 Lemon, Henry Mayhew, Tom Taylor, Shirley Brooks, Francis Cowley Burnand, Owen Seaman, 1914 Sport and the Pursuit of War and Peace from the Nineteenth Century to the Present Martin Hurcombe, Philip Dine, 2023-03-14 This volume of wide ranging essays by sport historians and sociologists examines the complex relations of war peace and sport through a series of case studies from South and North America Europe North Africa Asia and New Zealand From formal military training in the late nineteenth century to contemporary esports the relationship between military and sporting cultures has endured across nations in times of conflict and peace This collection contextualizes debates around the morality and desirability of continuing to play sport against the backdrop of war as others are dying for their nation It also examines the legacy and memory of particular wars as expressed in a range of sporting practices in the immediate aftermath of conflicts such as the World Wars and wars of independence At the same time this book analyses the history of sport and peace by considering how sport can operate as a pacification in some contexts and a tool of reconciliation in others Together and through an introductory framing essay these essays offer scholars of sport conflict studies and cultural history more broadly a multinational analysis of the war peace sport nexus that has operated throughout the world since the late nineteenth century Chapter 11 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.taylorfrancis.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0

 MacKenzie, 2017-03-01 This study assesses the significance of the hunting cult as a major element of the imperial experience in Africa and Asia Through a study of the game laws and the beginnings of conservation in the 19th and early 20th centuries the author demonstrates the racial inequalities which existed between Europeans and indigenous hunters Africans were denied access to game and the development of game reserves and national parks accelerated this process Indigenous hunters in Africa and India were turned into poachers and only Europeans were permitted to hunt In India the hunting of animals became the chief recreation of military officers and civilian officials a source of display and symbolic dominance of the environment Imperial hunting fed the natural history craze of the day and many hunters collected trophies and specimens for private and public collections as well as contributing to hunting literature Adopting a radical approach to issues of conservation this book links the hunting cult in Africa and India to the development of conservation and consolidates widely scattered material on the importance of hunting to the economics and nutrition of African societies The English Review
