Only Man Is Vile The Tragedy Of Sri Lanka:

Only Man is Vile William McGowan,1992 Traces the conflict between the Sinhalese majority the Tamils and other groups in Sri Lanka to the legacy of British colonial rule and visits each of the warring communities Only Man is Vile William McGowan,1992 Study of contemporary war torn Sri Lanka Intellectuals and Society Thomas Sowell,2012-03-06 The influence of intellectuals is not only greater than in previous eras but also takes a very different form from that envisioned by those like Machiavelli and others who have wanted to directly influence rulers It has not been by shaping the opinions or directing the actions of the holders of power that modern intellectuals have most influenced the course of events but by shaping public opinion in ways that affect the actions of power holders in democratic societies whether or not those power holders accept the general vision or the particular policies favored by intellectuals Even government leaders with disdain or contempt for intellectuals have had to bend to the climate of opinion shaped by those intellectuals Intellectuals and Society not only examines the track record of intellectuals in the things they have advocated but also analyzes the incentives and constraints under which their views and visions have emerged One of the most surprising aspects of this study is how often intellectuals have been proved not only wrong but grossly and disastrously wrong in their prescriptions for the ills of society and how little their views have changed in response to empirical evidence of the disasters entailed by those views Intellectuals and Race Thomas Sowell,2013-03-12 Intellectuals and Race is a radical book in the original sense of one that goes to the root of the problem The role of intellectuals in racial strife is explored in an international context that puts the American experience in a wholly new light The views of individual intellectuals have spanned the spectrum but the views of intellectuals as a whole have tended to cluster Indeed these views have clustered at one end of the spectrum in the early twentieth century and then clustered at the opposite end of the spectrum in the late twentieth century Moreover these radically different views of race in these two eras were held by intellectuals whose views on other issues were very similar in both eras Intellectuals and Race is not however a book about history even though it has much historical evidence as well as demographic geographic economic and statistical evidence all of it directed toward testing the underlying assumptions about race that have prevailed at times among intellectuals in general and especially intellectuals at the highest levels Nor is this simply a theoretical exercise The impact of intellectuals ideas and crusades on the larger society both past and present is the ultimate concern These ideas and crusades have ranged widely from racial theories of intelligence to eugenics to social justice and multiculturalism In addition to in depth examinations of these and other issues Intellectuals and Race explores the incentives the visions and the rationales that drive intellectuals at the highest levels to conclusions that have often turned out to be counterproductive and even disastrous not only for particular racial or ethnic groups but for societies as a whole Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson,2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson's Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion John Frith, Scholar and Martyr Brian Raynor, 2000 John Frith was one of the outstanding academics of his time He had a clear logical mathematical mind was highly respected and influenced many Yet in 1553 at the age of 30 he was burnt at the stake for writing books supporting doctrines of Reformation This work discusses his life State and Nation in South Asia Swarna

Rajagopalan, 2001 What makes a national community out of a state Addressing this fundamental question Rajagopalan studies national integration from the perspective of three South Asian communities Tamilians in India Sindhis in Pakistan and Tamils in Sri Lanka that have a history of secessionism in common but with vastly different outcomes Rajagopalan investigates why integration is relatively successful in some cases Tamil Nadu less so in others Sindh and disastrous in some Sri Lanka Broadly comparative and drawing together multiple aspects of political development and nation building her imaginative exploration of the tension between state and nation gives voice to relatively disenfranchised sections of society

