Merleau-Ponty and Buddhism Gereon Kopf, Jin Y. Park, 2009-08-13 Merleau Ponty and Buddhism explores a new mode of philosophizing through a comparative study of Maurice Merleau Ponty's phenomenology and philosophies of major Buddhist thinkers such as Nagarjuna Chinul Dogen Shinran and Nishida Kitaro Challenging the dualistic paradigm of existing philosophical traditions Merleau Ponty proposes a philosophy in which the traditional opposites are encountered through mutual penetration Likewise a Buddhist worldview is articulated in the theory of dependent co arising or the middle path which comprehends the world and beings in the third space where the subject and the object or eternalism and annihilation exist independent of one another The thirteen essays in this volume explore this third space in their discussions of Merleau Ponty's concepts of the intentional arc the flesh of the world and the chiasm of visibility in connection with the Buddhist doctrine of no self and the five aggregates the Tiantai Buddhist concept of threefold truth Zen Buddhist huatou meditation the invocation of the Amida Buddha in True Pure Land Buddhism and Nishida's concept of basho In his philosophical project Merleau Ponty makes vigorous efforts to challenge the boundaries that divide philosophy and non philosophy the East and the West experience and concepts the subject and the object and body and mind Combining the Eastern philosophical tradition of Buddhism with Merleau Ponty's phenomenology Merleau Ponty and Buddhism offers an intercultural philosophy in which opposites intermingle in a chiasmic relationship and which brings new understanding regarding the self and the self's relation with others in a globalized and multicultural world

The Body, Self-Cultivation, and Ki-Energy Yasuo Yuasa, 1993-09-06 This book is an inquiry into ki energy its role within Eastern mind body theory and its implications for our contemporary Western understanding of the body Yuasa examines the concept of ki energy as it has been used in such areas as acupuncture Buddhist and Taoist meditation and the martial arts To explain the achievement of mind body oneness in these traditions he offers an innovative schematization of the lived body His approach is interdisciplinary and cross cultural offering insights into Western philosophy religion medical science depth psychology parapsychology theater and physical education To substantiate the relationship that ki energy forms between the human body and its environment Yuasa introduces contemporary scientific research on ki energy in China and Japan as well as evidence from acupuncture medicine and from the experience of meditators and martial arts practitioners This evidence requires not only a rethinking of the living human body and of the mind body and mind matter relation but also calls into question the adequacy of the existing scientific paradigm Yuasa calls for an epistemological critique of modern science and explores the issue of the relation of teleology to science

Near-Death Experiences Ornella Corazza, 2008-06-30 Near death experiences fascinate everyone from theologians to sociologists and neuroscientists This groundbreaking book introduces the phenomenon of NDEs their personal impact and the dominant scientific explanations Taking a strikingly original cross cultural approach and incorporating new medical research it combines new theories of mind and body with contemporary research into how the brain functions Ornella Corazza analyses dualist models of mind and body discussing the main features of NDEs as reported by many people who have experienced them She studies the use of ketamine to reveal how characteristics of NDEs can be chemically induced without being close to death This evidence challenges the conventional survivalist hypothesis according to which the near death experience is a proof of the existence of an afterlife This remarkable book concludes that we need to move towards a more integrated view of embodiment in order to understand what human life is and also what it can be Ornella Corazza is a NDE researcher at the School of Oriental and African Studies SOAS University of London In 2004 5 she was a Member of the 21st Century Centre of Excellence COE Program on the Construction of Death and Life Studies at the University of Tokyo

Writing Japan's War in New Guinea Victoria Eaves-Young, 2025-10-01 Tamura Yoshikazu is destined to die on the alien shores of the New Guinea warzone Devoid of family contact perplexed by the unfamiliarity of his environment deprived of even meagre amenities and faced with the spectre of debilitating illness and starvation this solitary soldier commenced a diary in the early part of 1943 Employed in the hard labour of building airstrips he is ground down by tedium disheartened by the now dysfunctional military hierarchy consumed by grief at the meaningless deaths of comrades and stripped of any chance of being involved in an aspect of war that he considers heroic and meaningful Profoundly unsettled by all that appears to be at odds with the kokutai ideology Tamura employs strategies through the vehicle of his diary to enable him to remain committed to the pathway of death on behalf of the Emperor

