Midcentury Modern Art in Texas Katie Robinson Edwards, 2014-07-01 Before Abstract Expressionism of New York City was canonized as American postwar modernism the United States was filled with localized manifestations of modern art One such place where considerable modernist activity occurred was Texas where artists absorbed and interpreted the latest most radical formal lessons from Mexico the East Coast and Europe while still responding to the state's dramatic history and geography This barely known chapter in the story of American art is the focus of Midcentury Modern Art in Texas Presenting new research and artwork that has never before been published Katie Robinson Edwards examines the contributions of many modernist painters and sculptors in Texas with an emphasis on the era's most abstract and compelling artists Edwards looks first at the Dallas Nine and the 1936 Texas Centennial which offered local artists a chance to take stock of who they were and where they stood within the national artistic setting She then traces the modernist impulse through various manifestations including the foundations of early Texas modernism in Houston early practitioners of abstraction and non objectivity the Fort Worth Circle artists at the University of Texas at Austin Houston artists in the 1950s sculpture in and around an influential Fort Worth studio and to see how some Texas artists fared on a national scale the Museum of Modern Art's Americans exhibitions The first full length treatment of abstract art in Texas during this vital and canon defining period Midcentury Modern Art in Texas gives these artists their due place in American art while also valuing the quality of Texan-ness that subtly undergirds much of their production

Religion in Museums Gretchen Buggeln, Crispin Paine, S. Brent Plate, 2017-02-23 Bringing together scholars and practitioners from North America Europe Russia and Australia this pioneering volume provides a global survey of how museums address religion and charts a course for future research and interpretation Contributors from a variety of disciplines and institutions explore the work of museums from many perspectives including cultural studies religious studies and visual and material culture Most museums throughout the world whether art archaeology anthropology or history museums include religious objects and an increasing number are beginning to address religion as a major category of human identity With rising museum attendance and the increasingly complex role of religion in social and geopolitical realities this work of stewardship and interpretation is urgent and important Religion in Museums is divided into six sections museum buildings reception objects collecting and research interpretation of objects and exhibitions and the representation of religion in different types of museums Topics covered include repatriation conservation architectural design exhibition heritage missionary collections curation collections and display and the visitor's experience Case studies provide comprehensive coverage and range from museums devoted specifically to the diversity of religious traditions such as the State Museum of the History of Religion in St Petersburg to exhibitions centered on religion at secular museums such as Hajj Journey to the Heart of Islam at the British Museum      Makers of Modern Architecture, Volume III Martin

Filler, 2018-09-25 An invaluable guide to lives and work of Frank Gehry Antoni Gaudí Frank Lloyd Wright Louis Kahn Maya Lin and other important figures of 20th and 21st century architecture Martin Filler's contribution to both architecture criticism and general readers' understanding is invaluable according to Publishers Weekly This latest installment in his acclaimed Makers of Modern Architecture series again demonstrates his unparalleled skill in explaining the revolutionary changes that have reshaped the built environment over the past century and a half These studies of more than two dozen master builders women and men celebrated and obscure idealists and opportunists range from the environmental pioneer Frederick Law Olmsted and the mystical eccentric Antoni Gaudí to the present day visionaries Frank Gehry and Maya Lin Filler's broad knowledge embraces everything from the glittering Viennese luxury of Josef Hoffmann to the heavy duty construction of the New Brutalists from the low cost postwar suburbs of the Levitt Brothers to today's super tall condo towers on Manhattan's Billionaire's Row Sometimes the interplay of social and political forces leads to dark results as with Hitler's favorite architect Albert Speer and interior designer Gerdy Troost More often though heroic figures including Frank Lloyd Wright Louis Kahn and Lina Bo Bardi offer uplifting inspiration for the future of the one art form we all live with and in every day      Danger in the Path of Chic Lucy Moyse Ferreira, 2021-12-02 During the interwar years a proliferation of violence encroached upon the glossy idealistic world of fashion from the curiously common appearance of dismembered heads in fashion illustration to seemingly torturous techniques and devices advertised by beauty imagery even extending to garments designed to look assaulted and destroyed Danger in the Path of Chic brings this disturbing imagery to light for the first time proposing new directions for historians of fashion violence and culture in the interwar years Concentrating on London Paris and New York as fashion centres and political allies the volume explores why horror manifested itself in this way at this time and in a sphere that is usually perceived as being built on fantasy and escape In doing so Danger in the Path of Chic situates fashion within the very real social psychological economic and political traumas of the period
