Securing Sex Benjamin A. Cowan,2016-03-02 In this history of right wing politics in Brazil during the Cold War Benjamin Cowan puts the spotlight on the Cold Warriors themselves Drawing on little tapped archival records he shows that by midcentury conservatives individuals and organizations civilian as well as military were firmly situated in a transnational network of right wing cultural activists They subsequently joined the powerful hardline constituency supporting Brazil's brutal military dictatorship from 1964 to 1985 There they lent their weight to a dictatorship that Cowan argues operationalized a moral panic that conflated communist subversion with manifestations of modernity coalescing around the crucial nodes of gender and sexuality particularly in relation to youth women and the mass media The confluence of an empowered right and a security establishment suffused with rightist moralism created strongholds of anticommunism that spanned government agencies spurred repression and generated attempts to control and even change quotidian behavior Tracking how limits to Cold War authoritarianism finally emerged Cowan concludes that the record of autocracy and repression in Brazil is part of a larger story of reaction against perceived threats to traditional views of family gender moral standards and sexuality a story that continues in today's culture wars

Splendors of Latin Cinema R. Hernandez-Rodriguez,2009-11-19 This insightful account analyzes and provides context for the films and careers of directors who have made Latin American film an important force in Hollywood and in world cinema In this insightful account R Hernandez Rodriguez analyzes some of the most important fascinating and popular films to come out of Latin America in the last three decades connecting them to a long tradition of filmmaking that goes back to the beginning of the 20th century Directors Alejandro Inarritu Guillermo del Toro Alfonso Cuaron and Lucretia Martel and director screenwriter Guillermo

Arriaga have given cause for critics and public alike to praise a new golden age of Latin American cinema Splendors of Latin Cinema probes deeply into their films but also looks back at the two most important previous moments of this cinema the experimental films of the 1960s and 1970s as well as the stage setting movies from the 1940s and 1950s It discusses films directors and stars from Spain as a continuing influence Mexico Cuba Brazil Argentina Peru and Chile that have contributed to one of the most interesting aspects of world cinema Brazilian Science Fiction Film Alfredo Suppia,2024-12-01 This book offers a pioneering critical history of Brazilian science fiction SF cinema from its first appearances in the mid twentieth century to the present Though frequently overlooked by scholars SF cinema from the Global South has reinvigorated the genre in recent decades In this comprehensive study the first of its kind in either English or Portuguese Alfredo Suppia draws out the unique features and universal resonance of SF film in Brazil a country that has fittingly been called the land of the future In Suppia s analysis Brazilian SF stems from and responds to a long history of inequality in which everyday reality has often resembled a movie like dystopia Analyzing both short and feature films in the context of social political and economic transformations Suppia rethinks SF film in general from a southern perspective Latin America in the World Antonia Garcia-Rodriguez,Daniel J. Greenberg,2020-04-02 From the Foundations in Global Studies series this text offers students a fresh comprehensive multidisciplinary entry point to Latin America After a brief introduction to the study of the region the early chapters of the book survey the essentials of Latin American history important historical narratives and the region s languages religions and global connections Students are guided through the material with relevant maps resource boxes and text boxes that support and guide further independent exploration of the topics at hand The second half of the book features interdisciplinary case studies each of which focuses on a specific country or subregion and a particular issue Each chapter gives a flavor for the cultural distinctiveness of the particular country yet also draws attention to global linkages Readers will come away from this book with an understanding of the larger historical political and cultural frameworks that shaped Latin America as we know it today and of current issues that have relevance in Latin America and beyond Historical Dictionary of South American Cinema Peter H. Rist,2014-05-08 The Historical Dictionary of South American Cinema covers the long history of cinema in Portuguese speaking Brazil and the nine Spanish speaking countries These films include Los tres berretines Prisioneros de la tierra La balandra Isabel lleg esta tarde La hora de los hornos El chacal de Nahueltoro La teta asustada Abrir puertas y ventanas El secreto de sus ojos and NO This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on directors producers performers films film studios and genres This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the South American Cinema Consuming Visions Maite Conde,2012 Consuming Visions explores the relationship between cinema and writing in early twentieth century Brazil focusing on how the new and foreign medium of film was consumed by a literary society in the throes of modernization Maite Conde places this relationship in the specific context of turn of the century Rio de Janeiro which underwent a radical transformation to a modern global city becoming a concrete symbol of the country's broader processes of change and modernization Analyzing an array of literary texts from journalistic essays and popular women's novels to anarchist treatises and vaudeville plays the author shows how the writers' encounters with the cinema were consistent with the significant changes taking place in the city The arrival and initial development of the cinema in Brazil were part of the new urban landscape in which early Brazilian movies not only articulated the processes of the city's modernization but also enabled new urban spectators women immigrants a new working class and a recently liberated slave population to see believe in and participate in its future In the process these early movies challenged the power of the written word and of Brazilian writers threatening the hegemonic function of writing that had traditionally forged the contours of the nation's cultural life An emerging market of consumers of the new cultural phenomena popular theater the department store the factory illustrated magazines reflected changes that not only modernized literary production but also altered the very life and everyday urban experiences of the population Consuming Visions is an ambitious and engaging examination of the ways in which mass culture can become an agent of intellectual and aesthetic transformation

