Kyoto School's interpretation of nothingness D T Suzuki's analysis of the function of no mind and the writings of Kuki Shuzo on Buddhist detachment Portrait of the artist fiction by such writers as Henry James James Joyce Mori Ogai and Natsume Soseki demonstrates how the main theme of detachment is expressed in literary traditions The role of sympathy or pragmatism in relation to disinterest is examined suggesting conflicts within or challenges to the notion of detachment Researchers and students in Eastern and Western areas of study including philosophers and religionists as well as literary and cultural critics will deem this work an invaluable contribution to cross cultural philosophy and literary studies

Japanese and Western Literature Armando Martins Janeira, 2016-08-09 Japanese and Western Literature delves deeply into Japanese culture to discover the concepts that similarize and differentiate Japanese and Western literary creations Paralleling Japanese literary creations and fundamental thought with those of the West the author draws many illuminating comparisons for example between the novels of Murasaki Shikibu and Marcel Proust between the Portuguese poet Torga and the haiku master Issa and between the picaresque novel in Japan and in the West Contrastive studies are also made into such concepts as time nature love and tragedy This broad yet incisive survey of Japanese literary genres and themes is more than a comparative study of literature however it is an attempt to grasp the core of Japanese culture by setting it against world culture From this born a complex of new ideas and problems and author is able to probe the extent of Western influence on Japanese fiction poetry and essays in the past hundred years The Fantastic in Modern Japanese Literature Susan Napier, 2005-07-22 An exploration of the dark side to Japanese literature and Japanese society A wide range of fantasists form the basis for a ground breaking analysis of the fantastic Practices of the Sentimental Imagination Jonathan Zwicker, 2020-03-23 The history of the book in nineteenth century Japan follows an uneven course that resists the simple chronology often used to mark the divide between premodern and modern literary history By examining the obscured histories of publication circulation and reception of widely consumed literary works from late Edo to the early Meiji period Jonathan Zwicker traces a genealogy of the literary field across a long nineteenth century one that stresses continuities between the generic conventions of early modern fiction and the modern novel In the literature of sentiment Zwicker locates a tear streaked lens through which to view literary practices and readerly expectations that evolved across the century Practices of the Sentimental Imagination emphasizes both qualitative and quantitative aspects of literary production and consumption balancing close readings of canonical and noncanonical texts sophisticated applications of critical theory and careful archival research into the holdings of nineteenth century lending libraries and private collections By exploring the relationships between and among Japanese literary works and texts from late imperial China Europe and America Zwicker also situates the Japanese novel within a larger literary history of the novel across the global nineteenth century Queer Subjects in Modern Japanese Literature Stephen D.
