The Oxford Handbook of Modern Egyptian History

Beth Baron, Jeffrey Culang, 2024 Until relatively recently scholars of Egyptian history understood the modern period to begin with the movement of European people and ideas to Egypt's northern shores precipitated by Napoleon's invasion in 1798 From this perspective modern Egyptian history was animated by the diverse and sometimes contradictory ways in which Egyptians responded over time to colonial power and modern forms of knowledge This handbook featuring 26 originally commissioned essays by top scholars in the field adds to a growing literature that complicates the facile colonizer colonized and modern tradition binaries undergirding this view Modern Egyptian history is a continuous process of translation and adaptation invention and reinvention Bringing together a dynamic and accomplished group of historians of Egypt the book maps the present state of modern Egyptian history highlighting the most promising avenues of research and laying new ground upon which future generations of scholars may build The contributors address both long persisting themes in the field though in new ways as well as new themes reshaping how we understand modern Egyptian history and thus Middle Eastern and global history These include environment family infrastructure intellectuals labor law literature medicine politics popular culture and slavery Within these categories they explore issues of gender race and class The questions these scholars consider reflect pressing contemporary concerns and debates including medical sovereignty and bodily autonomy the management of the environment the rights and movements of workers courts and legal struggles cultural expression production and reception and the relationship between the army state and society

The Wilsonian Moment Erez Manela, 2007-07-23 During the Paris Peace Conference of 1919 while key decisions were debated by the victorious Allied powers a multitude of smaller nations and colonies held their breath waiting to see how their fates would be decided President Woodrow Wilson in his Fourteen Points had called for a free open minded and absolutely impartial adjustment of all colonial claims giving equal weight would be given to the opinions of the colonized peoples and the colonial powers Among those nations now paying close attention to Wilson's words and actions were the budding nationalist leaders of four disparate non Western societies Egypt India China and Korea That spring Wilson's words would help ignite political upheavals in all four of these countries This book is the first to place the 1919 Revolution in Egypt the Rowlatt Satyagraha in India the May Fourth movement in China and the March First uprising in Korea in the context of a broader Wilsonian moment that challenged the existing international order Using primary source material from America Europe and Asia historian Erez Manela tells the story of how emerging nationalist movements appropriated Wilsonian language and adapted it to their own local culture and politics as they launched into action on the international stage The rapid disintegration of the Wilsonian promise left a legacy of disillusionment and facilitated the spread of revisionist ideologies and movements in these societies future leaders of Third World liberation movements Mao Zedong Ho Chi Minh and Jawaharlal Nehru among others were profoundly shaped by their experiences at the time The importance of the Paris Peace Conference and Wilson's influence on international affairs far from the battlefields of Europe cannot be underestimated Now for the first time we can clearly see just how the events played out at Versailles sparked a wave of nationalism that is still resonating globally today

Business in Islam Robert J. Stefan, 2020-02-23 We are pleased to offer this fifth title in our APTS Press Monograph Series This is the publication of the author's doctoral dissertation done through the Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne Indiana USA The purpose of this series is to give our readers broader access to good scholarship that would otherwise be unavailable outside of the academic community This is part of our ongoing commitment to discipleship through publishing Christian mission organizations have enthusiastically embraced business as a means of entry for Christian workers who might not otherwise be able to get into these nations especially MMNs However the embracing of business raises some immediate concerns In light of existing tensions between business and Islam won't missions connected businesses be under the same cloud of conflict More importantly isn't the Gospel put under this cloud thereby negatively impacting the spread of the kingdom of God Also if the business and mission companies expatriate owners and employees are western especially American won't the conflicts inevitably intensify And if so are there ways such entities can be operated in order to minimize the conflict with Islamic sensitivities This book will address these and other related questions Historians, State and Politics in Twentieth Century Egypt Anthony Gorman, 2012-11-12 This book deals with the relationship between historical scholarship and politics in twentieth century Egypt It examines the changing roles of the academic historian the university system the state and non academic scholarship and the tension between them in contesting the modern history of Egypt In a detailed discussion of the literature the study analyzes the political nature of competing interpretations and uses the examples of Copts and resident foreigners to demonstrate the dissonant challenges to the national discourse that testify to its limitations deficiencies and silences Barbarians and Civilization in International Relations Mark B.

