Timothy Bell Raser

Models Of Power Politics And Economics In Zolas Rougon Macquart:

Models of Power David F. Bell, 1988 Models of Power David F. Bell, 1988-01-01 Models of Power David Fowler Bell, 1981 Literature and Rationality Paisley Livingston, 1991-12-12 This interdisciplinary study establishes connections between divergent approaches to rationality in philosophy social science and literary studies Livingston provides a broad survey of the basic assumptions and questions associated with concepts of rationality in philosophical accounts of action in decision theory and in the theory of rational choice The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L.

Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization

Families in Jeopardy Roddey Reid, 1993 This interdisciplinary study shows how a new commercial and learned print culture attempted to write and regulate individual and collective practices in terms of a master idiom of family sexuality and gender upon which a post revolutionary national community would turn Offering a radical new approach to family and textuality in the field of cultural and literary studies the author argues that from its very inception this print culture from domestic manuals to public health reports and most notably prose fiction promoted new norms of behavior and selfhood not through narratives of idealized family life but instead by means of a rhetoric of danger lack and pathology The book follows familial discourse as it assigns deficient or illicit behaviors to ever wider social groups from the Old Regime nobility and the traditional bourgeoisie to the new middle classes urban workers and the peasants in the countryside to finally the new social elites of the late nineteenth century The author describes how the lack of normative family and sexuality became the primary tactic for designating social others within the social body and for reworking social and gender identities so as to authorize new knowing practices and expertise and new objects of knowledge and discipline Furthermore through analyses of novels by Bernardin de Saint Pierre Sue Balzac Sand Zola and Gide the author demonstrates that the peculiar force of the French novel resided in its power to reach wide newly literate audiences and to inscribe new identities and desires through the reading process Finally the book proposes the provocative thesis that because of these tales of threatened or failed family life the domestic conjugal household has never worked even down to our time it has always been in crisis endangered by forces from without and within and thus in constant need of protection and renewal Literature, Analytically Speaking Peter Swirski, 2010-03-01 In a new approach to interdisciplinary literary theory Literature Analytically Speaking integrates literary studies with analytic aesthetics girded by neo Darwinian evolution Scrutinizing narrative fiction through a lens provided by analytic philosophy revered literary theorist Peter Swirski puts new life into literary theory while fashioning a set of practical guidelines for critics in the interpretive trenches Dismissing critical inquirers who deny intention its key role in the study of literary reception Swirski extends the defense of intentionality to art and to human behavior in general In the process Swirski takes stock of the recent work in evolutionary theory arguing that the analysis of narrative truth may be grounded in the neo Darwinian paradigm which forms the empirical backbone behind his analytic approach Literature Analytically Speaking provides a series of precepts designed to capture the ways in which we do interpret and ought to interpret works of literature Reflecting a resounding shift from the poststructuralist paradigm Swirski's lively and colorful presentation backed up by a dazzling variety of examples and case studies reconceptualizes the aesthetics of literature and literary studies Between Literature and Science Peter Swirski, 2000 In Between Literature and Science Peter Swirski examines the true intellectual scope of Edgar Allan Poe and Stanislaw Lem Using a genuinely interdisciplinary approach he shows that they propose far reaching hypotheses in aesthetics epistemology cognitive science philosophy of science literary studies and pragmatics as well as in cosmology artificial intelligence and futurology Swirski argues that previous studies of their science fiction works in neglecting these broader philosophical and scientific ambitions have misrepresented Poe and Lem's artistic achievements

Nineteenth-Century Narratives of Contagion Allan Conrad Christensen, 2007-04-11 This intriguing book examines the ways contagion or disease inform and shape a wide variety of nineteenth century texts and contexts Christensen dissects the cultural assumptions concerning disease health impurity and so on before exploring different perspectives on key themes such as plague nursing and the hospital environment and focusing on certain key texts including Dicken's Bleak House Gaskell's Ruth and Zola's Le Docteur Pascal

