Liberation Philosophy: From the Buddha to Omar Khayyam Mostafa Vaziri, 2019-09-30 The critical narrative of this interdisciplinary book offers a first time look at the interrelationship between biology mythology and philosophy in human development Its daring premise follows the trajectory of human thought starting with the biological roots of fear and the original need for religion truth seeking and myth making The narrative then innovatively links a number of maverick philosophical teachings over the centuries from pre Buddhist times to the Buddha from Epicurus and Pyrrho to Lucretius and eventually to the seminal poetry of Omar Khayyam These emergent philosophies exemplified liberation from the grasp of mythical and religious thinking and instead espoused an empirical and joyful mind The narrative concludes with a look at the emancipating philosophical movement that resulted in the European Enlightenment and it suggests that the philosophical teachings explored in the book may offer the potential for a second broader Enlightenment

The Making of the Modern Canon Jan Gorak, 2014-01-13 This book is part of a series which moves the canon debate of the 1980s forward into a new multidisciplinary and cross cultural phase by investigating problems of canon formation across the whole humanistic field Some volumes explore the linguistic political or anthropological dimensions of canonicity Others examine the historical canons of individual disciplines The important contribution to the canon debate is remarkable in examining the actual process of canon formation from three unusual and complementary angles The first two chapters discuss historical attitudes to canons from antiquity onwards showing the religious aesthetic cultural and political interests which have shaped our modern critical canons Each of the four succeeding chapters examines an exemplary modern defendant interpreter or critic of canons Ernst Gombrich Northrop Frye Frank Kermode and Edward Said A final chapter considers the origins and rationale of the contemporary debate emphasizing the disciplinary and aesthetic problems we must confront if our cultural institutions are to meet the changing needs of the next century

Worldview David K. Naugle, 2002-07-16 Conceiving of Christianity as a worldview has been one of the most significant events in the church in the last 150 years In this new book David Naugle provides the best discussion yet of the history and contemporary use of worldview as a totalizing approach to faith and life This informative volume first locates the origin of worldview in the writings of Immanuel Kant and surveys the rapid proliferation of its use throughout the English speaking world Naugle then provides the first study ever undertaken of the insights of major Western philosophers on the subject of worldview and offers an original examination of the role this concept has played in the natural and social sciences Finally Naugle gives the concept biblical and theological grounding exploring the unique ways that worldview has been used in the Evangelical Orthodox and Catholic traditions This clear presentation of the concept of worldview will be valuable to a wide range of readers

The Inklings, the Victorians, and the Moderns Christopher Butynskyi, 2020-01-28 In The Inklings the Victorians and the Moderns the author examines the dynamics of a small group of twentieth century traditionalists who reacted in opposition to the spirit of the intellectual movements of the modern age In particular he draws on the Inklings e g C S Lewis J R R Tolkien Christian humanists such as G K Chesterton and other proponents of the Great Books and classical liberal learning to outline a position that eschewed reactionary rejections of modern thought but sought to transcend its perceived limitations by asserting the continued value of myth religion liberal education and ancient texts They were more than instigators and wished to reconcile and translate conservative traditional ideas within a progressive modern scientific context The author magnifies the intellectual trends in modern Western thought in the twentieth century and provides the historical context for the resistance to the prominent and convincing tenets of modernity Given the myriad responses he focuses on a more conservative response to reductive definitions born out of well intentioned progressivism The author approaches the subject matter from an historical perspective but utilizes an interdisciplinary discourse to create a multi dimensional explanation of the intellectual atmosphere of the twentieth century

