Modern Peoplehood

William T. Cavanaugh, Jeffrey W.
Bailey, Craig Hovey

Modern Peoplehood:

Modern Peoplehood John Lie, 2011-04 A most impressive achievement by an extraordinarily intelligent courageous and that goes without saying well read mind The scope of this work is enormous it provides no less than a comprehensive historically grounded theory of modern peoplehood which is Lie's felicitous umbrella term for everything that goes under the names race ethnicity and nationality Christian Joppke American Journal of Sociology Lie's objective is to treat a series of large topics that he sees as related but that are usually treated separately the social construction of identities the origins and nature of modern nationalism the explanation of genocide and racism These multiple themes are for him aspects of something he calls modern peoplehood His mode of demonstration is to review all the alternative explanations for each phenomenon and to show why each successively is inadequate His own theses are controversial but he makes a strong case for them This book should renew debate Immanuel Wallerstein Yale University and author of The Decline of American Power The U S in a Chaotic World

Modern Peoplehood John LIE, John Lie, 2009-06-30 In modern states John Lie argues ideas of race ethnicity and nationality can be subsumed under the rubric of peoplehood He argues indeed that the modern state has created the idea of peoplehood That is the seemingly primitive atavistic feelings of belonging associated with ethnic racial and national identity are largely formed by the state Not only is the state responsible for the development and nurturing of these feelings it is also responsible for racial and ethnic conflict even genocide When citizens think of themselves in terms of their peoplehood identity they will naturally locate the cause of all troubles from neighborhood squabbles to wars in racial ethnic or national attitudes and conflicts Far from being transhistorical and transcultural phenomena race ethnicity and nation Lie argues are modern notions modernity here associated with the rise of the modern state the industrial economy and Enlightenment ideas

Jewish Peoplehood Noam Pianko, 2015-07-13 Winner of the 2017 American Jewish Historical Society's Saul Viener Book Prize Although fewer American Jews today describe themselves as religious they overwhelmingly report a strong sense of belonging to the Jewish people Indeed Jewish peoplehood has eclipsed religion as well as ethnicity and nationality as the essence of what binds Jews around the globe to one another In Jewish Peoplehood Noam Pianko highlights the current significance and future relevance of peoplehood by tracing the rise transformation and return of this novel term The book tells the surprising story of peoplehood Though it evokes a sense of timelessness the term actually emerged in the United States in the 1930s where it was introduced by American Jewish leaders most notably Rabbi Stephen Wise and Rabbi Mordecai Kaplan with close ties to the Zionist movement It engendered a sense of unity that transcended religious differences cultural practices geographic distance economic disparity and political divides fostering solidarity with other Jews facing common existential threats including the Holocaust and establishing a closer connection to the Jewish homeland But today Pianko points out as globalization erodes the dominance of nationalism in shaping collective identity Jewish peoplehood risks becoming an outdated paradigm He explains why popular models of peoplehood fail to address emerging conceptions of ethnicity nationalism and race and he concludes with a much needed roadmap for a radical reconfiguration of Jewish collectivity in an increasingly global era Innovative and provocative Jewish Peoplehood provides fascinating insight into a term that assumes an increasingly important position at the heart of American Jewish and Israeli life For additional information go to <http://www.noampiano.net> Political Peoplehood Rogers M. Smith, 2015-09-11 For more than three decades Rogers M Smith has been one of the leading scholars of the role of ideas in American politics policies and history Over time he has developed the concept of political peoples a category that is much broader and more fluid than legal citizenship enabling Smith to offer rich new analyses of political communities governing institutions public policies and moral debates This book gathers Smith's most important writings on peoplehood to build a coherent theoretical and historical account of what peoplehood has meant in American political life informed by frequent comparisons to other political societies From the revolutionary era adoption of individual rights rhetoric to today's battles over the place of immigrants in a rapidly diversifying American society Smith shows how modern America's growing embrace of overlapping identities is in tension with the providentialism and exceptionalism that continue to make up so much of what many believe it means to be an American A major work that brings a lifetime of thought to bear on questions that are as urgent now as they have ever been Political Peoplehood will be essential reading for social scientists political philosophers policy analysts and historians alike

Encyclopedia of Race, Ethnicity, and Society Richard T. Schaefer, 2008-03-20 This encyclopedia offers a comprehensive look at the roles race and ethnicity play in society and in our daily lives Over 100 racial and ethnic groups are described with additional thematic essays offering insight into broad topics that cut across group boundaries and which impact on society

