Modern American Memoirs:

Modern American Memoirs Annie Dillard, 2009-10-13 In this anthology of well chosen excerpts by a satisfyingly diverse group of writers the truth of their lives shines from every beautifully often courageously composed page Booklist Packed with superb writing New York Newsday Modern American Memoirs is a sampling from 35 quintessential 20th century memoirs including contributions from Margaret Mead Malcolm X Maxine Hong Kingston Loren Eisely and Zora Neale Hurston Supremely written and excellent examples of the art of biography these excerpts present a beautifully wide range of American life

Modern American Memoirs Annie Dillard, Cortx Conley, 2009-07-01 This rich and distinguished collection from the memoirs of thirty five outstanding writers covers seventy five years of twentieth century American life

Contemporary American Memoirs in Action Jane Danielewicz, 2017-11-14 This book analyzes a collection of literary memoirs to demonstrate how this genre is an avenue for participation in public life Writers are repurposing the memoir a genre known for its personal and expressive function to engage in debate and serve political goals The chapters provide case studies for memoir as social action that effects change by looking at the writing of Joan Didion John Edgar Wideman James McBride M Elaine Mar Janisse Ray Lucy Grealy and Ann Patchett Drawing on theories of genre and agency Danielewicz asserts how these writers are acting pragmatically Memoirs contribute to democratic society by offering solutions creating new knowledge revealing social trends bringing issues to light creating empathy and connection and changing public opinion

Less is More Kimberly Campbell, 2007 Less Is More is full of powerful ideas for teaching with short provocative text This book broadens and extends our available teaching tools and materials and can help engage all students It is a valuable resource for language arts teachers Cris Tovani Language arts teachers want all of their students to love literature and embrace the novels they assign The classroom reality is that many students are not ready or motivated to immerse themselves in an entire novel In order to reach and engage all students teachers need to look beyond novels alone and embrace a richer variety of literature In Less Is More Kimberly Hill Campbell draws on research as well as her own classroom experiences to show how short texts engage a wide range of middle and high school students She shares her discovery of the power of short texts to support her students skills as readers writers and students of literature Kimberly shows how short texts can be integrated into the curriculum without sacrificing required novels Chapters examine different genres of short text such as short stories essays memoir and graphic novels Each chapter provides reading writing and response strategies as well as a broad selection of short text resources that have proven effective with a wide range of students

The Culture and Politics of Contemporary Street Gang Memoirs Josephine Metcalf, 2012-07-02 The publication of Sanyika Shakur s Monster The Autobiography of an L A Gang Member in 1993 generated a huge amount of excitement in literary circles New York Times book critic Michiko Kakutani deemed it a shocking and galvanic book and set off a new publishing trend of gang memoirs in the 1990s The memoirs showcased tales of violent confrontation and territorial belonging but also offered many of the first journalistic and autobiographical accounts of the much mythologized gang subculture In The Culture and Politics of Contemporary Street Gang Memoirs Josephine Metcalf focuses on three of these memoirs Shakur's Monster Luis J Rodriguez's Always Running La Vida Loca Gang Days in L A and Stanley Tookie Williams's Blue Rage Black Redemption as key representatives of the gang autobiography Metcalf examines the conflict among violence thrilling sensationalism and the authorial desire to instruct and warn competing within these works The narrative arcs of the memoirs themselves rest on the process of conversion from brutal young gang bangers to nonviolent enlightened citizens Metcalf analyzes the emergence production marketing and reception of gang memoirs Through interviews with Rodriguez Shakur and Barbara Cottman Becnel Williams's editor Metcalf reveals both the writing and publishing processes This book analyzes key narrative conventions specifically how diction dialogue and narrative arcs shape the works The book also explores how these memoirs are consumed This interdisciplinary study fusing literary criticism sociology ethnography reader response study and editorial theory brings scholarly attention to a popular much discussed but understudied modern expression

Navigating Loss in Women's Contemporary Memoir A. Prodromou, 2015-06-29 Navigating Loss in Women's Contemporary Memoir traces the grief process through the lives of contemporary women writers to show how its complex multi layered nature can encourage us towards new understandings of loss

Richard Wright Keneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908 1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author's earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics

Political Memoir George W. Egerton, 1994 Wesley Wark and John Naylor analyse the proliferation of intelligence memoirs and government efforts to protect official secrets from the revelations of the candid memoirist The principal findings reached by the contributors in their study of this problematic but influential genre are set out by the editor in the concluding chapter

Write Your Memoir Allan G. Hunter, 2012-06-01 Drawing from more than 25 years of literary know how and modeled after a 15 week college course this manual provides guidance for seekers wishing to delve further into self exploration through writing Extending beyond the idea that memoir writing intends to put past events into a more understandable current perspective the guide maintains that keeping a document of one's life is actually the basis of a psychic process called soul work which manifests as a desire to experience the state of being alive to the fullest

This unusual approach to memoir writing aims to generate more honest and genuine results that come from inner needs rather than outer expectations. Intended to clarify a writer's developmental path, this resource emphasizes the importance of self-awareness and the need for dealing with difficult material that actually alters the writer in the process, resulting in significant growth of the soul.

