Pope John Paul II On Inculturation:

Inculturation and Ecclesial Communion Francis E. George, 1990 Inculturation and Ecclesial Communion Francis Eugene George (card.), 1990 Pope John Paul II on Inculturation S. Iniobong Udoidem, 1996 This work undertakes a philosophical analysis and study of the thought of John Paul II on inculturation and evangelization It investigates the development of the Pope's thought on inculturation and argues that inculturation is the central theme that unifies the Pope's encyclical The relationship between inculturation and evangelization is argued for with particular attention to the analysis of such themes as creation as inculturation incarnation as inculturation and evangelization as inculturation The text then argues that the relationships between these themes are not only reciprocal but hermeneutical It also focuses on the relationship between hermeneutics and inculturation and argues that hermeneutics is the most rational foil for understanding the mechanics and the logic of inculturation The text shows how inculturation as proposed by Pope John Paul II serves as a unifying principle that would usher in a new world order intellectually and socially Such world vision would allow for cooperation and unity between nations of varied cultures and thus allow for the development of a Christian and world community where peaceful co existence would be a priority This is the hope of the Pope's gospel of Evangelization 2000

Culture, Human Rights and Peace in Central America George F. McLean, Raul Molina, Timothy Ready, 1989 The Church-as-family and Ethnocentrism in Sub-Saharan Africa Gerald K. Tanye, 2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them make them blossom and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background Inculturation Diego Irarrazaval, 2008-02-01 This compelling account of how Andean Christians have inculturated the Gospel and the challenges that confront them provides a real world view of the urgent process of inculturation In the context of pluri cultural development of the church this process is one that affirms that both culture and history are transformed by the Spirit of God Inculturation surveys Andean culture and religious traditions drawing from day to day experience in the transformation of education and social action personal and communal life spirituality and the whole of Christian mission in today's world It also discusses current evangelization trends worldwide examining negative as well as positive examples of inculturation and offers guidelines for future efforts Toward a Theology of Inculturation Aylward Shorter, 2006-01-30 Inculturation is a word come only recently into theological language having its origin and impetus in a revolution in the perception of Christian mission even of Christian identity Toward a Theology of Inculturation is the first book to bring together the many strands of current and historical Catholic thought on what might be called a theology of a multicultural church Inculturation Shorter argues is the recognition that faith must in effect become culture to be fully received and lived In the course of a wide ranging discussion the author explores the intimate relationship between inculturation and theology focusing in particular on scripture the history of missions especially in Africa and contemporary Catholic thought Shorter concludes with an exploration of the future of the church a multicultural church Toward a Theology of Inculturation offers a substantive explication of what inculturation is what it is not how and when it occurs and what its limits are or should be

The Reception of the Second Vatican Council's Liturgical Reforms in Nigeria (Nsukka Diocese) Uchenna Aba, 2016 Fifty years after the promulgation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy a great moment has dawned in which a more dispassionate assessment of the reception of this important document has become imperative in order to enable the Church to undertake necessary steps in realizing the full potential of the renewal envisaged by the Council Fathers The present study identifies peculiar and diverse challenges confronting the process of reception in the Nsukka Diocese Nigerian Church today However the author acknowledges that the full reception of Sacrosanctum Concilium is still a work in progress Uchenna Aba is a Catholic priest in Nsukka Nigeria and currently the Chaplain of St Martin s Parish Goch Diocese of Muenster Germany Dissertation Subject Religious Studies African Studies

Overcoming Women's Subordination in the Igbo African Culture and in the Catholic Church Rose N. Uchem, 2001 When African scholars lament over the near destruction of African cultures they do not reflect the reality of African women s historical traditions of empowerment and inclusion in pre colonial pre Christian African societies which were also lost in the same process of Western Christian cultural imperialism Similarly most male Church theologians writing or speaking about inculturation do not address the deeper cultural issues which impact heavily on African women from back cover

Models of Contextual Theology Stephen B. Bevans, 2002 Stephen B Bevans s Models of Contextual Theology has become a staple in courses on theological method and as a handbook used by missionaries and other Christians concerned with the Christian tradition s understanding of itself in relation to culture First published in 1992 and now in its seventh printing in English with translations underway into Spanish Korean and Indonesian Bevans s book is a judicious examination of what the terms contextual theology and to contextualize mean In the revised and expanded edition Bevans adds a counter cultural model to the five presented in the first edition the translation the anthropological the praxis the synthetic and the transcendental model This means that readers will be introduced to the way in which figures such as Stanley Hauerwas John Milbank Lesslie Newbigin and occasionally Pope John Paul II need to be taken into account The author s revisions also incorporate suggestions made by reviewers to enhance the clarity of the original three chapters on the nature of contextual theology and the five models

WHEN--Questions for Catholicism Michael J. Tkacik, 2022-07-01 Jesus calls the church to be a sacrament to the world Sadly many women LGBTQ persons people of other faiths and lay persons experience suffering due to certain words and actions of the Catholic Church At times the language and practices of the church leave some people feeling as if their voices have been silenced their roles limited and their vocations impeded Some often feel underappreciated and disrespected This work explores a vision for the future church which faces these challenges and illuminates possible solutions Every person has gifts given by God for the building up of the church Through a thorough exploration of biblical and church teachings alternative views of these issues provide a path to inclusion for all This book is intended to bring comfort hope and healing to those who have been marginalized It also offers a map for the church as it journeys to be more of what Christ calls it to be In a manner faithful to the gospel reforms for the church are considered that open it to what the Spirit might be saying When is the time for all persons to be valued welcomed empowered and respected Now Emerging Conversations on Theofiliation Kenneth Ameke, Samuel Uzoukwu, 2019-10-10 It is in honour of the silver jubilee of Most Rev Anthony J V Obinna s episcopacy that this book is put together in this first volume titled Emerging Conversations on Theofiliation Essays in Honour of Archbishop Anthony J V Obinna This volume discusses and enlarges insights inherent in Archbishop Obinna s theological thinking on theofiliation Therefore the contributors to this volume critically examine his idea of theofiliation from their areas of speciality as a further exploration of this theological term The willingness of the contributors has resulted in a collection that envisage the eclectic and heterogeneous scholarly vision of its honouree Besides the contributors to this maiden edition encompass both illustrious theologians and promising researchers in theology philosophy psychology and management The themes discussed by the contributors are grouped into biblical comparative study systematic pastoral ethical management philosophical political and anthropological issues The enriching and diverse collections of this volume have five thematic sections of nineteen chapters that theofiliation brings together This Festschrift in honour of Amarachi Obinna is a compendium of usable knowledge The authors have dealt with various themes largely inspired by the theology and practice of the archbishop This conviction leads to the reflections on theofiliation the reinGodment of all creation The Festschrift is truly a treasure Prof John Obilor Imo State University Owerri This book is an insightful reading which will serve as an inspirational theological wellspring for emerging scholars engaged in articulating a robust African contextual theology to which it breathes fresh air The spirit of dynamism in Archbishop Obinna s novel brainchild of theofiliation is manifested in its applicability to wide ranging academic disciplines William Odeke Owire KU Leuven Community of Missionary Disciples Bevens, Stephen B., 2024-04-17 Ecclesiology from a mission perspective Joseph Ratzinger and the Future of
