Lee,1990-11-01 The history of Korea in the twentieth century has been a grim succession of oppressions humiliations and betrayals Yet through it all modern Korean writers have been able not only to find their own distinctive voices but to forge a national literature that speaks eloquently of the survival of the human spirit in times of crisis This anthology includes the finest translations available of representative works in all the major genres including poetry fiction essays and drama Readers will gain a clear sense of the development of twentieth century Korean literature and a vivid impression of the resilience strength and tenacity of modern Korean writers Routledge Handbook of Modern Korean History Michael Seth,2016-01-29 Beginning in the mid nineteenth century when Korea became entangled in the world of modern imperialism and the old social economic and political order began to change this handbook brings together cutting edge scholarship on major themes in Korean History Contributions by experts in the field cover the Late Choson and Colonial periods Korea s partition and the diverging paths of North and South Korea Topics covered include The division of Korea Religion Competing imperialisms Economic change War and rebellions Nationalism Gender North Korea Under Kim Jong Il Global Korea The Handbook provides a stimulating introduction to the most important themes within the subject area and is an invaluable reference work for any student and researcher of Korean History The History of Modern Korean Fiction (1890-1945) Young Min Kim,2020-11-09 This book explores the history of modern Korean literature from a sociocultural perspective Rather than focusing solely on specific authors and their works Young Min Kim argues that the development of modern media shifting conceptualizations of the author and a growing mass readership fundamentally shaped the types of narratives that appeared at the turn of the twentieth century In particular Kim follows the trajectory of the sin sosol new fiction as it meshed with the new print and media culture to give rise to innovative and hybrid genres and literary styles In doing so he compellingly illuminates the relationship between literary systems and forms and underscores the necessity of re locating literary texts in their sociohistorical contexts Modern Korean Literature Chung Chong-Wha,2012-10-12 The sixth book in Kegan Paul International s Korean Culture Series this volume contains thirty stories that have been selected on the basis of historical interest and literary worth each representing a monumental moment in the history of Korean Literature The ten stories in the first part share the common theme of the Korean experience of the confrontation between man and woman in some stories the relationship is portrayed as innocent and pure in others the relationship becomes more sophisticated and complex The ten stories in the second part all deal with old Korean or the old Korean way of life the Korea of bygone days which is gradually disappearing in the face of industrialization and internationalization The third group of stories reveals modern Korea in the process of change during the period of the Japanese Occupation the liberation from the Occupation and the Korean War All thirty stories may serve as social documents From the time of ideological chaos following the independence of Korea in 1945 up to the fall of the USSR in the 1980s modern Korean literature has been powerfully swayed by Marxist ideology one way or another Literature has an important role to play in its portrayal of the relations between society and individual people and it has a particularly vital social function in developing or undeveloped countries However the stories in this anthology are not just historical documents They represent the peak of literary achievements by great and gifted writers in the first half of this century It is remarkable to find so many talented writers producing so many powerful works of art in a short span of just over 50 years between 1908 and 1965 This anthology is an invitation to readers to grasp how much Korea has attained in the process of its modernization The authors whose works appear in this volume are Yi Kwang su Kim Dong in Hyun Chin kon Yi Hyo suk Kim Yu jong Yi Sang Kim Dong ni O Yung su Hwang Sun won Sohn So hi Hahn Mu suk Sunwu Hwi Kang Shin jae Oh Sang won Suh Ki won Han Mal suk Choi In hun Kim sung ok Yi Mun ku
