Modern Irish Writers And The Wars Ulster Editions And Monographs 7:

Yeats Richard J. Finneran, 2001 Another volume in the distinguished annual The Living Stream Warwick Gould, 2013 Memories of the man are shared by Seamus Heaney Christopher Rush and Colin Smythe who compiles a bibliography of Jeffares's work Terence Brown Neil Corcoran Warwick Gould Joseph M Hassett Phillip L Marcus Ann Saddlemeyer Ronald Schuchard Deirdre Toomey and Helen Vendler offer essays on such topics as Yeats and the Colours of Poetry Yeats's Shakespeare Yeats and Seamus Heaney Lacrimae Rerum and Tragic Joy Raftery's work on Yeats's Thoor Ballylee Edmund Dulac's portrait of Mrs George Yeats The Tower as an anti Modernist monument with close studies of Vacillation Her Triumph and The Cold Heaven Throughout the essays are inflected with memories of Jeffares and his critical methods The volume is rounded with further essays on A Vision by Neil Mann and Matthew de Forrest while reviews of recent editions and studies are provided by Matthew Campbell Wayne K Chapman Sandra Clark Denis Donoghue Nicholas Grene Joseph M Hassett and K P S Jochum Yeats Annual is published by Open Book Publishers in association with the Institute of English Studies University of London A Critical Study of Sean O'Faolain's Life and Work Marie Arndt, 2001 A critical exploration of the life and work of Sean O Faolain a somewhat neglected Irish writer placing his achievement in historical and political context Marie Arndt's theoretical framework uses primarily Foucault and Fanon Though O Faolain tried to convey a picture of himself as an internationalist he also remained emotionally attached to his Irish roots This study proposes that these fundamental points lie at the heart of his often contradictory arguments on contemporary Irish issues such as the Gaelic heritage Catholicism nationalism and the Anglo Irish and English colonial presence in Ireland Sean O'Faolain Donatella Abbate Badin, 2001 Books Ireland, 2007 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2001

International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets The Dreaming Body Melissa Sihra, Paul Murphy, 2009 In A Critical History of Modern Irish Drama 1891 1980 1984 the late Professor D E S Maxwell states that the drama of J M Synge has an effect of language to disturb the apparent solidity of his stage's material accessories to fantasticize and mythologise character into action In a sense this is what all great drama does through the use of the fantastic and the mythic it disturbs the solidity of the world as we know it The works presented and discussed in this volume show how the material of the everyday is transformed by the dreams of theatre makers as we journey forth into the 21st Century In writings by Marina Carr Seamus Heaney Olwen Fou r Terry Eagleton Paul Murphy Aoife Monks Melissa Sihra Conall Morrison Mark Phelan Eamonn Jordan Brian Singleton Lynne Parker Rhona Trench Stephen Regan David Johnston and Donal O Kelly we see examples of creative writing which engage critically with a world that is constantly changing and examples of critical writing which engage creatively with theatre that is constantly evolving This book is also a celebration of the vitality originality and richness of theatre practice and scholarship on the island today In Olwen Fou r's 1999 production Angel Babel the millennial cyborg figure says The dreaming body lies at the core of everything and the metaphor of the dark is much richer and stranger than what is being talked about Theatre indeed all art is impossible without the dreaming body whether it is the body of the performer the playwright the designer the scholar or the director Such creative impulses are at the heart of what this book seeks to explore Theatre practice and scholarship in Ireland North and South has never been more vibrant and energised This collection of writings offers a taste of the dreams and imaginings which have materialised on the island over the last forty years The sixteenth volume in the Ulster Editions Monographs Series International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2008 Europa Publications,2007-08-23 An invaluable source of information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world Renegotiating and Resisting Nationalism in Twentieth-century Irish Drama Scott Boltwood,2009 The essays in this collection seek to refine our understanding of the often polyvalent and conflicted engagement that Irish dramatists have entered into with nationalism a cultural and political movement that they have often attempted to simultaneously resist and renegotiate These nine essays construct a genealogy of dissent of loyal opposition revealing the apprehension and dissatisfaction with which the twentieth century s most influential playwrights have sometimes viewed the Irish state from its emergence in the early 1900s to its maturity at the century s end The articles on W B Yeats Augusta Gregory J M Synge and Sean O Casey reveal the early Abbey Theatre s struggle to critique the failures of and influence the development of the early state and its proscriptive brand of nationalist Irishness The essays exploring the later plays of Samuel Beckett Brian Friel Frank McGuinness Anne Devlin Christina Reid Marie Jones and Marina Carr expose both the conceptual and political failures of mainstream Irishness in the second half of the twentieth century to satisfy the material or political aspirations of people on either side of the Irish border While many of this collection s essays share a common postcolonial interpretive strategy individual articles also employ the strategies of ecocriticism social anthropology structuralism feminism and nationalist theory The fifteenth volume in the Ulster Editions and Monographs series American Book Publishing Record ,1996 Krieg und Literatur ,2002 University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System). Institute of Library Research,University of California, Berkeley,1972 Modern Irish Writers and the Wars Kathleen Devine,1999 In recent years the literature arising out of the Troubles of the last three decades has understandably stimulated widespread and sustained critical comment and debate but there has been no such intensive examination of the Irish literature of the century s wars Irish Fiction Since the 1960s Elmer Kennedy-Andrews,2006 This collection of 14 essays has been designed to map the landscape of Irish fiction since 1960 and to assess the literary achievement of Irish novelists and short story writers North and South of the border over the last 40 years Paul Muldoon Poetry, Prose, Drama Elmer Kennedy-Andrews,2006 Ever since his student efforts thrilled Seamus Heaney in the early 1970s Paul Muldoon has written poetry acclaimed for its brilliance and originality its mischievousness wit and complex artifice Today Muldoon is widely considered to be the greatest poet of his generation not just in Ireland but throughout the English speaking world The twelve essays collected here chart the development of this unpredictable innovative and challenging talent over the last thirty years They offer a kaleidoscopic examination of Muldoon s writings in the three genres of poetry prose and drama from a variety of perspectives and without any polemical intention beyond that of celebrating his achievement Taken together these essays attempt to map the continuity of Muldoon s diverse and substantial oeuvre but also to highlight its constant experimentalism they demonstrate how difficult it is for us to know how seriously we should take anything Muldoon says but alert us to the ways in which the playfulness and cleverness contribute to a profound ethical seriousness they explore his complexly deconstructive technique to show how it represents a constant renewal of the self and of form they show how the momentum for escape from the past is always contained within the recognition of the impossibility of escape they examine the work as a means of both evasive self protection from the world and self expression of an intense emotional life they calculate the ratios of scepticism and passion
