Comparative Mysticism Steven T. Katz, 2013 This collection of primary texts introduces readers to the mystical literature of the world's great religious traditions Beginning with an introduction by Steven T Katz a leading scholar of mysticism the anthology comprises poetry prayer narrative and other writings from Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Buddhist Taoist Confucianist and Native American traditions This collection provides readers not only with the primary mystical texts from each religious tradition but with an explanation of the context of the source and tradition Comparative Mysticism shows how the great mystical traditions of the world are deeply rooted in the religious traditions from which they originated The contextual methodological approach taken throughout the anthology also addresses the critical question of what these mystical traditions at their highest level have in common Despite the prevailing view that mystical traditions throughout the world are essentially similar the presentation of the sources in this volume suggests that in fact the various traditions have distinct teachings and different metaphysical goals The writings collected in Comparative Mysticism address the most fundamental and important methodological epistemological and hermeneutical questions regarding the study and interpretation of mysticism and mystical sources across cultures This anthology will be an invaluable resource to students and scholars of mystic tradition for years to come Healing the Soul after Religious Abuse Mikele Rauch,2009-03-20

Recent scandals of clergy sexual abuse have brought attention to the victims and their responses to and recovery from their abuse But few have considered the effect of the abuse on a victim s soul and religious outlook and beliefs Healing the Soul after Religious Abuse offers a unique perspective of recovery and restoration of the soul after religious abuse The author argues that religious abuse often stops not only psychological growth but also inward development The effect is not simply emotional because the devastation reaches to the core of the spirit Often there is no place for a God of love or a love of what once was divine Through a series of personal interviews with persons from the five major religions Rauch considers various ways that religion can do harm The stories told in this book include the road to restoration in the wake of institutional abuse and how inner experience is sometimes confused with religious training the sacred task of spiritual leadership and how to restore trust when there has been a violation an exploration of sacrifice and a clarification of the notion of shame a look at the impact of religious bigotry in the areas of race sexuality and tolerance an overview of sexuality and the place it holds in both celibate and family life the pernicious issue of clergy sexual abuse and the signs of spiritual trauma in response to such violation a roadmap for restoration and a challenge to religious institutions and lastly ways to reclaim the sacred and rewire the spirit Through interviews research and personal stories the author tells a story of recovery of the most delicate kind offering pathways through the dark night of religious violation to a restoration of the soul and its immense possibilities

Say I Am You Jalāl al-Dīn Rūmī (Maulana), 1994 This is a very philosophic poem from a very religious man who has a connection to God that is surreal He is saying that we are all in one we are one with nature the wind the sun the everything in the world Some are given the ability to see what can't be seen or what can't be smelled or felt but they know without actually knowing It is a gift beyond what others know or will ever know When a human realizes his connection and abiding to nature it makes them want to honor it because that was your beginning and will be your end From the moment we are born until we die our spirit and nature are formed from our existence of this world and the ideals our world teaches us Some get it and sadly some don't This man got it and he wanted us to know his thoughts and ideas The rest of the book is poetry with stories of the Sufi poet Rumi and Shams

The Quatrains of Rumi Jalāl al-Dīn Rūmī (Maulana), 2008 This is the first complete translation of the nearly 2 000 quatrains attributed to Jalaluddin Rumi the famous 13th century mystical poet It is the result of over 22 years of collaboration by an American Rumi scholar and an Afghan scholar of Persian literature It should appeal to a wide variety of lovers of Mawlana Rumi's poetry not just specialists general readers who seek a deeper understanding of his spiritual teachings than popularized books often interpretive versions claimed as translations can provide as well as those interested in religious mysticism in general and Islamic mysticism sufism in particular The quatrains are ordered according to stages and themes of the lover and beloved spiritual disciple and sufi master Most of the translations are followed by explanatory notes those intended for the general reader have asterisks and often refer to the Notes an appended glossary Readers who have access to previously published translations and versions of the quatrains can use the appended Concordance to make comparisons Quatrains in the earliest manuscripts that have been found to be composed by earlier poets have been identified and placed in another appendix Few of the quatrains have been previously translated by scholars the quatrains in popularized books are often distorted versions mostly rendered by authors who do not know Persian those who do often tend to omit change or add Here the poems are presented in the context of the Islamic sufi poetry in the Persian language 800 years ago wine and drunkenness do not involve alcoholic intoxication but are metaphors for the mystical taste of spiritual grace and ecstasy The lover's longing and self effacing love is not romantic but spiritual love of the seeker for his sufi guide This love is a means to the goal of pure worship of God Most High the only Beloved that necessitates self effacement and mystical drowning in the reality described in the Qur'an Everything perishes except His Face

The Mystic Heart of Justice Denise Breton, Stephen Lehman, 2001 Almost daily we encounter a world that seems unjust while the authorities we depend upon appear powerless or to be working on the wrong side To make matters worse we often feel judged by those same authorities parents teachers employers religious leaders This book attempts to put things right