Attunement Through the Body Shigenori Nagatomo, 2016-02-24 Preparatory to restoring humaneness Attunement Through the Body offers an innovative philosophical model for overcoming mind body dualism and its negative consequences through a systematic elucidation of the concept and the phenomenon of attunement It invites readers to re evaluate an undue emphasis placed on the cognitive intellectual knowledge in the West The book examines the concept of the lived body and then articulates the transformative dimension of our everyday mode of living our bodies vis a vis Yuasa Yasuo s concept of body scheme demonstrating that the unity disclosed can be brought to a higher degree The book further describes the transformative dimension of our bodies in theoretical and practical aspects through the concept of the body emerging in the course of meditational self cultivation that was practiced by Dogen Kigen a medieval Japanese Zen master It then develops an original philosophical theory that differs from various

Western theories such as Idealism Empiricism and Materialism This theory articulates modes of attunement reflecting degrees of somatic knowledge The theory implies a lifestyle appropriate for the coming century Cases on Kyosei Practice in Music Education Gordon, Richard Keith, Akutsu, Taichi, 2019-03-29 Music and arts education have a long standing orientation of seeking a practice where everyone interacts and communicates in and through artistic activities However an overspecialized and professionalized stance in arts education diminishes the spirit of playing music together and leaves little room for creativity during teaching and learning activities In order to gain a richer and deeper knowledge of music and the arts interaction and the meaning of creative and humanely kyosei interactions between and among individuals groups and institutions must be emphasized Cases on Kyosei Practice in Music Education is an essential reference source that discusses the meaning and significance of music making as a human and social practice as well as reflecting creative inquiry into practical aspects of music and arts teaching Featuring research on topics such as multicultural music community music and sociological perspectives this book is ideally designed for P 12 educators pre service and in service teachers administrators principles music instructors administrators caregivers and researchers Encounter with Enlightenment Robert E. Carter, 2012-02-01 In Encounter with Enlightenment Robert E Carter puts forth the East and specifically Japan as a source of possible solutions to the world s social economic and environmental problems Not only is the book a sustained scholarly analysis of both the religious and philosophical roots of Japan s distinctive ethical approach to life but it also provides the Western reader with a context for understanding Eastern values values that although familiar to the West tend to be deemphasized Encounter with Enlightenment begins a horizontal fusion between East and West and establishes a common ground for mutual understanding and for working toward an ethical approach that could resolve some of the earth s difficulties Performance & Consciousness Daniel Meyer-Dinkgrafe, 2018-12-07 This is volume 1 part 4 of the Performing Arts International forum This collection of essays covers a breadth of topics on the theme of consciousness addressing the trend of studies trying to put human experience into more concrete cogent less poetic and metaphorical terms Major issues raised by the essays are summarised and a hypothesis serving as a stimulus for further research and debate is suggested by the volume s conclusion Psychoanalysis at the Limit Jon Mills, 2004-05-11 Examines the question of science epistemology and unconscious experience in psychoanalytic theory and practice Beyond Personal Identity Gereon Kopf, 2012-12-06 Applies Dogen Kigen s religious philosophy and the philosophy of Nishida Kitaro to the philosophical problem of personal identity probing the applicability of the concept of non self to the philosophical problems of selfhood otherness and temporality which culminate in the conundrum of personal identity Back to the Future of the Body Dominic Janes, 2013-02-14 What can the past tell us about the future s of the body The origins of this collection of papers lie in the work of the Birkbeck Institute for the Humanities which has been involved in presenting a series of international workshops and conferences on the theme of the cultural life of the body The rationale for these events was that in concepts