Stars in World Cinema Andrea Bandhauer, Michelle Royer, 2015-05-28 Deflecting the attention from Hollywood Stars in World Cinema fills an important gap in the study of film by bringing together Star Studies and World Cinema A team of international scholars here bring their expertise and in depth knowledge of world cultures and cinema to the study of stars and stardom from six continents exploring their cultures their local history and their global relevance Chapters look at the role of acting music singing painting and martial arts in the making of stars from Australia's indigenous population Austria China Egypt France Germany Greece India Iran Japan North and South Korea Nigeria the Philippines the former Soviet Union Spain North and South America Since the very beginnings of cinema actors and stars have been central to its history and have been one of the medium's defining characteristics They have also been fundamental to the marketing of cinema and have played a major part in the reception of films in many cultures Stars in World Cinema examines stardom and the circulation of stars across borders analysing how local star systems or non systems construct stardom around the world Contributors put into practice their local knowledge of history language and cultural systems to consider issues of hybridity boundary crossing the mobility of stardom and embodied spectatorship in order to further the understanding of stars in light of recent interest in reception theory Rooted in a multidisciplinary and polycentric approach this book throws light on unexpected connections between stars and stardoms from different parts of the world cutting across chronology geographies and film history

Cinema and Inter-American Relations Adrián Pérez Melgosa, 2012 Cinema and Inter American Relations studies the key role that commercial narrative films have played in the articulation of the political and cultural relationship between the United States and Latin America since the onset of the Good Neighbor policy 1933 Pérez Melgosa analyzes the evolution of inter American narratives in films from across the continent highlights the social effects of the technologies used to produce these works and explores the connections of cinema to successive shifts in hemispheric policy As a result Cinema and Inter American Relations reveals the existence of a continued cinematic conversation between Anglo and Latin America about a cluster of shared allegories representing the continent and its cultures P rez Melgosa contends that cinema has become a virtual contact zone of the Americas mediating in a variety of hemispheric political debates about the articulation of Anglo Latin American and Latino identities Cinema and Inter American Relations brings sustained attention to ongoing calls for a transnational focus on the disciplines of film studies American studies and Latin American studies and engages with current theories of the transmission of affect to delineate a new cartography of how to understand the Americas in relation to cinema

Rethinking Third Cinema Frieda Ekotto, Adeline Koh, 2009 In 1968 Argentinean Filmmakers Fernando Solanas and Octavio Getino first articulated the theory of a Third Cinema a revolutionary genre of cinema that would counter oppression on a global scale Intended to be a guerilla cinema geared at contesting the overwhelming dominance of Western cinema Solana and Getino distinguished Third Cinema from other forms of cinema classifying these other types as First Cinema commercial cinema epitomized by Hollywood and Second Cinema Third Cinema was supposed to be a liberatory tool particularly for the bulk of the world that was subject to European imperialism such as Latin America Africa and Asia Spanning a wide geographical spread of cinemas ranging from Latin America North and Sub Saharan Africa the Caribbean and Asia this book addresses the following questions how can we rethink the concept of Third Cinema for today How do new national cinemas and their accompanying media industries reflect the concerns of societies that are struggling with the implications of accelerated modernization and how are these concerns configured in new genres of aesthetics Is there still a Third Cinema component in contemporary cinemas and if so how can it be understood

productions including film television photography and alternative media to explore the transformation of citizenship in Brazil from 2003 to 2014 A utopian impulse drove the reproduction of Brazilian cultural identity for local and global consumption cultural production sought social and economic profits especially greater inclusion of previously marginalized people and places Marsh asserts that three communicative strategies from branding promising progress cultivating buy in and resolving contradictions are the most salient and recurrent practices of nation branding during this historic period More recent political crises can be understood partly in terms of backlash against marked social and political changes introduced during the branding period Branding Brazil takes a multi faceted approach weaving media studies with politics and cinema studies to reveal that more than a marketing term or project emanating from the state branding was a cultural phenomenon

Locating the Voice in Film Tom Whittaker, Sarah Wright, 2017 This book locates the voice in cinema in different national and transnational contexts to explore how the critical approaches to the voice as well as the practices of sound design technologies and even reception are often grounded in cultural specificity to present readings which challenge traditional theories of the voice in film