Foodscapes, Foodfields, and Identities in the Yucatán Steffan Igor Ayora-Diaz, 2012-01-01 The state of Yucatán has its own distinct culinary tradition and local people are constantly thinking and talking about food They use it as a vehicle for social relations but also to distinguish themselves from Mexicans This book examines the politics surrounding regional cuisine as the author argues that Yucatecan gastronomy has been created and promoted in an effort to affirm the identity of a regional people and to oppose the hegemonic force of central Mexican cultural icons and forms In particular Yucatecan gastronomy counters the homogenizing drive of a national cuisine based on dominant central Mexican appetencies and defies the image of Mexican national cuisine as rooted in indigenous traditions Drawing on post structural and postcolonial theory the author proposes that Yucatecan gastronomy having successfully gained a reputation as distinct and distant from Mexican cuisine is a bifurcation from regional culinary practices However the author warns this leads to a double paradoxical situation that divides the nation while a national cuisine attempts to silence regional cultural diversity the fissures in the project of a homogeneous regional identity are revealed We the People Tommy Givens, 2014 Exposit John Howard Yoder's account of peoplehood and develops an appreciative revision of it that considers carefully and exegetically the politics of Jesus in relation to the people of Israel Race J. Kameron Carter, 2008-08-28 J Kameron Carter argues that black theology

s intellectual impoverishment in the Church and the academy is the result of its theologically shaky presuppositions which are based largely on liberal Protestant convictions and he critiques the work of such noted scholars as Albert Raboteau Charles Long and James Cone Waiting for the People Nazmul Sultan,2024-01-09 Nazmul Sultan explores Indian contributions to democratic theory as anticolonial thinkers developed principles of peoplehood and self rule Indians contested British claims that the backwardness of the Indian people offered a democratic justification for imperial domination Cities of God and Nationalism Khaldoun Samman,2015-12-03 A tour de force in different fields of knowledge It takes world city and world history literatures to a higher level of depth and understanding It is difficult to imagine a more pioneering in depth study of world cities Ramon Grosfoguel Professor Department of Ethnic Studies University of California Berkeley A remarkable and original discussion of three great sacred cities across time and their transformation by nationalism in the modern world Immanuel Wallerstein Yale University Far from spawning an age of tolerance modernity has created the social basis of division and exclusion This book elaborates this provocative claim as it explores the rich but divided histories of three cities located at the crossroads of Islam Christianity and Judaism Many observers presume that violence is built into these sacred cities because their citizens cling to religious or cultural ideals of some archaic age only when this history is overcome can citizens enter a new age of brotherhood Samman persuades us to refocus our attention on modernity which has instilled troubling dilemmas from the outside He shows how these sacred places long ago entered the modern world where global political and economic forces exacerbate nationalism and regional divisions If we are to resolve deep conflicts we must re imagine the institutional basis on which modernity rather than religion is built An Eerdmans Reader in Contemporary Political Theolog William T. Cavanaugh,Jeffrey W.

Bailey,Craig Hovey,2011-11-18 An Eerdmans Reader in Contemporary Political Theology gathers some of the most significant and influential writings in political theology from the twentieth and twenty first centuries Given that the locus of Christianity is undeniably shifting to the global South this volume uniquely integrates key voices from Africa Asia and Latin America with central texts from Europe and North America on such major subjects as church and state gender and race and Christendom and postcolonialism Carefully selected thematically arranged and expertly introduced these forty nine essential readings constitute an ideal primary source introduction to contemporary political theology a profoundly relevant resource for globally engaged citizens students and scholars CONTRIBUTORS Nicholas Adams Rafael Avila Karl Barth Richard Bauckham Dietrich Bonhoeffer Walter Brueggemann Ernesto Cardenal J Kameron Carter James H Cone Dorothy Day Musa W Dube Jean Bethke Elshtain Eric Gregory Gustavo Gutierrez Stanley Hauerwas George Hunsinger Ada Mara Isasi Diaz Emmanuel M Katongole Rafiq Khoury Kosuke Koyama Brian McDonald Johann Baptist Metz Virgil Michel Nstor O Miguez John Milbank John Courtney Murray Ched Myers H Richard Niebuhr Reinhold Niebuhr Arvind P Nirmal Oliver O Donovan Catherine Pickstock Kwok Pui lan A Maria Arul Raja Walter Rauschenbusch Joerg Rieger Christopher Rowland Rosemary Radford Ruether
