THE STUDY OF MODERN PAINTING MARGARET STEELE ANDERSON,1914 Art and the German Bourgeoisie

Carolyn Helen Kay,2002-01-01 In this new study of art in fin de siècle Hamburg Carolyn Kay examines the career of the city's art gallery director Alfred Lichtwark one of Imperial Germany's most influential museum directors and a renowned cultural critic. A champion of modern art, Lichtwark stirred controversy among the city's bourgeoisie by commissioning contemporary German paintings for the Kunsthalle by secession artists and supporting the formation of an independent art movement in Hamburg influenced by French impressionism. Drawing on an extensive amount of archival research and combining both historical and art historical approaches, Kay examines Lichtwark's cultural politics, their effect on the Hamburg bourgeoisie, and the subsequent changes to the cultural scene in Hamburg. Kay focuses her study on two modern art scandals in Hamburg and shows that Lichtwark faced strong public resistance in the 1890s, winning significant support from the city's bourgeoisie only after 1900. Lichtwark's struggle to gain acceptance for impressionism highlights conflicts within the city's middle class as to what constituted acceptable styles and subjects of German art, with opposition groups demanding a traditional and pure German culture. The author also considers who within the Hamburg bourgeoisie supported Lichtwark and why. Kay's local study of the debate over cultural modernism in Imperial Germany makes a significant contribution both to the study of modernism and to the history of German culture.

Modern Art at the Berlin Wall Claudia Mesch,2009-03-30 At the height of the Cold War, art produced in divided Germany contested the cultural demarcation of East and West. Here Claudia Mesch shows how a wide group of artists struggled to take visual art beyond the crude separations of the Iron Curtain and to transcend the first global cultural divide of the twentieth century. Artists in Berlin produced artworks including painting, performance, and film that engaged critically with imposed national and global identities and with issues of memory and trauma. Around the Berlin Wall presents a new picture of the Cold War border between East and West as a dynamic and international cultural space and is essential for all those interested in art history, modernism, the Cold War, and the cultural history of the twentieth century.