Salter, 2002-09-20 The terrorist attacks in New York and Washington have led to popular conceptions of Muslims as terrorists Some commentators have harked back to the Clash of Civilizations argument outlined by Samuel Huntington which argued that after the collapse of the Cold War culture would become the main axis of conflict for civilisational alliances Mark Salter takes issue with Huntington's theory and explains how the terms of his argument are part of an imperialist discourse that casts other civilisations as essentially barbarian Although many commentators have engaged with Huntington's claims few have pursued the political implications of his argument Barbarians and Civilisation offers a decisive exploration of the colonial rhetoric inherent in current political discourse Charting the usefulness of concepts of culture and identity for understanding world politics Salter brilliantly illustrates the benefits and the limitations of the civilised barbarian dichotomy in international relations Historical Dictionary of Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt, Jr.,2013-10-10 Egypt s was the first non Western country to undergo an industrial revolution It was a major commercial center during the 19th and early 20th centuries It was one of the first countries to have albeit briefly a constitutional government Its struggle for independence was among the earliest in the non Western world Its capital Cairo has served as a headquarters and a meeting place for nationalist leaders Its schools and universities attracted students from many other African and Asian countries For the Arab world its educational and legal institutions set the pattern that most other Arabic speaking countries have followed Its books magazines and newspapers circulate widely Its radio and television broadcasting became the model for other Arab states The leadership of Jamal Abd al Nasir and Anwar al Sadat profoundly influenced other Arab and Third World leaders And the demonstrations in Cairo s Tahrir Square became the iconic movement for the so called Arab Spring in the rest of the Middle East This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Egypt covers its history from its emergence as an independent actor during the reign of Ali Bey 1760 1772 up to and including the first two years of the Arab Spring February 2013 This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on of persons events institutions political groups economic and social conditions policies relationships with other countries ideas religions ideologies and commodities relevant to the modern history of Egypt This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Egypt Routledge

No God but God Geneive Abdo, 2002-10-24 Shrouded in mystery the Islamic presence in the Middle East evokes longstanding Western fears of terrorism and holy war Our media have consistently focused on these extremes of Islam overlooking a quiet yet pervasive religious movement that is now transforming the nation of Egypt Drawing on hundreds of interviews No God But God opens up previously inaccessible segments of Egyptian society from the universities and professional sectors to the streets to illustrate the deep penetration of Popular Islamic influence Abdo provides a firsthand account of this peaceful movement allowing its moderate leaders street preachers scholars doctors lawyers men and women of all social classes to speak for themselves Challenging Western stereotypes she finds that this growing number of Islamists do not seek the violent overthrow of the government or a return to a medieval age Instead they believe their religious values are compatible with the demands of the modern world They are working within and beyond the secular framework of the nation to gradually create a new society based on Islamic principles Abdo narrates fascinating accounts of their methods and successes Today for example university students meet in underground unions despite a state ban In addition sheikhs have recently used their new legislative power to censor books and movies deemed to violate religious values Both fascinating and unsettling Abdo's findings identify a grassroots model for transforming a secular nation state to an Islamic social order that will likely inspire other Muslim nations This model cannot be ignored for it will soon help organized Islamists to undermine secular control of Egypt and potentially jeopardize Western interests in the Arab world

from Below uses a Constructivist International Relations approach that emphasizes the centrality of normative power to analyze and compare the four globalizations from below These are 1 the counter hegemonic globalization represented by the movement of movements of alter globalization transnational social activists who try to put an end to the Neoliberal nature of the Western centered globalization from above 2 the non hegemonic globalization enacted by ant traders that are part of the transnational informal economy 3 the partially similar Chinese centered globalization whose entrepreneurial migrants are strongly influenced and instrumentalized by the Chinese state and 4 the first wave globalization from below that paralleled and outlived the 1870 1914 globalization from above This book identifies their common features and uses them to define the concept of globalization from below as a set of socio economic or socio political processes that involve large transnational flows of people goods and or ideas characterized at least in part by informality They are enacted by entrepreneurial or activist individuals who either take advantage of the normative power of the hegemon at the origin of an international order and an associated globalization from above or explicitly or implicitly transgress contest and try to redefine dominant economic legal political and socio cultural norms thus challenging the existing international order and globalization from above By constructing a unified theoretical framework this book attempts to open a new field of interdisciplinary research that should take globalizations from below out of their current scholarly marginality This is one of the first scholarly works to collectively present more than one globalization from below and will be of great interest to students scholars and researchers of International Relations International Political Economy Development Studies Economic History Anthropology Diaspora Studies and Chinese Studies
