Modern Far Eastern International Relations:

Far Eastern International Relations Hosea Ballou Morse, Harley Farnsworth MacNair, 1928 Modern Far Eastern International Relations Harley Farnsworth MacNair, Donald Frederick Lach, 1975 Modern Far Eastern International Relations Harley Farnsworth MacNair, Donald F. Lach, 1955 Journal of the Royal Institute of International Affairs, 1926 China and Europe Hongqi Li, Thomas H. C. Lee, 1991 Modern China's Foreign Policy Werner Levi, 1953-01-01 Modern China's Foreign Policy was first published in 1953 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions What are China's objectives in world affairs and what course will she pursue to achieve her goals These are the questions of vital concern to the Western democracies questions that can be approached intelligently only from a knowledge of how China's foreign policy has developed In this illuminating and carefully documented book Professor Levi analyzes China's attitudes and actions toward the rest of the world and clarifies many motivations behind her behavior past and present He traces the development of her foreign relations from the beginning of the modern era of Chinese contacts with Westerners a little more than hundred years ago The emphasis however is on the twentieth century and particularly on the years since the peace settlements of World War I The complex balance of relationships between China and the United States on the one hand and China and the Soviet Union on the other since the end of World War II is discussed in detail Communist doctrine notwithstanding its apparent rigidity is shown to be a conveniently adjustable tool capable of adaptation to the needs and strategies of present day China An integral part of the account is the attempt to single out and interpret the internal forces cultural social and economic that have influenced and shaped China's external policies Thus it is shown that the determinants of China's foreign policy have often been pressures and complexities within the country and that an understanding of the Chinese people and their traditions is essential to nations in their dealings with China East Asian International Relations in History Kyu-hyun Jo, 2024-08-28 This book provides a sweeping overview of East Asian international relations in history from the nineteenth century onwards with a focus on Korea and its relationship with East Asia and the USA In contrast with many books which concentrate exclusively on the twentieth century this book offers a long term perspective on modernity and modernization in East Asia It addresses the tributary system the Meiji Restoration Japanese imperialism in East Asia and the Cold War in East Asia It also incorporates the First and Second Indochina Wars from Vietnam's perspective and expands the geographical scope of East Asia beyond the traditional framework of Korea Japan and China The book begins with the tributary system as a starting point of East Asian modernity in contrast to the old view that the tributary system was not a modern system It rejects the idea that Japan was modernizing while Korea remained stagnant and shows why Japanese colonialism continues to be controversial and problematic Through the book's emphasis on Vietnam's perspective of the Indochina Wars it places much value on nationalism anti imperialism and decolonization as

forces of modernity and modernization Relevant to scholars and students in history international relations and East Asian studies more broadly the book brings with it a novel fresh and innovative approach to East Asian history International Relations of the Far East John LeRoy Christian,1941 Diplomacy and Enterprise Stephen Lyon Endicott,1975 The International Relations of the Contemporary Middle East Tareq Y. Ismael,Glenn E. Perry,2013-10-01 The Middle East a few decades ago was seen to be an autonomous subsystem of the global international political system More recently the region has been subordinated to the hegemony of a singular superpower the US bolstered by an alliance with Israel and a network of Arab client states The subordination of the contemporary Middle East has resulted in large part from the disappearance of countervailing forces for example global bipolarity that for a while allowed the Arab world in particular to exercise a modicum of flexibility in shaping its international relations The aspirations of the indigenous population of the Middle East have been stifled by the dynamics of the unequal global power relationships and domestic politics of the countries of the region are regularly subordinated to the prerogatives of international markets and the strategic competition of the great powers Employing the concept of imperialism defined as a pattern of alliances between a center rulers in the Center developed country and a center client regime in the Periphery underdeveloped country as an overall framework to analyse the subordination of the region this book is essential reading for students and scholars of the Middle East International Relations and Politics in general The Far East ,1949 External Research. ER List United States. Department of State. External Research Division,1952 External Research United States. Department of State.