Creation Stories Anthony Aveni, 2021-04-20 An accessible exploration of how diverse cultures have explained humanity's origins through narratives about the natural environment Drawing from a vast array of creation myths Babylonian Greek Aztec Maya Inca Chinese Hindu Navajo Polynesian African Norse Inuit and more this short illustrated book uncovers both the similarities and differences in our attempts to explain the universe Anthony Aveni an award winning author and professor of astronomy and anthropology examines the ways various cultures around the world have attempted to explain our origins and what roles the natural environment plays in shaping these narratives The book also celebrates the audacity of the human imagination Whether the first humans emerged from a cave as in the Inca myths or from bamboo stems as the Bantu people of Africa believed or whether the universe is simply the result of Vishnu's cyclical inhales and exhales each of these fascinating stories reflects a deeper understanding of the culture it arose from as well as its place in the larger human narrative

African Traditional Religion in the Modern World, 2d ed. Douglas E. Thomas, 2015-05-21 African traditional religion encompasses a variety of non dogmatic spiritual practices followed by millions around the world Some scholars argue it is related to the Nubian religion of Egypt's Dynastic Period In an expanded second edition this book examines the nature of African traditional religion and describes common attributes of various cultural belief systems with an emphasis on West Africa Principal elements studied include sacrifice salvation and culture modes of revelation divination and African resilience in the face of invasion and colonization The religious experiences of black people throughout the Americas are also covered The author finds the cosmology symbolism and rituals of the Yoruba culture to be the fundamental bases of African traditional religion and draws similarities between the oral and written literature of West Africans and that of New World practitioners The influence of Islam and Christianity is also discussed Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Myth-Building in Modern Media A.J. Black, 2020-06-18 Mythology for centuries has served as humanity's window into understanding its distant past In our modern world storytelling creates its own myths and legends in media ranging from the world of television and cinema to literature and comic books that help us make sense of the world we live in today What is the Mytharc How did it arise How does it inform modern long form storytelling How does the classical hero's journey intersect with modern myths and narratives And where might the storytelling of tomorrow take readers and viewers as we imagine our future From The X-Files to H.P. Lovecraft from Lost to the Marvel cinematic universe and many worlds beyond this study explores our modern storytelling mythology and where it may lead us

Myth in the Modern Novel Liisa Steinby, 2023-03-20 Myth in the Modern Novel Imagining the Absolute posits a twofold thesis First although Modernity is regarded as an era dominated by science and rational thought it has in fact not relinquished the hold of myth a more primitive form of thought which is difficult to reconcile with modern rationality Second some of the most important statements as to the reconcilability of myth and Modernity are found in the work of certain prominent novelists This book offers a close examination of the work of eleven writers from the late eighteenth century to the beginning of the twenty first representing German French American Czech and Swedish literature The analyses of individual novels reveal a variety of intriguing views of myth in Modernity and offer an insight into the modernizing transformations myth has undergone when applied in the modern novel The study shows the presence of the subconscious the mythic layer in modern western culture and how this has been dealt with in novelistic literature

Myth and Solidarity in the Modern World Timothy Stacey, 2018-01-17 In the context of the rise of reactionary politics across the globe this book seeks new ways of developing solidarity across religious political and economic differences Drawing on an increasingly influential Christian theological movement postliberalism it claims that the dominance of liberal secular rationality has blinded people to the fundamental role of transcendence and myth in developing solidarity The result is either atrophy or a retrenching in divisive myths of faith race nation or economic status Liberalism is now a dominant force across the globe But its resonance in the Anglo Saxon West from which it originates and has been most fully realized is relatively underexplored The book thus follows two simultaneous lines of enquiry Firstly a genealogical study of social scientific and policy iterations of the relationship between belief and solidarity in the Anglo Saxon West placing postliberal theory into dialogue with the sociology and anthropology of religion politics and economics Secondly it draws from original ethnographic research with groups in London UK that seek to develop solidarity in the face of deep seated difference By bringing a new way of framing these contentious debates about contemporary society this research offers tools for more productive conversations around religious and political topics in particular concluding with a clear policy proposal It is therefore a useful resource for both academics of theology and religious studies political philosophy sociology and anthropology and for politicians policy makers and practitioners hoping to develop solidarity in the modern world
