Low Flying Aircraft:

Low Flying Aircraft T. M. McNally, 2008 Low Flying Aircraft is a collection of interrelated stories in which one life is equally capable of influencing another under a sky the size of history. Spanning a period of fourteen years, the stories are connected by the pasts of Orion McClenahan and Helen Jowalski, childhood friends whose fathers shared a law practice in Chicago. In 1976, a freak accident changes their lives irrevocably, and the stories are about the people Orion and Helen grow up to be, the people they love and the people they lose along the way. In Paris the Easy Way, Sam is a stable manager who steps in to the lives of others while trying to avoid his own. Troubled by the disappearance of his brother in Cambodia and his own complicated relationship with his brother's wife, Sam finally accepts the mysteries that surround him. Lightning gravity love I've never properly understood any of it. Anna, a columnist writing on the complexities that face young modern women, loses all sense of her identity while visiting her father, a dying man who wants a grandson almost as much as he wants a daughter like Milly, the heroine of his favorite western novel. The voices in this collection describe a world of uncertain borders where individuals are sustained by thin, brief moments of direction. Orion, a disillusioned photojournalist, sets himself free from his wealthy family and their Midwestern habits by discarding the things of his life: a clock radio, a blender, paperbacks. He will board a plane and fly to Central America in order to document the situation, do some good. In Breathing is Key, Sarah momentarily decides to stay with her abusive boyfriend because she doesn't know where else to go. I think we have a lot here, she says, and not all of it's bad. In story after story, personal histories unfold, always, what lies in wait is the possibility for connection. A brother who dies young, a first love, an abandoned husband, each persists in the realm of memory, adding texture and meaning to the lives they influence. In The Future of Ruth, a woman comes to understand that the proof of one's life lay in her death and the trees that might spread out and over a soul. In revolutionary Nicaragua, on a ranch in Arizona, from a Vermont ski slope, the souls in Low Flying Aircraft soar, all hoping to catch a glimpse of the shape of things to come, of possibility.

Bomber Boys Kevin Wilson, 2012-04-09 A gripping account of the everyday heroism of British bomber crews in 1943, the year when Bomber Command believed it could win WWII by bombing alone. In 1943, the RAF began a bombing campaign against Germany, the like of which had never before been seen. Over the next twelve months, tens of thousands of aircrews flew across the North Sea to drop their bombs on German cities. They were opposed not only by the full force of the Luftwaffe but by a nightmare of flak, treacherously icy conditions, and constant mechanical malfunction. Most of these crews never finished their tour of operations but were either shot down and killed or taken prisoner by an increasingly hostile enemy. This is the story of the everyday heroism of British bomber crews in the days when it was widely believed that the Allies could win the Second World War by bombing alone Kevin Wilson has interviewed hundreds of former airmen about what their lives were like in 1943 the stomach churning tension of flying repeatedly over hostile territory the terror at being shot down or captured and the peculiar mixture of guilt and pride at unleashing such devastation on Germany Aviation ,1923 National Transportation Safety Board Decisions United States. National Transportation Safety Board,1973 Decisions United States. National Transportation Safety Board,1973 Emerging Issues in Homeland Security William M. Thaler,2005 For a myriad of reasons the United States of America created a Department of Defense whose seemingly unshakeable credo is based on the oft quoted sports slogan that the best defense is a good offense Thus America was caught with its pants down on September 11 It could attack entire countries with doomsday nuclear weapons at the drop of the hat but couldn't find or hit the person who dropped the hat It could rain down 500 pound hole blaster bombs but couldn't find the holes Who even thought anyone would have thechutzpah to attack the US A US which had grown so indolent following its firm policy of bombing anyone anywhere without regards to God's or man's laws or even common sense The new concept of home security has been belatedly discovered by the mandarins in Washington These books detail efforts at trying to figure out why the strongest offensive military power on Earth may also be the weakest defensive power
