Modern European Culture Consciousness:

Modern European Culture and Consciousness, 1870-1980 Paul Monaco, 1983-01-01 On both personal and public levels the past century has brought Western Europeans some of the most devastating episodes of human history Paul Monaco identifies the major modes of consciousness that Europeans have developed as ways of interpreting their experiences Europe appears to many Americans as an aging dowager with a grand past but little future Yet beyond the stereotype lies the complex reality The U S and the Soviet Union both failed to carry on the ideological and cultural traditions of the Western world to which they fell heir at the end of World War II By contrast Western Europe quickly recovered its cultural equilibrium Modern European Culture and Consciousness shows how Europe's amazing recovery took place Monaco argues that the sensibility now being forged in Europe will provide the guide to the twenty first century He illustrates this thesis by analysis of novels plays and especially motion pictures which have gradually supplanted novels

Emden, 2010-10-01 Nietzsche and the philosophy of language have been a well trafficked crossroads for a generation but almost always as a checkpoint for post modernism and its critics This work takes a historical approach to Nietzsche s work on language connecting it to his predecessors and contemporaries rather than his successors Though Nietzsche invited identification with Zarathustra the solitary wanderer ahead of his time for most of his career he directly engaged the intellectual currents and scientific debates of his time Emden situates Nietzsche s writings on language and rhetoric within their wider historical context He demonstrates that Nietzsche is not as radical in his thinking as has been often supposed and that a number of problems with Nietzsche disappear when Nietzsche s works are compared to works on the same subjects by writers of the 18th and 19th centuries Further the relevance of rhetoric and the history of rhetoric to philosophy and the history of philosophy is reasserted in consonance with Nietzsche s own statements and practices Important in this regard are the role of fictions descriptions and metaphor      Sino-Theology and the Philosophy of History Liu Xiaofeng, 2015-03-20 Since his controversial Delivering and Dallying published in 1988 Liu Xiaofeng has been considered the most influential among contemporary Chinese intellectuals interested in Christianity Now for the first time this collection of Liu s essays translated and commented by Prof Leopold Leeb enables the non Chinese reader to get a comprehensive understanding of the ideas of this inspiring and erudite scholar Liu Xiaofeng s Sino Theology and the Philosophy of History together with the other essays in this collection provide a panoramic view of the situation of Christian studies in the Chinese context today In his introduction Leopold Leeb also presents several other scholars who have been of crucial importance in the dialogue between Chinese culture and Christianity in the last three decades      The Routledge Handbook of Philosophy and Europe Darian Meacham, Nicolas de Warren, 2021-03-31 Understood historically culturally politically geographically or philosophically the idea of Europe and notion of European identity conjure up as much controversy as consensus The mapping of the relation between ideas of Europe and their philosophical articulation and contestation has never benefitted from clear boundaries and if it is to retain its relevance to the challenges now facing the world it must become an evolving conceptual landscape of critical reflection The Routledge Handbook of Philosophy and Europe provides an outstanding reference work for the exploration of Europe in its manifold conceptions narratives institutions and values Comprising twenty seven chapters by a group of international contributors the Handbook is divided into three parts Europe of the philosophers Concepts and controversies Debates and horizons Essential reading for students and researchers in philosophy politics and

Cultural Politics and Political Culture in Postmodern Europe ,1997-01-01 The present volume assembles essays from a broad cultural and professional spectrum around the question of European cultural identity The heterogeneity of the contributors their differing points of departure and methods attests to a tension in intellectual communities which today is more intense than ever Europe s identity crisis is not merely an empirical matter It reflects a far deeper and far older discursive crisis The mandate of Europe s traditional intellectual institutions to preserve and police their own cultural heritage has proved incapable of evolving in a manner sufficient to account for the mutation in its object European culture It is not merely that Europe s identity like any identity in the flux of history has changed Rather the notion of identity the very basis of any questions of who we are where we are going and the appropriate political forms and social institutions for further existence all rely on a logic of identity which has at best become extremely problematic It is this problematization which provides the common thread unifying the following essays Each contributor in his her own way and with respect to his her own research object confronts the adequacy of the concept of cultural identity The hidden presuppositions of this concept are indeed remarkable and the logic of cultural identity prescribes that they remain undisclosed      Worlds Apart? A Postcolonial Reading of post-1945 East-Central European Culture Cristina Sandru, 2013-01-16 This study explores the relation of the Eastern European problematic to postcolonial critical practice interrogating the extent to which postcolonialism can help illuminate instances of imperial domination in non Third World contexts It argues that colonisation is to be understood principally as a condition of ideological domination that has engendered similar forms of literary and cultural resistance consequently it offers a comparative framework which enables a reading in differential contexts of texts that ostensibly have little in common but which on close examination reveal a shared imaginative space rhetoric and narrative agency The book consists of two interrelated parts Part one is a critical discussion of the ideologies cultural imaginaries and representational practices articulated in a diverse range of representative postcolonial and post 1945 East Central European texts these are shown to share despite dissimilar conditions of production uncannily related narrative modes and thematic emphases Part two is a comparative literature case study which discusses two authors whose work is both highly representative of the cultural formations discussed in the first part Milan Kundera and Salman Rushdie and at the same time highly controversial The chapters dedicated to Kundera's and Rushdie's work examine the cultural geography of their novels particularly in the writers use of memory and story telling to reconfigure history and personal identity in conditions of literal and metaphorical displacement While their novels thrive on ironic subversion and ambiguity they simultaneously gesture towards a redemptive space of the imagination transcending the constraints of both locality and history      Introduction to Computational Cultural Psychology Yair Neuman, 2014-02-06 Draws on state of the art computer technology to introduce a novel approach for studying the interface of culture and psychology      Regionalism and Modern Europe Xosé M. Núñez Seixas, Eric Storm, 2018-12-13 Providing a valuable overview of regionalism throughout the entire continent Regionalism in Modern Europe combines both geographical and thematic approaches to examine the origins and development of regional movements and identities in Europe from 1890 to the present A wide range of internationally renowned scholars from the USA the UK and mainland Europe are brought together here in one volume to examine the historical roots of the current regional movements and to explain why some of them Scotland Catalonia and Flanders among others evolve into nationalist movements and even strive for independence while others Brittany Bavaria do not They look at how regional identities through regional folklore language crafts dishes beverages and tourist attractions were constructed during the 20th century and explore the relationship between national and subnational identities as well as regional and local identities The book also includes 7 images 7 maps and useful end of chapter further reading lists This is a crucial text for anyone keen to know more about the history of the topical and at times controversial subject of regionalism in modern Europe      Anthropology of Cultural Transformation I Xudong Zhao, 2024-02-26 As the first of a two volume set on the anthropology of cultural transformation this book discusses the manifestations of cultural transformation in the modern world and explores the re establishment of cultural consciousness Anthropology in the 21st century is confronted with a worldview of cultural transformation based on communication collision and interaction among cultures around the globe This two volume set aims to reorient the role and function of anthropology by focusing on the reconstruction of knowledge and cultural consciousness in order to better imagine and realize the synergetic interaction between different cultures and civilizations In this first volume the author provides an overview of the key issues and stances of anthropology in the face of cultural transformation The book examines the trend of social and cultural transformation in the modern world and in China It analyzes how the technology of separation brought about by modernity shapes family function and education As a promising solution to this predicament the book elucidates the importance of cultural consciousness in resisting disasters and social syndromes The title will appeal to anthropologists students and general readers interested in anthropology sociology and ethnography
