Modern Egyptian Art 1910-2003:

Modern Egyptian Art, 1910-2003 Liliane Karnouk, 2005 From the early years of the twentieth century with the rejection of European political and cultural domination in Egypt modern artistic expression in Egypt was influenced by and often reflected the country's growing national consciousness In the years following the 1952 revolution wealthy patrons of the arts disappeared from Egypt's cosmopolitan art world and were replaced by the state which by the 1960s exercised full control over all cultural activities including the arts In the 1990s as elsewhere throughout the world Egyptian art was affected by general shifts in culture brought about by globalization The disruption of a sense of place and feelings of belonging were a response to the influx of the challenging and at times disquieting information available to whole cultures and communities through new media Examining the work of over 70 artists from 1910 until the present day Liliane Karnouk traces the parallel steps of modern Egyptian art and the social and political environment in which that art was and continues to be created Fully illustrated with over 280 color and black and white illustrations this comprehensive volume is both a feast for the eyes and a mine of information for artists and non specialists alike

Cairo's Street Stories Lesley Lababidi,2008-05-01 In 1872 Ismail Pasha the khedive of Egypt was the first to adopt the European custom of positioning heroic statues on public display as a symbolic message of the continuing authority of the ruling Muhammad Ali dynasty to which he belonged but it was not until the early twentieth century and the determination of sculptor Mahmoud Mukhtar that such public art gained general acceptance and today statues stand ride or sit in the streets squares and gardens of Cairo Each sculpture adds a piece to the jigsaw of history spanning personalities and events that shaped the city and wider Egypt from 1805 to 1970 and here Cairo based author Lesley Lababidi provides a unique perspective on Egyptian history through looking at more than thirty statues and monumental sculptures and the stories behind them Between statues she explores Cairo s growth and its multidimensional identity as manifested in the development and changing use of city space over the centuries and examines the relationship of Cairo s modern denizens with the landscapes districts palaces archaeological sites caf s bridges and gardens of their great and maddening city the Mother of the World Illustrated throughout with color photographs and archival pictures Cairo s Street Stories presents a unique and lively view of the history that fashioned the city s streets and open spaces and of the many and often unexpected uses to which its inventive inhabitants put them

Art and the Historical Film Gillian McIver,2022-11-17 Art and the Historical Film provides an important examination of fine art s impact on filmmaking grappling with the question of authenticity From Eugene Delacroix s interpretation of the 1830 French revolution to Uli Edel's version of the Baader Meinhof Gang artistic representations of historical subjects are appealing and pervasive. Movies often adapt imagery from art history including paintings of historical events. Films and art shape the past for us and continue to affect our interpretation of history. While historical films are often argued over for their adherence to the facts, their real problem is realism: how can the past be convincingly depicted? Realism in the historical film genre is often nourished and given credibility by its use of painterly references. This book examines how art historical images affect historical films by going beyond period detail and surface design to look at how profound ideas about history are communicated through pictures. Art and the Historical Film: Between Realism and the Sublime is based on case studies that explore the links between art and cinema including American independent Western Meek's Cutoff (Kelly Reichardt 2010), British heritage film Belle Amma Asante (2013) and Dutch national epic Admiral Roel Rein (2014). The chapters create immersive worlds that communicate distinct ideas about the past through cinematography, production design and direction as the films adapt, reference and transpose paintings by artists such as Rubens, Albert Bierstadt and Jacques-Louis David.