Women in Rock Memoirs Cristina Garrigós, Marika Ahonen, 2023. Women in Rock Memoirs vindicates the role of women in rock music. The chapters examine memoirs written by women in rock from 2010 onwards to explore how the artists narrate their life experiences and difficulties they had to overcome not only as musicians but as women. The book includes memoirs written by both well-known and lesser-known artists and artists from both inside and outside of the Anglo-American sphere. The essays by scholars from different research areas and countries around the world are divided into three parts according to the overall themes: Memory, Trauma, and Writing; Authenticity, Sexuality, and Sexism; and Aging, Performance, and the Image. They explore the dynamics of memoir as a genre by discussing the similarities and differences between the women in rock and the choices they have made when writing their books. As a whole, they help form a better understanding of today's possibilities and future challenges for women in rock music.

Writing the Memoir

Judith Barrington, 2002. New revised and updated edition of the bestselling book on writing memoir.

History, Historians, and Autobiography Jeremy D. Popkin, 2005-05-09. Though history and autobiography both claim to tell true stories about the past, historians have traditionally rejected first-person accounts as subjective and therefore unreliable. What then asks Jeremy D. Popkin in History, Historians, and Autobiography are we to make of the ever-increasing number of professional historians who are publishing stories of their own lives? And how is this recent development changing the nature of history writing, the historical profession, and the genre of autobiography? Drawing on the theoretical work of contemporary critics of autobiography and the philosophy of Paul Ricoeur, Popkin reads the autobiographical classics of Edward Gibbon and Henry Adams and the memoirs of contemporary historians such as Emmanuel Le Roy Ladurie, Peter Gay, Jill Ker Conway, and many others. He reveals the contributions historians' life stories make to our understanding of the human experience. Historians' autobiographies, he shows, reveal how scholars arrive at their vocations, the difficulties of writing about modern professional life, and the ways in which personal stories can add to our understanding of historical events such as war, political movements, and the traumas of the Holocaust. An engrossing overview of the way historians view themselves and their profession, this work will be of interest to readers concerned with the ways in which we understand the past as well as anyone interested in the art of life writing.

Memoir Ethics Mike W. Martin, 2016-02-10. Memoir Ethics: Good Lives and the Virtues is a philosophical study of moral themes in memoirs, exploring how memoirists present and defend perspectives on good lives. It pays particular attention to the interplay of the virtues, including their interplay with additional non-moral types of values in good lives. More generally, it explores the relevance of memoir to moral philosophy and in turn how moral philosophy enters into elucidating and critiquing memoirs Memoirs are understood as non fiction narratives written by oneself and significantly about oneself including full life autobiographies Mike W Martin explores perspectives on good lives as they are expressed in memoirs written by both philosophers and non philosophers Most of the chapters focus on one of the generic aspects of good lives moral goodness authenticity meaningfulness happiness health and self fulfillment The book clarifies how memoirists often employ life based arguments in defending value perspectives and it includes a discussion of whether philosophers memoirs are distinctive compared to memoirs by non philosophers and also compared to other forums for doing philosophy Martin highlights some parallels between features of good lives and features of memoirs for example both can be said to be meaningful authentic and having virtues such as wisdom and courage Demonstrating how memoirs are rich resources in exploring the good lives and exploring ways in which philosophical ethics provide tools for interpreting memoirs Memoir Ethics will be of interest to a broad audience of students scholars and general readers including anyone interested in ethics or the connections between literature and philosophy

Representing Post-Revolutionary Iran

Hosseini Nazari, 2022-06-30 Memoirs of diasporic Iranian American authors are a unique and culturally powerful way in which Iran its politics and people are understood in the USA and the rest of the world This book offers an analysis of the processes of production promotion and reception of the representations of post revolutionary Iran The book provides new perspectives on some of the most famous examples of the genre such as Betty Mahmoudi's Not Without My Daughter Azar Nafisi's Reading Lolita in Tehran A Memoir in Books and Fatemeh Keshavarz's Jasmine and Stars Reading More Than Lolita in Tehran Hossein Nazari places these texts in their social historical and political contexts tracing their origins within the trope of the American captivity narrative teasing out and critiquing neo Orientalist tendencies within and finally focusing on modes of discursive resistance to neo Orientalist narratives The book analyzes the structural means by which stereotypes about Islam and women in the Islamic Republic in these narratives are privileged by news media and the creative industries while also charting a growing number of counterhegemonic memoirs which challenge these narratives by representing more nuanced accounts of life in Iran after 1979