Of Literature and Knowledge Peter Swirski, 2007-02-12 Of Literature and Knowledge looks like an important advance in this new and very important subject literature is about to become even more interesting Edward O Wilson Pellegrino University Professor Harvard University Framed by the theory of evolution this colourful and engaging volume presents a new understanding of the mechanisms by which we transfer information from narrative make believe to real life Ranging across game theory and philosophy of science as well as poetics and aesthetics Peter Swirski explains how literary fictions perform as a systematic tool of enquiry driven by thought experiments Crucially he argues for a continuum between the cognitive tools employed by scientists philosophers and scholars or writers of fiction The result is a provocative study of our talent and propensity for creating imaginary worlds different from the world we know yet invaluable to our understanding of it Of Literature and Knowledge is a noteworthy challenge to contemporary critical theory arguing that by bridging the gap between literature and science we might not only reinvigorate literary studies but above all further our understanding of literature

Evolution, Sacrifice, and Narrative Carol Colatrella, 2016-07-22 First published in 1990 Balzac Zola and Faulkner all drew upon the principles of evolutionary theory to represent man's place in nature and his struggle for survival in their major series La Comédie humaine Rougon Macquart and the Yoknapatawpha fiction This book focuses on the first novels in each author's series La Pitié Le Goriot La Fortune des Rougon and Flags in the Dust and considers how each novel relates to its series and derives a definition of the naturalistic roman fleuve To describe this development the issues of how a scientific idea becomes refracted in a literary genre and how the naturalistic novel developed out of the realistic novel are considered Peripheries of Nineteenth-century French Studies Timothy Bell Raser, 2002 The French nineteenth century came to its full fruition only recently herald and instigator as it was of some of the most important developments of the twentieth century This volume offers a wide ranging selection of scholarly approaches to the works of the French nineteenth century articles that show how pertinent the texts of that moment are to an understanding of our own modernity The Cambridge History of French Literature William Burgwinkle, Nicholas Hammond, Emma Wilson, 2011-02-24 From Occitan poetry to Francophone writing produced in the Caribbean and North Africa from intellectual history to current films and from medieval manuscripts to bandes dessin es this History covers French literature from its beginnings to the present day With equal attention to all genres historical periods and registers this is the most comprehensive guide to literature written in French ever produced in English and the first in decades to offer such an array of topics and perspectives Contributors attend to issues of orality history peripheries visual culture alterity sexuality religion politics autobiography and testimony The result is a collection that despite the wide variety of topics and perspectives presents a unified view of the richness of French speaking cultures This History gives support to the idea that French writing will continue to prosper in the twenty first century as it adapts adds to and refocuses the rich legacy of its past Napoleon III and His Regime David Baguley, 2000-11-01 Referred to in his time as the Pretender and the sphinx of the Tuileries Louis Napol on Bonaparte the nephew of Emperor Napoleon I of France and himself ruler of the Second Empire 1852 1870 so managed the manufacture of his public image and the masking of his private self that he is ultimately unknowable to this day From the mysterious circumstances of his conception in 1807 to the strange events of his downfall in 1870 and death in 1873 he lived loved and reigned in an extraordinary aura of myth and fantasy under the shadow of his more famous uncle Taking a highly innovative approach to this intriguing historical figure David Baguley entertains sources in a m lange of media and forms pictures performances spectacles rituals music fiction poems plays architecture fashion as well as Louis Napol on s own writings to explore how the ruler was represented invented and interpreted by detractors and defenders alike The dynamic process by which the legend of Napoleon III was elaborately fabricated and then vigorously dismantled unfolds under Baguley s hand not chronologically but by generic categories reflecting the author s underlying conviction that history and literary depictments are not as incompatible as is often assumed Baguley examines works by among many others Victor Hugo Karl Marx mile Zola Honor Daumier Jacques Offenbach Gustave Flaubert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning that range from history and biography to romanticized versions of the Emperor s feats to parody caricature and satire With its conspiratorial origins its rising and dramatically falling action its schemes scandals and tragic denouement the Second Empire appears designed to inspire writers and artists Napoleon III Baguley observes could well have been the central character or temperament in a naturalist novel While most historians consider Louis Napol on s coup d tat of December 1851 to be his boldest endeavor Baguley shows in this expansive and eloquent work that his most extravagant venture was to found a second Napoleonic empire and he illustrates not only the power of the name and the image but also the precariousness of the Emperor's reliance upon them. For Napoleon III dissimulation was his natural state: opportunist or utopian reformer or something in between, he must remain one of history's most elusive and controversial figures ever resisting final assessment.

French Food Lawrence R. Schehr, Allen S. Weiss, 2013-05-13 More than a book about food alone, French Food uses diet as a window into issues of nationality, literature, and culture in France and abroad. Outstanding contributors from cultural studies, literary criticism, performance studies, and the emerging field of food studies explore a wide range of food matters.

