Screaming Whispers:

Friends & Mothers Louise Limerick, 2013-11-12 Never again will you walk past a group of moms having coffee and cake without dying to know what's going on beneath the surface The Sydney Morning Herald Five women all of them mothers meet regularly for tea and cake Their lives are consumed by children school drop offs and casual conversations so their respite at the Vista Cafe is a welcome retreat Until the day that Evelyn's baby disappears Suffering severe postpartum depression Evelyn is now in a psychiatric hospital refusing to utter a word not even any information regarding the whereabouts of her newborn daughter Amy leaving her remaining four friends at a loss In her absence they begin to piece together Evelyn's life as a mother and as a woman and start to take a look at their own lives What ensues is each woman's uncovering of her own lapsed desires those dreams and wants that were slowly sidelined or put off for a later date as husband marriage and child rearing became full time occupations Joanna confronts her halfhearted efforts to lose the baby weight from her second child Sam who is now three years old Clare's lifestyle is as unkempt as her hair a fact that usually has her buying the newest day planner but now makes her question her early beginnings as an artist Susan is the stereotypical supermom who is never late to pick up her kids yet she cannot seem to take the same charge when it comes to her own life And Wendy though the quietest among them perhaps has the biggest secrets In a darkly humorous manner guilty secrets and lives are entwined as the suspense builds during the desperate search for Evelyn's missing daughter Louise Limerick's Friends Mothers is a vivid and honest portrayal of real motherhood and the challenges and joys that face the women who occupy this role a contemporary story of the extraordinary strength of love International Praise for Friends Mothers A great read Limerick's depictions of the minutiae of raising children are lovingly realistic but not overly sentimental The Age Australia Where Limerick's writing shines is in her buoyant evocation of the sticky constant exasperating and loving realm of small children and their careers There are many such delicious scenes in this novel The Weekend Australian Limerick has a real knack for capturing the small triumphs and tragedies of everyday life a passion and a tenderness for her characters that won us over The Sydney Morning Herald The Last Rose Curtis D. Ward, 2014-07-03 The Last Rose is a lovely book of beautiful poetry and and thought provoking prose From lofty words of love uttered in a garden of roses to the darkness of despair on Lover's Leap from the inner struggles of man's inner madness to the joy of celebrating faith in God the poetry and prose in this book are sure to touch your soul and enlighten your spirit This book contains poetry touching all genres of life including those of divine inspiration But this is not just a book of poetry it also contains prose and short essays dealing with life loss and love In a modern age that is hurried anxious and threatening the world sometimes seems to be a dark place indeed But in this world of entropy and decay we can still find some wonder and beauty that has survived In the darkness of his autumn season the author has personally discovered a divine symbol of hope the last Rose of Summer The Rising Tide Molly Keane, 2013-05-23 BY THE AUTHOR SHORTLISTED FOR THE MAN BOOKER PRIZE INTRODUCED BY POLLY DEVLIN
