Modern Movements in European Philosophy Richard Kearney, 1996 Modern Movements in European Philosophy Richard Kearney, 1986 Modern Movements in European Philosophy Richard Kearney, 1995-01-15 In this now classic textbook Richard Kearney surveys the work of nineteen of this century's most influential European thinkers The second edition has a new chapter devoted to Julia Kristeva whose work in the fields of semiotics and psychoanalytic theory has made a significant contribution to recent continental thought Urban Artscapes Manila Castoro, Carolina Vasilikou, 2018-07-10 In recent years artists architects activists and curators as well as corporations and local governments have addressed the urban space They challenge its use and destination and dispute current notions of space legality trade and artistry Emerging art practices challenge old ideas about where art belongs what forms it can take and what political discourses it fosters Selected from papers presented at the 2013 Artscapes conference in Canterbury this collection of new essays explores the dynamic relationship between art and the city Contributors discuss the everyday artistic use of public space around the world from sculpture to graffiti to street photography Handbook of Qualitative Research Methods for Information Systems Robert M. Davison, 2023-07-01 This vital new Handbook clarifies how qualitative research can be undertaken in the discipline of Information Systems IS observing how IS can be taught and its recent developments Through succinctly bringing together influential research it extensively surveys contemporary trends in qualitative IS studies Concentrated Creation Rhona Lewis, 2023-01-26 This book widens the understanding of salvation from a narrow focus on the crucifixion of Jesus Christ to one which is inseparable from creation theology In this analysis of the Thomist and Irenaean sources of Edward Schillebeeckx's creation faith God's absolute saving presence to humanity is found to be intrinsic to his creative action This becomes most explicit in God's humanity in the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ Lewis argues that Jesus is both God's invitation to humanity and is himself the perfect human response to God Because of this Jesus followers are called to be engaged in God's saving action by working to remove suffering from people and to build a better world in which all may flourish Schillebeeckx's theology is sometimes thought to divide into two disconnected halves a pre and post Vatican II version The way in which Schillebeeckx's Christological soteriology has developed over his theological career before and after Vatican II is here examined using the Annales model of continuity and change This book finds that Schillebeeckx both breaks with the language of Chalcedon while remaining adamantly faithful to the truth which it expresses The final chapters discover how Schillebeeckx's ideas and methods are crucially relevant in an analysis of contemporary social suffering in Ciudad Juárez by Nancy Pineda Madrid and in the project of the Catholic Dialogue School in Flanders by Lieven Boeve

Contemporary Continental Philosophy Stuart Sim, 2017-08-03 This title was first published in 2000 Contemporary continental philosophy is a widely used but in many ways a highly problematic term and its exact frame of reference is not always clear In its more recent French manifestations in particular it continues to arouse considerable controversy and create bitter divisions with particularly hostile reactions to the work of Derrida and others Much work in the recent continental tradition can be fitted into a longer running philosophical tradition of scepticism and scepticism has always had the power to provoke and unsettle the philosophical establishment Presenting an overview of the philosophical landscape of the continental tradition since the 1940s this book traces the establishment of the new super scepticism as an intellectual paradigm with the power to threaten and disorientate existing world views and more traditional styles of philosophical discourse marking the continental divide Exploring how contemporary continental philosophy from existentialism to postmodernism can be characterised as this new more resistant form of scepticism Sim identifies a clutch of key themes including difference the subject antifoundationalism dialectics which have been obsessively worked over by key thinkers in the Existentialist Postmodernist period and demonstrates how these have contributed to the development of a super sceptical outlook Presenting a new theme led approach to provide an entry into current debates in continental philosophy Stuart Sim reintegrates the work of Sartre into the more recent continental tradition and suggests that something qualitatively different is now occurring in French philosophy

Images on the Page Sanda Miller,2021-08-26 Fashion imagery has existed for hundreds of years and yet the methods used by scholars to understand it have remained mostly historical and descriptive The belief informing these approaches may be that fashion imagery is designed for one purpose to depict a garment and how to wear it In this interdisciplinary book Sanda Miller suggests a radical alternative to these well practiced approaches proposing that fashion imagery has stories to tell and meanings to uncover The methodology she has developed is an iconography of fashion imagery based on the same theory which has been key to the History of Art for centuries Applying Panofsky's theory of iconography to illustrations from books magazines and fashion plates as well as fashion photography and even live fashion events Miller uncovers three levels of meaning descriptive secondary or conventional and tertiary or symbolic In doing so she answers questions such as who is the model what did people wear and why and how did people live She proves that fashion imagery far from being purely descriptive is ripe with meaning and can be used to shed light on society class culture and the history of dress What Is Cultural Translation? Sarah Maitland,2017-02-09 What Is Cultural Translation In this book Sarah Maitland uncovers processes of negotiation and adaptation closely associated with the translation of languages behind the cultural phenomena of everyday life For globalized societies confronted increasingly with the presence of difference in all its forms translation has become both a metaphor for thoughtful encounter and a touchstone act for what we see do and say and who we are Drawing on examples from across cultural domains theatre film TV and literature this work illuminates the elusive concept of cultural translation Focusing on the built environment current affairs international relations and online media this book arrives at a view of translation in its broadest sense It is a means for decoding how we shape the cultural realm and serves as a vehicle for new ways of seeing and being that question the received ideas that structure the communities in which we live Written in a clear and engaging style this is the first book length study of cultural translation It builds a powerful case for expanding the remit of translation to cover the experience of living and working in a globalized multicultural world and is of interest to all involved in the academic study of representation and contestation in contemporary cultural practice