South Asian Writers in Twentieth-Century Britain Ruvani Ranasinha, 2007-02-22 South Asian Writers in Twentieth Century Britain is the first book to provide a historical account of the publication and reception of South Asian anglophone writing from the 1930s to the present based on original archival research drawn from a range of publishing houses This comparison of succeeding generations of writers who emigrated to or were born in Britain examines how the experience of migrancy the attitudes towards migrant writers in the literary market place and the critical reception of them changed significantly throughout the twentieth century Ranasinha shows how the aesthetic cultural and political context changed significantly for each generation producing radically different kinds of writing and transforming the role of the postcolonial writer of South Asian origin The extensive use of original materials from publishers archives shows how shifting political academic and commercial agendas in Britain and North America influenced the selection content presentation and consumption of many of these texts The differences between writers of different generations can thus in part be understood in terms of the different demands of their publishers and expectations of readers in each decade Writers from different generations are paired accordingly in each chapter Nirad Chaudhuri 1897-1999 with Tambimuttu 1915-83 Ambalavener Sivanandan born 1923 with Kamala Markandaya born 1924 Salman Rushdie born 1947 with Farrukh Dhondy born 1944 and Hanif Kureishi born 1954 with Meera Syal born 1963 Raja Rao Mulk Raj Anand Attia Hosain V S Naipaul and Aubrey Menen are also discussed Confronting Past Human Rights Violations Chandra Lekha Sriram,2004-08-12 This book examines what makes accountability for previous abuses more or less possible for transitional regimes to achieve It closely examines the other vital goals of such regimes against which accountability is often balanced The options available are not simply prosecution or pardon as the most heated polemics of the debate over transitional justice suggest but a range of options from complete amnesty through truth commissions and lustration or purification to prosecutions The question then is not whether accountability can be achieved but what degree of accountability can be achieved by a given country Elephant Complex John Gimlette,2016-02-16 No one sees the world quite like John Gimlette As The New York Times once noted he writes with enormous wit indignation and a heightened sense of the absurd Writing for both the adventurer and the armchair traveler he has an eye for unusually telling detail a sense of wonder and compelling curiosity for the inside story This time he travels to Sri Lanka a country only now emerging from twenty six years of civil war Delving deep into the nation s story Gimlette provides us with an astonishing multifaceted portrait of the island today His travels reveal the country as never before Beginning in the exuberant capital Colombo a hint of anarchy everywhere he ventures out in all directions to the dry zones where the island s 5 800 wild elephants congregate around ancient reservoirs through cinnamon country with its Portuguese forts to the Bible Belt of Buddhism the tsunami ravaged southeast coast then up into the great green highlands the garden in the sky and Kandy the country s eccentric aristocratic Shangri la Along the way a wild and often desperate history takes shape a tale of great colonies Arab Portuguese British and Dutch and of the cultural divisions that still divide this society Before long we re in Jaffna and the Vanni crucibles of the recent conflict These areas the hottest driest and least hospitable have been utterly devastated by war and are only now struggling to their feet But this is also a story of friendship and remarkable encounters In the course of his journey Gimlette meets farmers war heroes ancient tribesmen world class cricketers terrorists a former president old planters survivors of great massacres and perhaps some of their perpetrators That s to say nothing of the island s beguiling fauna elephants crocodiles snakes storks and the greatest concentration of leopards on Earth Here is a land of extravagant beauty and profound devastation of ingenuity and catastrophe possessed of both a volatile past and an uncertain future a place capable of being at once heavenly and hellish all brought to vibrant fascinating life here on the page Encyclopedia of the Developing World Thomas M. Leonard,2013-10-18 A RUSA 2007 Outstanding Reference Title The Encyclopedia of the Developing World is a comprehensive work on the historical and current status of developing countries Containing more than 750 entries the Encyclopedia encompasses primarily the years since 1945 and defines development broadly addressing not only economics but also civil society and social progress Entries cover the most important theories and measurements of development relate historical events movements and concepts to development both internationally and regionally where applicable examine the contributions of the most important persons and organizations and detail the progress made within geographic regions and by individual countries Conquests and

