Modern Mexican Painters MacKinley Helm, 1968      Modern Mexican Art Laurence Eli Schmeckebier, 1939 Full scale study of the Mexican muralists      María Izquierdo and Frida Kahlo Nancy Deffebach, 2015-08-15 Mar a Izquierdo 1902 1955 and Frida Kahlo 1907 1954 were the first two Mexican women artists to achieve international recognition During the height of the Mexican muralist movement they established successful careers as easel painters and created work that has become an integral part of Mexican modernism Although the iconic Kahlo is now more famous the two artists had comparable reputations during their lives Both were regularly included in major exhibitions of Mexican art and they were invariably the only women chosen for the most important professional activities and honors In a deeply informed study that prioritizes critical analysis over biographical interpretation Nancy Deffebach places Kahlo's and Izquierdo's oeuvres in their cultural context examining the ways in which the artists participated in the national and artistic discourses of postrevolutionary Mexico Through iconographic analysis of paintings and themes within each artist's oeuvre Deffebach discusses how the artists engaged intellectually with the issues and ideas of their era especially Mexican national identity and the role of women in society In a time when Mexican artistic and national discourses associated the nation with masculinity Izquierdo and Kahlo created images of women that deconstructed gender roles critiqued the status quo and presented more empowering alternatives for women Deffebach demonstrates that paradoxically Kahlo and Izquierdo became the most successful Mexican women artists of the modernist period while most directly challenging the prevailing ideas about gender and what constitutes important art      Mexican Painters MacKinley Helm, 2012-03-13 Definitive introduction to art and artists of Mexico during great artistic movements of the 20s and 30s Discussion of Rivera Orozco Siqueiros Galvan Cant Meza many others History tradition social movements etc 95 illustrations      A Mexican Painter Views Modern Mexican Painting Jesús Guerrero Galván, University of New Mexico.
