Modern Australian Painting 1975 198:

When Modern Became Contemporary Art Charles Green, Heather Barker, 2024-09-19 This book is a portrait of the period when modern art became contemporary art It explores how and why writers and artists in Australia argued over the idea of a distinctively Australian modern and then postmodern art from 1962 the date of publication of a foundational book Australian Painting 1788 1960 up to 1988 the year of the Australian Bicentennial Across nine chapters about art exhibitions curators and critics this book describes the shift from modern art to contemporary art through the successive attempts to define a place in the world for Australian art But by 1988 Australian art looked less and less like a viable tradition inside which to interpret our art Instead vast gaps appeared since mostly male and often older White writers had limited their horizons to White Australia alone National stories by White men like borders had less and less explanatory value Underneath this a perplexing subject remained the absence of Aboriginal art in understanding what Australian art was during the period that established the idea of a distinctive Australian modern and then contemporary art This book reflects on why the embrace of Aboriginal art was so late in art museums and histories of Australian art arguing that this was because it was not part of a national story dominated by colonial then neo colonial dependency It is important reading for all scholars of both global and Australian art and for curators and artists

Recent Australian Painting Ron Radford, 1983 Grace Crowley's Contribution to Australian Modernism and Geometric Abstraction Dianne Ottley, 2010-02-19 Grace Crowley has been recognized as a product of European modernism and was one of the leading innovators of geometric abstraction in Australia Having studied in Paris in the 1920s with one of the leading art teachers writers and theorists Andr Lhote she returned to Australia having mastered the complex mathematics and geometry of the golden section and dynamic symmetry that had become a framework for modernism Through her teaching of these compositional techniques at the most progressive modern art school in Sydney in the 1930s she became a crucial influence on the group of artists now recognized as the historical forerunners to American colour field painting introduced to Australia in the 1960s and Australian abstraction Through her close friendship with Anne Dangar who played a critical role in the success of Albert Gleizes utopian art colony in rural France Crowley maintained contact with mainstream European modernism and links to the Abstraction Creation Group in Paris During the 1940s and 1950s Crowley worked with fellow artist Ralph Balson and together they developed their own style of geometric abstract art which reflected the spiritual dimensions of Kandinsky and Mondrian Although undervalued in her own time the sincerity and uncompromising quality of her work that transcends national boundaries makes her one of the most important Australian women artists of her generation

A Companion to Australian Art Christopher Allen, 2021-07-06 A Companion to Australian Art is a thorough introduction to the art produced in Australia from the arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 to the early 21st century Beginning with the colonial art made by Australia's first European settlers this volume presents a collection of clear and accessible essays by established art historians and emerging scholars alike Engaging clearly written chapters provide fresh insights into the principal Australian art movements considered from a variety of chronological regional and thematic perspectives The text seeks to provide a balanced account of historical events to help readers discover the art of Australia on their own terms and draw their own conclusions The book begins by surveying the historiography of Australian art and exploring the history of art museums in Australia The following chapters discuss art forms such as photography sculpture portraiture and landscape painting examining the practice of art in the separate colonies before Federation and in the Commonwealth from the early 20th century to the present day This authoritative volume covers the last 250 years of art in Australia including the Early Colonial High Colonial and Federation periods as well as the successive Modernist styles of the 20th century and considers how traditional Aboriginal art has adapted and changed over the last fifty years The Companion to Australian Art is a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate students of the history of Australian artforms from colonization to postmodernism and for general readers with an interest in the nation s colonial art history

65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art Marcia Langton, Judith Ryan, 2024-10-15 65 000 Years A Short History of Australian Art stares into the dark heart of Australia s brutal colonial history and offers new insights into the first art of this country Long before Britain s invasion of Australia in 1788 First Peoples cultural and design traditions flourished for thousands of generations Their art shaped the continent as we know it today and the societies that thrived here but these continuing artistic practices and new art forms were disregarded by the settlers and not considered to be fine art until the late 1980s In this publication twenty five writers urge us to reconsider the art history that is unique to the Australian continent and to acknowledge its rise to prominence in modern times Featuring new writing by leading thinkers across generations and disciplines it celebrates Indigenous Australian art across media time and language groups Today Indigenous art and artists are at the forefront of contemporary art practice In very real and tangible ways this publication reveals the artistic brilliance of Australia s First Peoples and stands as a testament to their resilience This book is published in association with a major exhibition at the University of Melbourne s revitalised Potter Museum of Art opening in 2025 Also titled 65 000 Years A Short History of Australian Art the exhibition curated by Professor Marcia Langton AO Ms Judith Ryan AM and Ms Shanysa McConville features over 400 artworks that celebrate the longevity and brilliance of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art despite a difficult history of colonialism and scientific racism