Cultures Thomas Sowell, 2021-08-10 This book is the culmination of 15 years of research and travels that have taken the author completely around the world twice as well as on other travels in the Mediterranean the Baltic and around the Pacific rim Its purpose has been to try to understand the role of cultural differences within nations and between nations today and over centuries of history in shaping the economic and social fates of peoples and of whole civilizations Focusing on four major cultural areas that of the British the Africans including the African diaspora the Slavs of Eastern Europe and the indigenous peoples of the Western Hemisphere Conquests and Cultures reveals patterns that encompass not only these peoples but others and help explain the role of cultural evolution in economic social and political development Who Intervenes? David Carment, Patrick James, Zeynep Taydas, 2006 The book includes a comparative analysis of five case studies India and Sri Lanka Somalia and Ethiopia Malaysia and the Thai Malay a non intervention the immediate aftermath of the breakup of Yugoslavia and Greece and Turkey with Cyprus The case histories produce strong support for the relevance of the typology and catalysts Ethnic composition institutional constraint and ethnic affinity and cleavage are very useful factors in distinguishing both the likelihood and form of intervention Economic Growth and Political Change in Asia Graham Field, 2016-07-27 This book looks at the main factors which have contributed to the strikingly strong growth of Asian economies in the last twenty five years It considers the economic policies adopted to promote such growth arguing that it will become increasingly difficult to sustain this The author then examines the inequalities generated by economic growth before considering the dynamics of the four different types of political system which have evolved in Asia veiled authoritarianism market Stalinism emerging bourgeois democracy and elite democracy Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict, revised edition Michael E. Brown, Owen R. Cote, Jr., Sean M. Lynn-Jones, Steven E. Miller, 2001-09-14 Understanding the roots and causes of ethnic animosity analyses of recent events in Bosnia Kosovo Rwanda Somalia and the former Soviet Union Most recent wars have been complex and bloody internal conflicts driven to a significant degree by nationalism and ethnic animosity Since the end of the Cold War dozens of wars in Bosnia Kosovo Rwanda Somalia the former Soviet Union and elsewhere have killed or displaced millions of people Understanding and controlling these wars has become one of the most important and frustrating tasks for scholars and political leaders This revised and expanded edition of Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict contains essays from some of the world's leading analysts of nationalism ethnic conflict and internal war The essays from the first edition have been updated and supplemented by analyses of recent conflicts and new research on the resolution of ethnic and civil wars The first part of the book addresses the roots of nationalistic and ethnic wars focusing in particular on the former Yugoslavia The second part assesses options for international action including the use of force and the deployment of peacekeeping troops The third part examines political challenges that often complicate attempts to prevent or end internal conflicts including refugee flows and the special difficulties of resolving civil wars Israel's Quest for Recognition and Acceptance in Asia Jacob Abadi, 2004-03 Dr Abadi provides an overview of Israel's relations with Asian countries from 1948 until the present and analyzes the political social and economic factors in each country and the role that each played in the process of rapprochement with Israel The Politics of Difference Edwin Norman Wilmsen, P. A. McAllister, 1996-08

According to most social scientists the advent of a global media village and the rise of liberal democratic government would diminish ethnic and national identity as a source of political action Yet the contemporary world is in the midst of an explosion of identity politics and often violent ethnonationalism This volume examines cases ranging from the well publicized ethnonationalism of Bosnia and post Apartheid South Africa to ethnic conflicts in Belgium and Sri Lanka Distinguished international scholars including John Comaroff Stanley J Tambiah and Ernesto Laclau argue that continued acceptance of imposed ethnic terms as the most appropriate vehicle for collective self identification and social action legitimizes the conditions of inequality that give rise to them in the first place This ambitious attempt to explain the inadequacies of current approaches to power and ethnicity forges more realistic alternatives to the volatile realities of social difference Fatal

Future? Richard M. Pearlstein, 2009-06-03 The nature and goals of terrorist organizations have changed profoundly since the Cold War standoff among the U S Soviet and Chinese superpowers gave way to the current polyplex global system in which the old rules of international engagement have been shattered by a new struggle for power among established states non state actors and emerging nations In this confusing state of global disorder terrorist organizations that are privately funded and highly flexible have become capable of carrying out incredibly destructive attacks anywhere in the world in support of a wide array of political religious and ethnic causes This groundbreaking book examines the evolution of terrorism in the context of the new global disorder Richard M Pearlstein categorizes three generations of terrorist organizations and shows how each arose in response to the global conditions of its time Focusing extensively on today s transnational i e privately funded and internationally operating terrorist organizations he devotes thorough attention to the two most virulent types ethnoterrorism and radical Islamic terrorism He also discusses the terrorist race for weapons of mass destruction and the types of attacks including cyberterrorism that are likely to occur in coming years Pearlstein concludes with a thought provoking assessment of the many efforts to combat transnational terrorism in the post September 11 period The New

Regional Politics of Development Anthony Payne, 2019-08-09 The New Regional Politics of Development assesses the various development strategies being pursued in each of the major regions of the world While huge inequalities in wealth and capacity remain a hallmark of the twenty first century world order the contributors argue that hard and fast distinctions between developed and developing states are outdated and inhibit our understanding of the real relationships and dynamics at work Fanaticism and Conflict in the Modern Age Matthew Hughes, Gaynor Johnson, 2004-12-15 What is fanaticism Is the term at all useful After all one person s fanatic is another s freedom fighter This new book probes these key questions of the twenty first century It details how throughout history there have been fanatics eager to pursue their religious political or personal agendas