Émile Zola Brian Nelson, 2020-07-23 Émile Zola was the leader of the literary movement known as naturalism and is one of the great figures of the novel. In his monumental Les Rougon-Macquart (1871-93) he explored the social and cultural landscape of the late nineteenth century in ways that scandalized bourgeois society. Zola opened the novel up to a new realm of subjects, including the realities of working-class life, class relations, and questions of gender and sexuality, and his writing embodied a new freedom of expression with his bold, outspoken voice, often inviting controversy. In this Very Short Introduction, Brian Nelson examines Zola's major themes and narrative art. He illuminates the social and political contexts of Zola's work and provides readings of five individual novels: The Belly of Paris, L'Assommoir, The Ladies' Paradise, Germinal, and Earth. Zola's naturalist theories, which attempted to align literature with science, helped to generate the stereotypical notion that his fiction was somehow nonfictional. Nelson, however, reveals how the most distinctive elements of Zola's writing go far beyond his theoretical naturalism, giving his novels their unique force. Throughout, he sets Zola's work in context, considering his relations with contemporary painters, his role in the Dreyfus Affair, and his eventual murder.

The Fortune of the Rougons Émile Zola, 2012-08-09 He thought he could see in a flash the future of the Rougon-Macquart family: a pack of wild, satiated appetites in the midst of a blaze of gold and blood. Set in the fictitious Provençal town of Plassans, The Fortune of the Rougons tells the story of Silvère and Miette, two idealistic young supporters of the republican resistance to Louis-Napoléon Bonaparte's coup d'état in December 1851. They join the woodcutters and peasants of the Var to seize control of Plassans, opposed by the Bonapartist loyalists led by Silvère's uncle, Pierre Rougon. Meanwhile, the foundations of the Rougon family and its illegitimate Macquart branch are being laid in the brutal beginnings of the Imperial regime. The Fortune of the Rougons is the first in Zola's famous Rougon-Macquart series of novels. In it, we learn how the two branches of the family came about and the origins of the hereditary weaknesses passed down the generations. Murder, treachery, and greed are the keynotes, and just as the Empire was established through violence, the fortune of the Rougons is paid for in blood.

Sexualizing Power in Naturalism Irene Gammel, 1994
Presenting a revisionary reading of German Canadian and American texts such as Fanny Essler Settlers of the Marsh and Sister Carrie Gammel English U of Prince Edward Island attributes to naturalism a predominantly male genre the appropriation of a disruptive female sexuality not so much to liberate it from Victorian repression as to contain it within the male boundaries of naturalism Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

His Excellency Eugène Rougon Émile Zola, 2018 His Excellency Eugène Rougon is the sixth in Zola's famous Rougon Macquart series of novels Here the novel presents a detailed picture of court and political circles during the Second Empire satirizing the corruption and cronyism at its heart

The Colonial Comedy: Imperialism in the French Realist Novel Jennifer Yee, 2016-08-12 Nineteenth century French Realism focuses on metropolitan France with Paris as its undisputed heart Through Jennifer Yee's close reading of the great novelists of the French realist and naturalist canon Balzac Flaubert Zola Maupassant The Colonial Comedy reveals that the colonies play a role at a distance even in the most apparently metropolitan texts In what Edward Said called geographical notations of race and imperialism the presence of the colonies off stage is apparent as imported objects colonial merchandise and individuals whose colonial experience is transformative Indeed the realist novel registers the presence of the emerging global world system through networks of importation financial speculation and immigration as well as direct colonial violence and power structures The literature of the century responds to the last decades of French slavery and direct colonialism notably in Algeria but also economic imperialism and the extension of French influence elsewhere Far from imperialist triumphalism in the realist novel exotic objects are portrayed as fake or mass produced for the growing bourgeois market while economic imperialism is associated with fraud and manipulation The deliberate contrast of colonialism and exoticism within the metropolitan novel and ironic distancing of colonial narratives reveal the realist mode to be capable of questioning its own epistemological basis The Colonial Comedy argues for the existence in the nineteenth century of a Critical Orientalism characterized by critique of its own discursive foundations Using the tools of literary analysis within a materialist approach The Colonial Comedy opens up the domestic Paris Provinces axis to signifying chains pointing towards the colonial space
