Popular Dimensions Of The Abbasid Revolution A Case Study Of Medieval Islamic Social History:

Popular Dimensions of the 'Abbasid Revolution Roberto Marín Guzmán, 1990 Studies in Honour of Clifford Edmund Bosworth, Volume II Carole Hillenbrand, 2021-11-08 Professor C E Bosworth FBA is a Middle East historian of world stature In this volume his friends and colleagues come together to honour his 70th birthday This book ranges widely over time and space but its core is the Islamic culture of Iran and Turkey The contributors cover topics from the Arab conquest in the seventh century to Turkish and Iranian nationalism in the twentieth century Special attention is paid to medieval Turco Persian history an area which lies at the heart of Professor Bosworth's oeuvre more than half of the articles fall into this category Moreover five of them focus on that early medieval eastern Iranian world on which he has written so widely While the emphasis lies squarely on history other fields such as religion literature music art and numismatics are also represented Thus the volume offers a conspectus of the cultural contribution of Iran and Turkey to Islamic civilisation

Studies in Honour of Clifford Edmund Bosworth, Volume I Ian Netton, 2021-10-25 Professor C E Bosworth FBA is a Middle East historian of world stature In this volume his friends and colleagues come together to honour his 70th birthday The diversity of these essays reflects the diversity and depth of Professor Bosworth's own interests Ranging through the five areas of Literature Language History Law and Art and Epigraphy this volume embraces the ancient the medieval and the modern covering topics as diverse as the Maqama genre the significance of wooden weapons in al-Mukhtar's revolt and nineteenth century exchanges in Himyaritic inscriptions The volume illustrates the vibrancy and dynamism of modern scholarship in the field of Arabic and Semitic Studies American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 21:1 Ho

Wai-Yip, Roberto Marín-Guzmán, Wendy O'Shea-Meddour, Enamul Choudhury, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam The Revolution which toppled the Umayyads Saleh Said Agha, 2003-11-01 This book re-examines the so-called Abbasid revolution the ethnic character of whose effective constituency has been contested for over eight decades It also brings to question the authenticity of the Abbasid dynastic claim To establish its two theses neither Arab nor Abbasid this book employs in its three parts three distinct methodological approaches To reconstruct the secret history of the clandestine Organization Part One elicits a narrative through a rigorous application of the historical critical method Part Two subjects to close textual analysis some prime grade literary specimen In Part Three a purely quantitative approach is adopted to study the demographic character of the formal structures of leadership within the Organization History historiography heresiography literature the narrative the textual analysis and the quantitative approach cannot be less inseparable Rebellion and Violence in Islamic Law Khaled Abou El

Fadl,2001-11-01 Khaled Abou El Fadl s book represents the first systematic examination of the idea and treatment of political resistance and rebellion in Islamic law Pre modern jurists produced an extensive and sophisticated discourse on the legality of rebellion and the treatment due to rebels under Islamic law The book examines the emergence and development of these discourses from the eighth to the fifteenth centuries and considers juristic responses to the various terror inducing strategies employed by rebels including assassination stealth attacks and rape The study demonstrates how Muslim jurists went about restructuring several competing doctrinal sources in order to construct a highly technical discourse on rebellion Indeed many of these rulings may have a profound influence on contemporary practices This is an important and challenging book which sheds light on the complexities of Islamic law and pre modern attitudes to dissidence and rebellion Arabs and Iranians in the Islamic Conquest Narrative Scott Savran,2017-09-08 Arabs and Iranians in the Islamic Conquest Narrative analyzes how early Muslim historians merged the pre Islamic histories of the Arab and Iranian peoples into a didactic narrative culminating with the Arab conquest of Iran This book provides an in depth examination of Islamic historical accounts of the encounters between representatives of these two peoples that took place in the centuries prior to the coming of Islam By doing this it uncovers anachronistic projections of dynamic identity and political discourses within the contemporaneous Islamic world It shows how the formulaic placement of such embellishment within the context of the narrative served to justify the Arabs rise to power whilst also explaining the fall of the Iranian Sasanian empire The objective of this book is not simply to mine Islamic historical chronicles for the factual data they contain about the pre Islamic period but rather to understand how the authors of these works thought about this era By investigating the intersection between early Islamic memory identity construction and power discourses this book will benefit researchers and students of Islamic history and literature and Middle Eastern Studies Al-Ma'mun, the Inquisition, and the Quest for Caliphal Authority John

Abdallah Nawas,2015-11-15 The inquisition Mihnah unleashed by the seventh Abbasid caliph Abdallah al Ma mun r 813 833 has long attracted the attention of modern scholars of the intellectual political and religious history of the early Abbasid era Because this event which began in 820 and stretched through the reigns of two of al Ma mun s successors appears at a convergence of prominent currents in systematic theology rationalist thought theocratic politics and nascent trends in Shiism and Sunnism historians have seen it as the key to a wide array of puzzles and problems in early Islamic history In this incisive study John Nawas subjects the various proposed explanations of these events to a sober and searching analysis and in the process presents a new interpretation of al Ma mun s political and religious policies contextualized against the background of early Abbasid intellectual and social history Appended to the volume is a reprint edition of Walter M Patton s Ahmed ibn Hanbal and the Mihna Leiden 1897 which still has much that is useful for modern scholarship including one enormous additional benefit it contains most of the relevant passages in Arabic from the primary sources A Century of Palestinian

Immigration Into Central America Roberto Marín Guzmán,2000 Between Memory and Power Antoine

Borrut,2023-07-17 Between Memory and Power intends to demonstrate that a robust culture of historical writing existed in 2nd 8th century Syria and to offer new methodological approaches to access this now lost history torn between memory and oblivion By studying the making of Umayyad heroes or Abbasid origins myths this book aims to reveal the successive meanings granted to Syrian history and to identify the various layers of historical writing and rewriting during the first centuries of Islam Taken together these elements make possible a history of meanings of the very space of Syria articulated around power and its expression which grants a clear coherence to the period extending well beyond the dynastic caesura of 132 750

Longing for the Lost Caliphate Mona Hassan,2018-08-14 In the United States and Europe the word caliphate has conjured historically romantic and increasingly pernicious associations Yet the caliphate s significance in Islamic history and Muslim culture remains poorly understood This book explores the myriad meanings of the caliphate for Muslims around the world through the analytical lens of two key moments of loss in the thirteenth and twentieth centuries Through extensive primary source research Mona Hassan explores the rich constellation of interpretations created by religious scholars historians musicians statesmen poets and intellectuals Hassan fills a scholarly gap regarding Muslim reactions to the destruction of the Abbasid caliphate in Baghdad in 1258 and challenges the notion that the Mongol onslaught signaled an end to the critical engagement of Muslim jurists and intellectuals with the idea of an Islamic caliphate She also situates Muslim responses to the dramatic abolition of the Ottoman caliphate in 1924 as part of a longer trajectory of transregional cultural memory revealing commonalities and differences in how modern Muslims have creatively interpreted and reinterpreted their heritage Hassan examines how poignant memories of the lost caliphate have been evoked in Muslim culture law and politics similar to the losses and repercussions experienced by other religious communities including the destruction of the Second Temple for Jews and the fall of Rome for Christians A global history Longing for the Lost Caliphate delves into why the caliphate has been so important to Muslims in vastly different eras and places

The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences ,2004 Studies in Honour of Clifford Edmund Bosworth Ian Richard Netton,2000 In 26 well chosen research essays this volume celebrates the 70th birthday of Professor C E Bosworth FBA the distinguished Middle East Historian
