumpkin throughout the year North Americans reserve it for holiday pies and other desserts that celebrate the harvest season and the rural past They decorate their houses with pumpkins every autumn and welcome Halloween trick or treaters with elaborately carved jack o lanterns Towns hold annual pumpkin festivals featuring giant pumpkins and carving contests even though few have any historic ties to the crop In this fascinating cultural and natural history Cindy Ott tells the story of the pumpkin Beginning with the myth of the first Thanksgiving she shows how Americans have used the pumpkin to fulfill their desire to maintain connections to nature and to the family farm of lore and ironically how small farms and rural communities have been revitalized in the process And while the pumpkin has inspired American myths and traditions the pumpkin itself has changed because of the ways people have perceived valued and used it Pumpkin is a smart and lively study of the deep meanings hidden in common things and their power to make profound changes in the world around us Promoting Tourism in Rural America ,1994 Managing Community Growth United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science, Space, and Technology. Subcommittee on Investigations and Oversight,1994 America's Landscape Legacy ,1993 communities in the lead , Building Gateway Partnerships Sue Abbott,1997 Making Educated Decisions Charles A. Birnbaum,Heather L. Barrett,2000 Provides practical guidance to make informed decisions when researching planning managing interpreting and undertaking project work for any cultural landscape resource
