A practical guide to performance-based instruction Paul Kahn, 1975      Using Technology with Classroom Instruction that Works Howard Pitler, 2007 What kinds of technology will support particular learning tasks and objectives And how does a teacher ensure that technology use will enhance instruction and not be a distraction or a disconnected add on You ll find the answers here This book builds on the landmark Classroom instruction that works by linking each of the nine categories of effective instructional strategies with educational technology applications and resources Each strategy focused chapter features cross curricular examples many drawn from actual lesson plans projects and products In addition to stories of students learning through inquiry collaborative projects games and other activities that make school exciting and meaningful you ll find dozens of recommended resources along with expert guidance on planning technology enhanced lessons aligned

Howard, Amy Hunter, 2014-01-13 This guidebook is a must have resource for anyone teaching a television production class or running a morning news show at the elementary middle or high school level Teaching a television production class is a real challenge especially when working with the typical budget and time limitations of most elementary middle or high school curricula Beyond the technical aspects of teaching this subject what is the best way to keep students engaged and challenged while teaching them skills that will help make them college and career ready Spanning lesson plans video production activities assessment and more this book supplies a comprehensive step by step guide to teaching a television production class using whatever equipment is readily available It focuses on the critical aspects of how to teach television production and organize lessons rather than the quickly evolving details of what equipment or editing software to use The authors also provide lessons on creating and executing a daily newscast show how to evaluate that show and collect school wide data for further evaluation and improvement and how to archive and mount these productions on the school website      Off the
